

MOUNTAIN CLIMBER ESTABLISHES LODGE

Rogers to Accommodate Mt. Hood Visitors; Tells of Winter Sports.

Skating and snowshoeing are popular sports now being enjoyed on Mount Hood by lovers of the great outdoors from Portland and all over Oregon, according to Homer Rogers, well known climber and member of the Mazamas, a mountain climbing club of Oregon folks.

Mr. Rogers established a lodge on the snow-clad mountain where he accommodates climbing parties all the year around. He says the winter season is a popular one, and that parties are going up and down regularly.

Most of the magnificent scenic pictures of the Northwest shown at the lecture given by Frank Branch Riley at assembly yesterday morning were taken by Mr. Rogers.

Mr. Rogers has made several trips to Europe and has taken many pictures in the Italian mountains. When asked if he could make a comparison of the Swiss mountains with Oregon's lofty peaks, he said, "To compare beautiful and magnificent things is a very difficult thing to do. While the mountains of Switzerland are undoubtedly more spectacular than the mountains of Oregon, they are not more beautiful. In the Alps one cannot view the vast spaces that are characteristic of the view from Oregon's mountains, as Switzerland is but about one-sixth the size of Oregon and the mountains are more jumbled up together."

Mountain climbing would be a most profitable way for Oregon college students to spend their vacation, according to Mr. Rogers.

Mr. Rogers has planned no big trips for the near future, as mountain climbing enthusiasts keep him busy at the lodge. He expects to spend the remainder of the winter and the coming summer months there on Mount Hood.

FORUM HEARS TEAM OF MEN IN DEBATE

Subject to be Discussed by Women's Teams is Handled Exhaustively.

The women of the University who attended the meeting of the Forum which took place in Johnson hall last evening at 7 o'clock, had the privilege of hearing the question, which the co-ed doughnut debate league has chosen for its contest in February, argued conclusively by Professor Robert W. Prescott's class in men's debate.

The turnout was made up largely of women who expect to represent their houses on the subject, Resolved, That the Allies should strip Germany of her colonies. This preliminary discussion of the subject was a rare opportunity according to Helen McDonald, president of the Forum, and she believes that this advantage ought to perfect the co-ed work considerably.

Savage on Affirmative.
The affirmative was taken by Carlton Savage and Arnold Chaimov, who were opposed by the negative team made up of Harvey Tuttle and Dewey Probst. Each man had six minutes in which to give his constructive speech and two minutes later on, in which to refute the arguments of his opponents.

Following the discussion, it was informally decided that the negative speakers had put up the best debate both from the point of logic and delivery. Here Professor Prescott explained the weak and strong points covered by both sides, and analyzed for the benefit of all present just how these matters might have been strengthened even more, or else eliminated. In his discussion of bringing evidence, Professor Prescott brought home his advice by saying, "Don't shoot bird shot, shoot cannon balls."

Officers For Year.
The officers of the Forum for the year are: Helen McDonald, president; Marie Badura, vice-president; Helen Hair, chairman of the program committee, and Stella Sullivan, editor. The office of secretary is vacant at present due to the absence of Erma Huff from college this year, and that office will probably be filled at the next meeting of the organization. The Forum has never had a treasurer inasmuch as it was decided by the women that a purely intellectual organization needs no finances.

CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

Among the social events on the campus this week have been the entertaining of Dr. Margaret D. Nordfeldt, who has been giving a series of lectures to the girls of the University. She has been the guest of several of the women's fraternities and of prominent townspeople.

Other prominent guests were Miss Helen Chrisman and Miss Elsie Kappen, field secretaries for the Baptist Missionary Society. Both Miss Crisman and Miss Kappen are visiting all of the universities and colleges on the coast. This week end will be taken up with several campus activities, among them the Kappa Sigma smoker for all men of the freshman class on the campus, the sophomore hop Friday evening and the Pi Phi dance Saturday.

ALUMNI MAGAZINE WILL APPEAR SOON

News to be Given of Every Oregon Student from 1878 to 1919.

Everything interesting concerning not only alumni but also ex-students of the University from the class of 1878 to that of 1918 will be compiled and put in magazine form by the class in newspaper editing under Dean Eric W. Allen and sent within the next two weeks to all ex-students who have paid their association dues. "If the first edition proves successful," said Helen McDonald, editor-in-chief, "it will be established as a University quarterly."

Final details have not been worked out yet although staff members intimate that the paper is to be original both in make-up and content. "The cover is to be green," said Miss McDonald, and most likely will feature a cut. News concerning the University which will be of interest to the alumni will be used and all contributed articles from ex-students will be gladly accepted for publication. The real purpose of this magazine, according to Dean Allen, is to follow up the alumni and keep them in touch with the growing University.

Judge R. S. Dean, 78, has offered an article for the first edition, and will undoubtedly follow it up with other contributions. The name which has been a staff problem for several weeks will, according to Helen McDonald, most likely be "Old Oregon." The paper will go to press next week and will be off the mailing list within two weeks.

The staff includes: Helen McDonald, editor-in-chief; Adelaide Lake, managing editor; Douglas Mullarky and Elizabeth Aumiller, advertising managers, and Tracy Byers, copy reader. Miss Charlie Fenton, alumni secretary, will assist in the newsgathering.

UNIVERSITY HISTORY WARMLY APPROVED

Faculty, Students and Alumni Favor Idea; Cooperation is Invited.

Committees from the student body, faculty and alumni have heartily endorsed the proposed plan of keeping the University history. The fullest cooperation of all alumni is asked in the work of bringing the University's story up to date. When the present plans are carried out a record will be had of all student body activities, University departments, athletics, year books, and records even of the individual students. It is the present plan to keep the records in one of the rooms in the library, and it is hoped that some day there will be a special building erected on the campus for this purpose. Practically all the members of the faculty are in favor of the plan and letters have been received from many alumni to the same effect.

Those present at the meeting Tuesday at which the idea was indorsed are: President Campbell and W. H. Douglas; Ella Dews, Adelaide Lake, Forest Watson and Herald White, from the student body and Karl Onthank and Dean Walker of the alumni. Another meeting will be held Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock at President Campbell's office to discuss further plans.

All brothers of Gamma Phi Beta in college were entertained at the Gamma Phi house on Wednesday evening at dinner. The guest list included: Merle Margason, Sanford Gehr, Martin Pargelus, Eugene Boylen, William Holmes and Richard Martin.

Delta Gamma entertained Dean Louise Ehrmann and Dr. Margaret D. Nordfeldt at luncheon on Thursday.

Dr. Margaret D. Nordfeldt and Dr. Janet Reid were guests of Kap pa Kappa Gamma at dinner this evening.

Howard Eiler, who has been at Vancouver barracks for the past eight weeks, has returned to the campus and will enter college at once. Kelley is a member of Beta Theta Pi.

DOUGHNUT QUINTETS WILL CLASH TODAY

Sigma Chi to Meet Fijis; Kappa Sigs Defeat Phi Delts.

Doughnut League Standing
League A—	W.	L.	Pct.
Phi Gamma Delta	3	0	1000
Delta Tau Delta	3	1	750
Sigma Chi	2	1	666
Friendly Hall	1	3	250
Sigma Nu	0	3	000

League B—
W.	L.	Pct.
Kappa Sigma	4	0	1000
Phi Delta Theta	3	1	750
Oregon Club	1	2	333
A. T. O.	1	3	250
Beta Theta Pi	0	3	000

The last games of the regular Doughnut league series will be played this afternoon when the Sigma Chis and Fijis meet to settle between them the championship of the league. The Betas and the Oregon Club will also have a chance to settle the game that they failed to play Tuesday. If the Sigma Chis win from the Fijis this afternoon there will be a three-cornered tie in league A., with the two contesting teams and the Delta Tau five in the race.

The Kappa Sig crew won from the Phi Delts last night in the only game that was played. The score was 5 to 3 and the game was a hot one from start to finish. The Sigma Nu team failed to appear on the floor at 7 o'clock so their game was forfeited to Friendly Hall.

Lloyd Still and Carl Mautz did some clever work for the Kappa Sigs and Mautz threw fouls like an old-timer. The Phi Delts failed to get going last night and even Johnny Gamble seemed to be slightly off. Young Roberts played a nice game for the Phi Delts.

The championship games of the series will probably be played next week when the two cups will be awarded. Some of the leading teams are training like regular varsity teams and it might be a good thing to postpone the big game until about next Christmas. The lineup:

Kappa Sigs (5)	Phi Delta Theta (3)
Laird	Gamble (1)
Mautz (3)	Roberts (2)
Still (2)	Margeson
O'Rourke, Boylen	Strachan
Masterson	Meyers
Referee	Bill Hayward

WOMEN PLAY LAST GAME

Class Championship to be Decided and Hayward Cup Awarded.

The seniors and freshmen are meeting at 7:15 o'clock this evening in the men's gymnasium to play the last game of the interclass series of women's basketball. This game decides the class championship for this year and the class winning receives the cup offered by Bill Hayward. The admission to the game is 25 cents and the proceeds will go to the women's building fund.

Catalogue Committee Meets

The first meeting of the catalog committee was held yesterday afternoon to discuss the new catalog and plans for it. The committee is composed of Professor W. P. Boynton, head of the physics department, chairman; Registrar A. R. Tiffany; and Professor W. F. G. Thacher, of the English department.

Raymond Lawrence is spending the week at his home in Woodburn.

ALL UNIVERSITY WILL PLAY HOST TO LEGISLATORS

work more interesting to the visitors is available. If such work is available a special exhibit would be much appreciated by the reception committee.

Guides to be Provided
Faculty members are asked to see that some one is available in each department to conduct the guests about and be able to answer questions.

Such a plan as outlined above by the reception committee requires the support of both students and faculty and they are earnestly urged to co-operate to the fullest extent.

Professor E. E. DeCou, chairman of the reception committee issues a special invitation to everyone with an idea or plan to help in the preparation for Saturday to report it to him.

Sixty Legislators Enjoyed Visit Here Two Years Ago

About 60 members of the legislature, many of them accompanied by their wives and stenographers, visited the University two years ago on January 27, and they liked what they saw, according to Eric W. Allen, dean of the School of Journalism.

The party arrived on a special train from the capital city, which stopped at Eleventh avenue in front of Villard hall, and they were met in a downpour of rain by the faculty and an enthusiastic body of students, all of whom turned out for the occasion.

The crowd assembled in Villard. Several of the lawmakers responded with peppy little impromptu speeches, according to Dean Allen.

The party arrived at 11 o'clock and paid brief visits to a number of the departments before lunch. They were escorted about the campus by student guides, elected to show them around.

After lunching at Friendly hall, the other departments were visited until 3:30, when they were met by the Eugene Chamber of Commerce and taken over the town in automobiles.

Although this event took place on Saturday, Dean Allen said the visitors found the library almost crowded with readers. The legislators expressed themselves pleased with conditions on the campus and returning to Salem voted very favorably for the University.

WOMEN TO DANCE MONDAY

Sponsors will Bring Sponsees to party; Good Music Promised.

The sponsor-sponsee dance will be held on Monday afternoon in the men's gymnasium; from 4 to 6 o'clock, according to Frances Elizabeth Baker, chairman of the committee. The dance was postponed from Friday afternoon because of the sophomore hop.

"All University women will dance to good peppy music." Miss Baker says, "and all sponsors are to bring their sponsees and ten cents for admission."

"Every freshman girl is urged to come whether her sponsor brings her or not, for we are going to have a good time." Sponsors may obtain the telephone numbers and addresses of their sponsees from the card catalogue in Dean Ehrman's office.
