

WOMEN START BIBLE CLASSES THIS WEEK

Leaders Chosen from Faculty Members; Groups Plan to Meet Evenings.

With a Bible class planned for every group of University girls, the series of six weeks' Bible classes is now in full swing, according to Miss Tirza Dinsdale, general secretary for Y. W. C. A. Leaders for a few of the classes have not yet been secured, but details in these cases will be arranged so work may begin this week or the early part of next week.

In almost every case the classes are meeting on either Wednesday or Thursday evening, and they are of 45 minutes' duration. The class of upperclassmen under Miss Mary Perkins held its second meeting of the series last night. Mrs. E. E. DeCou met her class at Alpha Phi for the first time last night; Miss Gladys Gorman will meet with the girls of Kappa Kappa Gamma next Thursday. Other meetings for the week are: Miss Perkins at Pi Beta Phi tonight, Rev. Frederick G. Jennings at Chi Omega tonight, Miss Mabel Holmes Parsons at Kappa Alpha Theta last night, Miss Dinsdale and Miss Gertrude Talbot at Hendricks Hall tonight.

Upperclassmen in Miss Perkins' special class have been secured to instruct freshman classes at Hendricks Hall. These student instructors are: Essie Maguire, Marita Howard, Frances Elizabeth Baker, Lois Laughlin, Kathryn Johnson, Mabel Weller.

Classes will be held at Gamma Phi Beta, Delta Delta Delta and Delta Gamma just as soon as leaders can be found. Classes are also being arranged for town girls who will meet at the bungalow. All classes are expected to be in working order by next week.

MEN UNDER ARMS TO BE HONOR GUARD FOR LEGISLATORS

Every man out for the honor guard to meet the legislators, is the latest of plans for Saturday. All the underclassmen and all upperclassmen who can do so will meet at the men's gym at 12 o'clock on Saturday.

"This will necessitate an early lunch," said Herald White, president of the student body, today, "but that can be arranged easily."

At the gymnasium all the men will fall in under arms and march to the station under military formation and present arms as the legislators leave the train. Two files will be formed for the visitors to walk through.

"We want every man out," White says, "and in his uniform if possible, but if he does not have one he should be sure to come anyway."

MISS DINSDALE MAY TAKE EASTERN TRIP

Y. W. Secretary is Invited to National Conference at Evanston, Ill.

A telegram urging Miss Tirza Dinsdale, general secretary of the Y. W. C. A. on the campus, to represent the state of Oregon at the national student conference of the association to be held in February 16 to February 20, which received in Eugene today from Washington. Miss Dinsdale is hoping that it will be possible for her to attend the student conference, which is to be preceded by a secretary's conference from February 16 to February 20, which which she would also attend if she decides to go east.

The conference is a called assembly of the secretaries and superintendents of the association to determine the policies of the Y. W. C. A. for the post-war period and to get the reaction of the students to the problems of the time.

Miss Dinsdale is asked to represent the entire state of Oregon and is also invited to take with her a student from the University. Decisions on the matter are to be made at an early meeting of the association cabinet. The Northwest district is asked to send to the conference 10 student representatives besides three faculty representatives, and it is hoped that the University will be able to send one of these students besides its secretaries.

Representatives from Washington are leaving Seattle for the east February 12 and it is the plan of the University to send its representatives about the same date.

EUTAXIANS LISTEN TO POEMS OF WAR

First Meeting of Year Hears Mrs. Parsons and Beulah Keagy.

The first regular meeting of the year of the Eutaxian literary society was held last Tuesday evening at 7:00 in the Bungalow. Mrs. Mable H. Parsons, professor of rhetoric, read and discussed a number of the recent war poems. A solo by Beulah Keagy was the other entertainment of the meeting.

Topics for study throughout the year were discussed, but nothing definite was decided upon. The study of war poetry and art was the suggestion which met with approval.

Several new members were taken in. They are Dorothy Parsons, Edna Rice, Grace Knopp, Mae Ballack, Mary Thompson, Lucile Evans, Mary Haggert, Anne Shea, Lillian Auld, Pauline Coad, Clem Cameron, Lucile Redmond and Eve Tutchison.

STUDENTS TO KNOW STATUS

Each Sophomore to be Informed as to His Junior Standing.

Sophomore standings which will let each sophomore know whether he has the required hours to become a junior, are now in the hands of the printers and are expected out this week, said Prof. W. P. Boynton, chairman of the lower division advisers.

These standings, which are being made out through the registrar's office, will tell the student whether there are any entrance conditions hanging over, whether he has completed the English and foreign language requirements, and whether he has filled the requirements of the three groups. The three-group plan requires each student to have made 12 term hours in English or foreign languages; in the social sciences, history, economics, education, or sociology; and in mathematics or science.

The cards of the sophomore students have been gone over, and each one will be sent his own standing. Copies will be sent also to their advisers and copies will be filed in the office. It was hoped to get these out soon after the students registered in October but it was impossible to do so, said Dr. Boynton. This will be done next October, in his opinion.

JUNIORS, ATTENTION

All juniors who live in town or any one who has not been "snapped" for the Oregon Junior class pictures, report at the Administration Building Friday between 12:30 and 1:30. This is the last day for Junior snapshots. Bring your quarter with you.

FACULTY MEN BEGIN EXERCISING IN GYM

Teams will be Organized in Basketball and Handball; and Games Played.

The men of the faculty have started getting out for gymnasium work and will soon organize teams in the different sports. At present the gymnasium is not in shape for those classes that use the swings, bars and loops, but Dean Walker hopes to have these ready in a few days.

In the meantime the men will work out in the other sports, including swimming, boxing, wrestling, basketball and handball.

Teams will be organized in basketball as well as in handball and contests held between members of the faculty and perhaps student teams.

Most of the men in the faculty are getting out for some branch of athletics. Dean Walker will give part of his time to coaching the different teams and the other work.
