OREGON BASKETEERS BEAT U. OF W. 37 TO 19

Eddie Durno Declared to be One of Best Natural Shots by Coach Hunt.

The Oregon basketball five walloped the University of Washington quintet in the final game of the series here Saturday night by the one-sided score of 37 to 19. The two games scored here over Washington by the Varsity even up the count between the two teams, as Oregon was defeated in both of the games at Seattle.
Coach Dean H. Walker had his team running like water down hill Saturday, and they played all around Washington. In reviewing the contest, Coach Hunt, of the Washington team, declared that his team made the poorest showing that they have made so far this season. According to Hunt, his team played the same kind of basketball here that Oregon played while north, which is not saying very much for either team. The first game in Seattle was fairly close, 26 to 24, while the first game played here resulted in a 25 to 19 victory for the Varsity.
Second Game at Seattle 19 to 13
In the second game at Seattle the score was 19 to 13, or a difference of six points, while the second contest here gave Oregon a margin of 18 points. This would make it appear that Oregon was just a little the best of the two aggregations.
Herm Lind, at center for the Varsity, put on a nice exhibition, although Jamieson had him out-jumped on centering the ball. Herm gathered eight points during the evening, which is a fair card. Oregon played a better game at guard than they did on the night before, although the Washington team got a number of shots, which they did not register.

The line-up:
Washington (19) Oregon (37)
Talbot (2).....F..... Fowler (4)
Smith (2).....F..... Durno (19)
Jamieson (2).....C..... Lind (8)
Silk (2)
Cook (11).....G..... Jacobberger (4)
Brandon
Cairns.....G..... Chapman (2)
Referee, George Dewey.

FINAL SERIES OPENS IN DOUGHNUT LEAGUE

Sigma Chis to Play three Games of Basketball with Kappa Sigs.

The first of the series of three games of basketball to be played for the championship of the Doughnut League will be played tomorrow night at 7 o'clock in the men's gymnasium when the Sigma Chi team, champions of League One, will meet the Kappa Sigma five, the winners in League Two. An admission of ten cents will be cleared, the proceeds to go to the Women's Building fund.
From the interest apparent on the campus the fund for the Women's building is going to receive a considerable increase even though the price of admission is going to be only ten cents.
At Wednesday evening's game it will be announced when the second game of the series will be played which date will probably be Thursday afternoon. The team winning two of the three games will be the final champion of the entire college and will be awarded the two cups.

SPANISH CLUB TO MEET.
Spanish Club will meet Thursday at 7 o'clock in Oregon Hall. Attendance of all members is desired.

There will be an important meeting of the ORDER OF THE O
in Dean Walker's office tomorrow afternoon at 5. All members are urged to be present.

CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

WINNERS OF PRIZES WILL BE ANNOUNCED

Dinner parties seemed to be the feature of last Sunday. Sigma Chi, Beta Gamma Phi and Kappa Sigma were all hosts and hostesses to a number of guests at dinner. Tonight the exchange dinners are in progress among the women's houses on the campus. This next week-end promises to be interesting, with the student body play, "What Happened to Jones," on Friday at the Eugene theater, also the basketball game at Corvallis the same night, and the Freshman Glee Saturday.

Winners of the institute prizes of the Oregon Chapter of the American Institute of Architects, together with those of John McGuire, a graduate, will be announced at a dinner given by the Architectural Club of the School of Architecture on Wednesday evening at 6:30 o'clock in Friendly Hall.
The musical program includes numbers by John Stark Evans, Arthur Faguy - Cote and Mrs. Hollis Johnston. Glenn Stanton, president of the club, will be master of ceremonies. The guest list follows: President and Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Joseph F. Jacobberger, Morris H. Whitehouse, Dean E. F. Lawrence, Professor and Mrs. A. H. Schreff, Professor and Mrs. P. P. Adams, Professor and Mrs. E. H. McAllister, Professor and Mrs. John Stark Evans, Professor and Mrs. Arthur Faguy-Cote, Mrs. Mabel H. Parsons, Miss Camille Dosch, Miss Helen Rhodes, Miss Camilla Leach, Mrs. Hollis Johnston, Mrs. A. C. Weatherhead. Also at this time will be announced the first mentions on work done in the two terms of this year.

Members of Kappa Sigma fraternity were hosts to a number of guests last Sunday at dinner. Those guests were: Gladys Jverett, Patty French, Erna Laird, Beulah Smith, Blanche Wilson, Ethel Waite and Lucylee Dunn.
First Lieutenant Clark Burgard, '16, is spending the week as the guest of his fraternity brothers at the Beta Theta Pi house.

Following the dinner there will be a reception in the Studio of the School of Architecture, to which a cordial invitation is extended to all interested in architecture," said Glenn Stanton.
These events come as a result of jury day, which will be held during the day on Wednesday. The Oregon chapter of the American Institute of Architects, awards prizes of $15 and $10 for the greatest improvement made during the school year. John McGuire, a graduate-also is giving prizes of $15 and $10 for the best sketch problem done last year. The winners of all these prizes will be judged and awarded by Joseph F. Jacobberger and Morris H. Whitehouse of the Oregon chapter.

Kappa Kappa Gamma entertained Mary Ellen Bailey and W. J. Gerson at dinner Sunday.

Gamma Phi Beta entertained at a charming dinner party last Sunday with a number of men of the campus as guests. Those enjoying Gamma Phi's hospitality were Merle Margason, Paul Farrington, Kenneth Lancelotti, Edwin Durno, Pierce Cummings, Martin Parelius and Everett Pixley.

The freshmen of Phi Gamma Delta entertained a number of guests on a hike and picnic last Sunday. Since this was the first picnic of the year, everyone enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent. The Fijis and their guests hiked through Springfield and on to the banks of the McKenzie river, where they ate their lunch. They returned about 5 o'clock. Guests at the picnic were Anne Shea, Dorothy Manville, Josephine Connors, Virginia Giles, Louise Sheahan, Margaret Studor, Nadine Bohlander, Adah McMurfhey and Maravel Skeels.
Mark Hanna, Donald Dalgleish and Dennis Brown spent last week-end in Portland.

The contest in contributions to the United War Work fund under the leadership of Adelaide Lake, of Team 1 and Ella Dews of Team 2, is drawing to a close, but there are still a number of pledges which have not been paid. Until all the pledges are fully paid by Thursday of this week, the real winner of the contest cannot be decided upon. The University has done very well in the number and amount of pledges which were made, but the money is needed badly and as soon as possible.
To facilitate matters for the captains a list of houses together with the girls in charge of collecting the money, is given here:

Beta Theta Pi entertained Miss Nancy C. Johnson, Louise Sheahan, Gladys Hollingsworth, Nell Reidt, Wanda Nelson and Kathleen Forrester at dinner Sunday.

MANY PLEDGES YET UNPAID

Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Hope, Laura Rand, Emma Wootton Hall, Hope Mackenzie, Margaret Thompson and Dorothy Graham were Sunday dinner guests of Sigma Chi.
Bruce Bailey left today to spend the week in Portland.

Tonight again the women's houses on the campus are holding exchange dinners. Delta Delta Delta will exchange with Alpha Phi, Chi Omega with Delta Gamma, Hendricks Hall with Gamma Phi, and Theta with Pi Phi.

BIBLE STUDY CLASS FORMED
A new Bible study class was organized at the bungalow Monday afternoon. The leader is Rev. Charles E. Dunham, pastor of the Baptist church of Eugene. The class will make a study of the "Social Principles of Jesus," by Walter Rauschenbusch, and will also study present day religious problems. Girls who have not yet enrolled in Bible classes are invited to join. Study hours will be from 3 to 4 every Monday afternoon in the bungalow.
