THE DEBATE SERIES.

The second of the series of intramural debating is scheduled for Thursday evening and a large attendance is expected from the students. The students who have spent long hard hours, 1857. in the preparation of their speeches deserve the support of the studentbody in their endeavor.

The debaters are rendering a service to Oregon in stimulating an interest in purely intellectual pursuits.

The status of debate on the campus has been raised this year by the intramural series, making it an activity of wider scope than ever before. But it is no time to stop now. Debate must be placed upon a lasting foundation of broad interest and so must receive the large support of the students.

Faculty comment has been general in tribute to the type of work done by the debaters. It is felt that the spontaneous and thorough work done in preparation for a debate is mental training of the finest sort. Also that the fudent who has conscientiously workd up a debate has learned how to andy, how to recognize the important rom the unimportant and how to conentrate on one subject.

All of these results tend to make the lebaters better and more efficient stulents. To the degree that all the stulents get genuinely interested in denate, to that extent will the entire stulent body receive the benefits of pure ntellectual delight.

Paul Foster will probably enter the University in the spring term.

Virgil Alexander, ex-'19, will be on the campus this week-end visiting his week if possible. They are Russell Ralston, of La Grande; Ross McKenna, of Portland; Bob Case, of Tigard, Oregon, and Harvey Madden, of Seattle Bernice Nelson, a member of Beta Theta Pi, now at his home in McMinnville, will also be here this week-end.

Albert Club, a Sigma Chi, now at Bremerton, Richard and Robert Scearce, members of Phi Delta Theta, now at Hood River, may all be down soon for short visits.

Several Men Transferred.

Several Oregon men were transferred from the 65th so that the list as it now stands does not include many of the University men who originally were enrolled in that division. Meader Fletcher is now in a replacement outfit in France and William Broder is in the quartermasters' corps. They do not know how long they will be kept in

The 65th went through very heavy fighting. They were for 72 days on continuous duty, being under shell fire much of the time. Only three of their men were killed, 99 wounded and gassed. They took part in five engagements. They were on the right wing of the advance at Point-a-Mousson at St. Mihiel commencing September 12, in the battle of the first Argonne, commencing September 26, before Verdun on the east bank of the River Meuse, beginning October 8, at Bois d'Etrages, starting October 23 and in the second Argonne commencing November 1.

Crossed to La Havre.

The boys left Fort Stevens February 25, 1918, sailed from San Francisco Sabin, E. L.-Boys' book of Indian March 23 and arrived in Liverpool April 2. They were taken to Romsey, England, and on April 8 crossed from Southhampton to La Havre, from which place they were taken to Limoges.

Late in July they departed for the French target grounds at La Courtine. Their train when made up was 31/2 miles long. Men, guns and equipment were moved 26 kilometers and established within four days at Bois d'Etrages, breaking the record for speed in transportation.

C. A. GREGORY RETURNS

Professor C. A. Gregory, of the School of Education, returned to the University Saturday from an extension trip to southern Oregon, where he spoke to high schools and club meetings in Ashland, Medford, Central Point, Gold Hill and

CHILDREN ENLISTED IN HEALTH CRUSADE

Gym Majors in Physical Education.

Mrs. S. M. Blumauer, director of Junior Red Cross work in Portland, and Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar, secretary of the Oregon association for the prevention of soon to visit friends on the campus. The tuberculosis, who are conducting a modmen who came to Eugene are those ern health crusade in the schools whose nome are here. The list in- throughout the state, addressed the macludes Walter Church, graduate in the jors in the women's physical training declass of 1916, and the son of Mrs. P. L. partment in the remedial room at one o'clock yesterday.

They were luncheon guests at Hendricks hall, of Miss Lilian Tingle., head of the department of household arts, who is oco-operating with them in the great national movement to improve the health of children.

The crusade is backed by the National Tuberculosis association, the American Red Cross, the National Council of Defense and the Public Health Ser-Sigma Chi brothers. Four Delta Taus, vice. It is planned to give the children now at their homes, are all coming next the opportunity to enter into friendly competition for good health marks.

"We are meeting with wonderful success," said Mrs. Blumauer yesterday afternoon, "Already 50,000 school children in the state have become Modern Health Crusaders, and of this number, 32,000 are Portland children."

According to an editorial which appeared in Sunday's Oregonian, it is by this movement which will be introduced into every school in the United States, that non of the simpler rules of hygene will be neglected. It will take the child in the period in which habits are being formed and proposes to give him a "right start."

"In cleanliness, wholesome food, exercise and fresh air, the whole program is outlined. All that there is in sanitation is comprehended in the first and last ingredients of the recipe. To be clean is to forestall most of the ills to which mortal flesh is heir. Fresh air and sunlight, the article states, are necessary to scientific cleanliness.

After leaving the campus the visitors spoke at the city hall.
