AN OREGON DUTY

Because it is the first tyme Oregon is to hold a state championship basketball tournament to be participated in the student body must take advantage of every opportunity to make it a suc-

The holding of this tournament which is to be made an annual event of the spring season at the University is not only a move toward the fostering of clean athletic interest in the high schools, it is another step in the line of the state debating league and the state inter-scholastic track meet which have been features of the University work for several years. All help center the interest of high school students in the University, bringing many of them to the University to participate in their events and to get acquainted personally with Oregon con- Dr. Thorstenberg. Litions and opportunities.

In encouraging young men and women from the high schools of the state to come to the University, students are doing a real service to the state for it is not only the student duty to get an education but to aid insofar from extensive travels in all countries as it is possible encourage and aid others to obtain a college education. The basketball tournament will be another means of centering interest at students - prospective students at the University - are concerned, and to make it a success is a duty Oregon owes the state it serves.

Particular attention should be given to the entertainment of the visend. The boys are coming here with the understanding that they will be cared for on the campus by student organiations and will have the profits of the tournament split among the teams according to the distance they have traveled to participate. It is no risk to the University but it is up to the students to see that the trip this first year is not excessive in its cost to the high school participants.

HEROES OF OREGON

The memorial services to be held in Villard hall Sunday afternoon must be overlooked by no Oregon student. Given to commemorate the memory of the 40 former students and alumni or the University of Oregon who gave their lives for their country during the war, this will be the last opportunity for anteed. Oregon to pay solemn tribute to their memory.

To pay honor to the heroes of Oregon, many of the realtives and friends of the men on the University honor role will be present Sunday from over the state. To accommodate them the services will be held at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon instead of 4:30 o'clock as previously announced. In a busy week-end these services should not be

Oregon owes much to these men who will never return to the campus.

WHEN TO STAND UP.

Heretofore this season students of the University have been jumping up nasium games and set all Oregon men and women right on the tradition, the many of the high schools of the state last night was important.

All Oregon students hereafter in attendance at rallies or games will stand been lost. when the Oregon Oskie or the song "Oregon" are given. That is the tra-

PLAN FOR PUBLICITY

Say University Publications are not Found in High Schools of State.

The question of the best way to give the University publicity was discussed at the monthly meeting of the faculty colloquium Tuesday evening at 7:45.

It has come to the notice of the facwith every song and yell - some of ulty in one instance in particular that them, others have stood occasionally little or no attention is paid to the circulation of University publications, according to Warren D. Smith, head of the Insofar as it will give united action | geology department. In the Medford of the student body at rallys and gym- [high school, where there are nine teachers from the University of Oregon, there is only one copy of the Emerald, and in action taken by the student council there is not even one copy of the Emerald or of the Oregana to be found. In the Medford high school there was but one University catalogue and that had

It was suggested during the discussion, according to Dr. Smith, that students might do a good thing to send their copdition in regard to these Oregon insti- ies of the Emerald to their high schools tutions. They should be observed more or band together and see that the high school their particular group has come carefully or they will lose part of their from gets a subscription of the Emerald. Other educational institutions do not neglect this matter in such a way.

Athletics Topic Delayed The topic "Athletics In American Colleges," which was to have been discussed by Dr. Smith and Dean Walker, basketball coach, at this meeting, was postponed to the next meeting because Dean Walker was out of town with the team. This question, said Dr. Smith,, is not to be discussed as a criticism of the Uniby the sectional high school champions Wilhelm Peterson, Author and versity athletics, but rather to give a perspective of the work done in the various institutions with regard to athletics. Dean Walker will discuss intramural athletics. There may possibly arise in the discussion, explained Dr. Reverend Wilhelm Patterson, pastor Smith, suggestions as to how college athof a Norwegian church in Portland, will letics might be improved, but it will not be a criticism of athletics.

To Provide Free Discussion

The purpose of the faculty colloquium, an informal discussion club open to all members of the faculty, is to provide a place for free discussion of certain pertiment questions which arise from time to time and for which there is no time provided for discussion at the faculty numerous essays and studies to a number meetings, according to Dr. H. #### GIRLS'BALL LEAGUE LIKELY

Prospects Bright for Doughnut Series, Says Miss Gorman.

The possibilities for a doughnut league of women's baseball continue to brighten with the appearance of more girls at Six organizations on the campus are make up teams for a series of interfraternity games. Hendricks Hall, Oregon Club, Pi Phi, Delta Gamma, Kappa and Alpha Phi are all well represented.

Regular games will not be started. however, until the beginning of the C. A. Election will be held March • spring term. At the practices each girl is given the opportunity to try her hand at every position, after first learning the wies of the game. Those who are showing up especially well are: Alice Evans, Maurine Elrod, Vivian Chandler, Dorothy Dickey, Emma Garbade, Lois Morthland, Frances Haversham.

GLEE CLUB PUT ON STUNTS

Men's Club to Tour Southern Oregon Leaving March 21.

The program for the Men's Glee Club. which will tour Southern Oregon leaving March 21, will be an exceptionally interesting and varied one, according to John Stark Evans, director. It will consist of stunts by individual members and groups, solos and quartettes and a special feature is to be given, but will remain a secret until the home concert. which will take place about a month after their return.

The home concert is expected to be one of the greatest of the kind ever put on the campus, according to Mr. Evans. The club will be gone on the trip for the entire spring vacation. They will visit Medford, Ashland,, Grants Pass and Klamath Falls, also surrounding towns. Paul Spangler, manager, is at present on the road signing up contracts. Instructors Diploma, N. S. V. D.
