THE NEW SPRING MEET.

A new departure for the University of Oregon and for the state—the establishment of a state high school basketball championship meet as a yearly event—has proven a success.

With eight teams from over the state representing their respective districts, the meet has proven itself to be the first held in the state which managed to be really what the name of the tournament implied, a meet to decide without dispute the champion team of the state.

In the accomplishment of this, Superintendent of Public Instruction Churchill said, the University would be doing a great good to the high schools of the state in the line of promoting clean athletics. The tournament has succeeded and will be made an annual event according to the expression of the University today with the coaches of the high school teams enthusiastic for the final establishment of this tournament which has been tried other places in the state without complete success.

The student body is enthusiastic over the first annual championship meet in that it brings into closer contact with Oregon the best of the state's clean-out athletes, and the leaders of Oregon high schools, prospective Oregon men now that they have a yearly visit on the campus to become acquainted with the advantages Oregon offers.

The visitors on the campus this week-end have more than satisfied the students already enrolled in the University. Welcome. May you all come back to the campus, as a student next fall or again next spring as a member of a championship basketball squad.

GREATER OREGON.

A tendency has been shown this quarter to neglect the work of the Greater Oregon Committee. Apparently the neglect is due to a feeling that the work of this committee is of minor importance at this time.

The Greater Oregon Committee has a big opportunity to do some good work for the University at this time. Christmas, Spring and Summer vacations are the only times in which the committee can accomplish its work among the high schools of the state, and the greatest of these opportunities is during the Spring vacation as this is the only time the students are at their homes while the high schools from which they graduated are in session.

Oregon stands now above many other colleges in point of recovery from wartime conditions and should not pass any opportunity to keep up the growth of the University which is larger now than ever before and is again well able to take care of its students, through recent appropriation bills passed by the legislature. The final meeting of the Greater Oregon Committee will be held Monday, and every member, every Oregon community, should be represented.

"OREGON" AND "OSKIE."

Oregon has been lax in the proper courtesies when Mighty Oregon is sung or the Oregon Oskie is given until the student council has found it necessary to pass a resolution setting the student body right on the proper action. Stand up upon these occasions, always, and do not stand up at any other time except when plainly told to do so.

A number of students have only a short time to get right on this. Next fall they will have some more freshmen—the largest class in history by present indications—to teach.

QUARTER'S LAST PAPER.

This will be the last issue of the Emerald until the opening of the new quarter in order to give the staff a chance to get some hours, too. This is a custom the Emerald has followed for years in an effort to keep the staffs in college, and, anyway, very little but "boning" is scheduled in the way of news for next week.

FROSH TRACK SQUAD SHOWING UP WELL

Better Balanced Team Than Varsity, Says Coach Hayward.

The freshman track squad is doing very good work for this time of year, according to Coach Bill Hayward, and indications point to a good all around team.

"There is nothing sensational about the work of the freshmen, but they are doing good steady work, and they are out for practice every night," said Bill. "They are a well balanced squad, and in some ways even better balanced than the varsity."

Bill has drafted several of the men from the gymnasium classes and intends to draft more of them later on. Some of the men whom he has drafted in this way have so far proved to be "finds." Dunsmore and Ireland, both "drafted men," are showing exceptional form, according to Bill.

Meets for the freshmen have not been scheduled so far, but the first year team will very likely get into action several times before the season is over. They will probably be entered in the Columbia meet in Portland, April 12, for their first showing.

Will Contest Aggles

Meets will also be arranged with the O. A. C. rooks, some of the smaller colleges throughout the state, and perhaps with some strong high school teams.

Among the men who are showing up well in the sprints are: Korn, Sloan, Johnson, Hemenway, Adkisson and Patterson. Hemenway seems to have a shade the best form so far, but until his speed is found, nothing definite can be determined.

In the quarter-mile, Hayslip, Dunsmore and Sundleaf are all doing good work. Sundleaf seems to be setting the pace so far in this event with Hayslip a close second. Sundleaf is also running the half mile, where he is showing up well.

In the distances, Walkley, Akers, Boylen, Koepke, Staub, Ireland, Purdy and Quayle are out. Purdy and Quayle were sprinters before they entered college, but Hayward believes they have more ability in the longer runs.

Some Good Hurdlers

Dunsmore appears to be showing up best in the hurdles, where the work so far is only on form. Others showing up well are Duns, Meyers, Black, Boylen, Hemenway and Hanson. Some of these men may be shifted to the high jump later on, if Bill is in need of jumpers. At present, Meyers and Black are practicing on form in getting over the bar, in the pole vault as well as the high jump.

Fariss and Butler are the two weight men who are turning out nightly. Broad jumpers, Bill thinks, can be made from some of those who are turning out for the sprints.

Five hundred students enrolled in the University summer session is the goal for which Dr. H. D. Sheldon, dean of the summer school, is working. The "500 club" has been organized with a teacher from each county, generally a University graduate, who is working with the aim of a larger summer school in view.
