

MEN'S AND WOMEN'S FRATERNITIES TAKE 179 NEW MEMBERS

Seventy-seven Men and One Hundred and Two Women Pledged

KAPPA SIG TAKES MANY

Kappa Kappa Gamma Leads Women's Organizations With Fourteen Freshmen.

A total of 77 men and 102 women have been pledged by the men's and women's fraternities on the campus. Kappa Sigma leads the list of men's organizations in number of men pledged with 18 new members and Kappa Kappa Gamma with 14 pledges leads the list of women's Greek letter societies. The women pledges will be permitted to live in their houses this year despite contrary plans made last spring. Because of the extreme crowded condition which exists on the campus it was impossible to require all freshmen women to reside in Hendricks Hall, as was the plan of authorities last year.

The men's fraternities announce their pledges as follows:

Delta Tau Delta—John Alexander, Arthur Base, both of Portland; George Newton Crossfield, Arthur Madler, both of Wasco; Meredith Beaver, Ashland; William Silverthorn, Frank Clark, Clayton Ingle, all of La Grande; Wilbur Hostettler, The Dalles, and Arthur Larson, of Eugene.

Alpha Tau Omega—Ralf Couch, Albert Curry, both of La Grande; Verne Fudge, Bosman; George Riggs, Klamath Falls; Frank and Karl Vonder Ahe, and Merton Folts, all of Hood River; Ernest Crockett, Pendleton; Arthur Rosenbaugh, Salem; Sylvester Burleigh, Enterprise; Wayman Williams of Eugene, and Rufus Dinwiddie of Grass Valley.

Beta Theta Pi—Hugh Claren, Ralph Smith, John Langley and Del Ober-tueffer, all of Portland; Reed McKinney, Olympia, Washington; Pierre Meade, McMinnville; Lawrence Manerud, Eugene, and Owen Calloway, McMinnville.

Phi Gamma Delta—Nelson English, Wilbur Phillips, Harrison Huggins, Frantès Kern, Hubert Jacobberger, all of Portland; James King, Prineville; Hubert Darby, Elmer Cook, both of Salem, and Aubrey Furry, Phoenix, Oregon.

Kappa Sigma—Dean Ireland, Pasadena, Cal.; Hubert Smith, Ed Thompson, Henry Judd, Tom Murphy and Ned Straborn, all of Pendleton; Frank Dixon and George Bosman, Portland; Jack Booker, Walla Walla, Washington; Arvin Burnett, Ashland; Archie and Floyd Shilleds, Washougal, Washington; Wallace and Alan Carson, Leon Culbertson, all of Salem; Roland Andre, Athena; Dewey Rand and Tom Wyatt, both of Baker.

Sigma Chi—Austin Hazard, Coquille; Ivan C. Rustadt, Eugene; John Burchtorn, Rutherford S. Brown, both of Baker; Floyd W. Maxwell, Union; Leo Jenkins, Albany; Raymond Vear and Stacy Hendrix, both of Portland.

Phi Delta Theta—John Gavin, The Dalles; Frank Holmes, McMinnville; Hobert Beinap, Prineville; Hugh Lapham, Silverton; Lionel Tronunlitz, Eugene, and George King, Salem.

Sigma Nu—Fred Dotson, Baker; Stuart Baregar, Stanfield; Harry Kurtz, Ivan McKinney, Bob Morrison, Bob Shepherd, all of Portland; Arthur Tuck, Redmond.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon—Lynn Fuller, The Dalles; Joe Meagher, Portland; Walter McMonies, Portland; Ervin Luderman, Portland; Albert Woertendyke, Portland; Herbert Greer, Walla Walla; Ray R. Hendricks, Walla Walla.

Kappa Alpha Theta—Lenore Gram, Hood River; Jessie Lewis, Hood River; Doris Songstaken, Marshfield; Lorna Coolidge, La Grande; Caroline Palmer, La Grande; Genevieve Mat-

FRIENDLY HALL MEN ORGANIZE OWL CLUB

Quarters To Be Ready for Occupancy
Early Next Week at Eleventh and Mill Streets.

A new men's organization has been formed by a number of the men of Friendly Hall in order to assist the University in its present housing crises. The organization is forming as a club and will occupy a house at Eleventh and Mill streets. At present the house is undergoing necessary repairs and will probably be ready for occupation by the early part of next week.

The club has adopted the name of the Owls. Lindsay McArthur, vice-president of the student body, has been elected president of the latest addition to the houses of the campus. Roy L. Davidson has been chosen house manager and Don Davis is the secretary-treasurer.

The members of the club are Lindsay McArthur, Roy L. Davidson, Alexander G. Brown, William W. Porter, Merritt Whitten, Lee Summerville, Don Davis, Lyman Meader, E. Stanley Evans, Clare Powell, Richard Crain, James Say, George Walker, Clyde K. Davis, Ransom McArthur, Clarence Walker, Cecil Bell, Elwyn Craven and Charles Harter.

The club will make its first appearance this evening at open house.

OREGON ENROLLMENT LARGEST IN HISTORY; 1510 ALREADY LISTED

Incomplete Figures Indicate
Big Gain; 330 Ex-Service Men Enter.

Already the registration at the University has far surpassed that of any other year, 1510 students having enrolled to date, compared to 1100 at this time last year and 900 at the beginning of the fall of 1917. With more students coming in each day, there is no doubt that the total registration will reach the 1800 mark before the year is over.

The increased enrollment this fall is partly accounted for by the fact that 330 returned service men have applied to the University for state aid which is being provided them if they wish to take advantage of it. So far, 200 of these applicants have registered for regular work here at the University.

Considerable Gains Shown.

Although it has been impossible so far to obtain accurate figures on the enrollment in the various departments and schools because of the steady increase of registrants, approximate figures indicate that a majority of them have increased their registration by 50 per cent and in some cases have doubled their enrollment.

The fine arts department including work in water color, pencil and pen sketching and drawing from life has a total enrollment of 130 students to date compared to 80 for last year. About three-fourths of the students registered there this fall are freshmen.

A gain of 170 registrants over that of last year is indicated in the enrollment of the department of zoology and biology. The lack of equipment and the limited space for work in these departments is holding the registration down. In spite of this fact, 337 students are being accommodated, 236 of whom are members of the classes in general botany. To take care of the students in general zoology classes, 23 laboratory sections during the week have been provided.

Other Sciences Attract.

Comparative figures for the department of chemistry were unobtainable, but according to Professor A. L. Shinn, 50 per cent more students have registered so far than last year. The enrollment in classes in analytical chemistry, in particular, have made a decided increase, having more than doubled in number.

Welcome! Let's Go.

The University extends a hearty welcome to old and new students alike. You are here in overwhelming numbers, but you will be safely taken care of if you will be patient with some inconveniences the first few days. Everyone is working hard to adjust the old conditions to the new demands. It is still a time of service, so think of it as a campaign and help individually and collectively, as Oregon has always done, to solve the problems as they arise.

The future was never so full of promise for university students as today, nor were their responsibilities for thorough preparation ever so great. In this new period following the war the country faces many grave problems, in the final solution which the trained men and women from the universities must have a leading part. In their intelligence and patriotism much of the safety of the future will depend. A new world of opportunity also is opening to those who prepare to take advantage of it. The call to every student is for thorough, conscientious work from the first day of the session to the last.

SCHOOL OF SOCIOLOGY STARTED ON CAMPUS; F. G. YOUNG IS DEAN

Two Consecutive Years of Work
To Be Offered; Department
To Give Degrees.

The department of sociology of the University of Oregon is now far enough advanced to be called a "school" of sociology. The new program along the line of commonwealth development provides for technical instruction of students for work in Portland and in rural districts. The work in rural districts will be taken care of here at the University while a Portland branch of the University of Oregon school of sociology will have charge of the local work in that city. Under this plan effort will not be duplicated.

The principal aim of the new social program is to raise the vitality of the community and to begin on a peace program of activities. The University of Oregon is regarded as an agent. The northwestern division of the American Red Cross is sending a nurse to the University who will make a direct study of conditions in rural districts and who will assist students who wish to pursue this line of endeavor of commonwealth planning. Very little course work will be given, the desire being to afford the students actual training in a practical way.

A survey of the communities will first be taken so that the Red Cross nurse detailed to this service will have information on which to work. Such problems as those of housing, health and independence of town and country will be studied.

The constructive part includes the training of secretaries of the chamber of commerce, city managers and social engineers for county highways and institutions.

Stuart A. Rice, educational director of the northwest division of the Red Cross, has announced the opening of the Portland branch of the University school of sociology, under the direction of Dr. J. Franklin Thomas. It offers two consecutive years of work and A.B. and A.M. degrees will be given by the University to students having the requisite amount of undergraduate preparation. Students will have the opportunity of doing field work and studying actual cases.

Thus, using the words of Dean F. O. Young of the school of sociology, "these plans are being made so that all agencies such as the chamber of commerce and women's clubs will be guides toward a scientific development of their respective communities."

MISS WATERMAN, NEW PHYSICAL INSTRUCTOR, ORGANIZING TEAMS

Women's Gym Will Have Large
Enrollment; Wide Range of Sports Available.

Miss Emma F. Waterman of Minneapolis has arrived at the University as the new member of the faculty in the Physical Training Department, succeeding Miss Gladys Gorman, who resigned to take up reconstruction work in Russia.

Miss Waterman, who is a graduate of the University of Minnesota, class of '17, and of the Hygiene Department of Wellesley, class of '19, will be in charge of freshman hockey and tennis and will also do some work with the gym majors. Already 65 girls have signed up for hockey and she has organized four enthusiastic hockey teams with Dorothy Reed as captain of team one; Caroline Cannon, captain of team two; Lucile Elrod, captain of team three, and Ruth Wolf, captain of team four. These teams will play three nights a week on the field near the Junior High school if no other place is available.

Swimming Hours Fixed
Miss Catherine Winslow will be in charge of the swimming and dancing classes for the fall term. The pool will be open to the girls on Tuesday and Thursday afternoon from 2:30 to 5 but no girl who has not taken a physical examination will be permitted to enter. Any girl who has not paid her locker fee will be required to pay a locker fee of 75 cents to cover the cost of laundering the suits and towels.

Camping and archery will be under the direction of Miss Harriett Thompson. The number of girls signing up for these two sports has already exceeded the number which may be accommodated owing to the shortage of equipment. At the present time there are but two canoes but a few more will be procured as soon as possible to accommodate the 12 girls already signed up. Between 60 and 75 girls have already signed up for archery but so far the University has been able to procure but 5 or 6 bows and no arrows are available because of delay in shipment from England where they are manufactured. Great enthusiasm is displayed by the girls for the outdoor sports this year and as soon as it is possible to obtain the needed equipment teams in all the sports will be organized for matches.

Miss Cummings Travels
Miss Mabel Cummings, who is the head of the physical training department, will arrive Saturday from Roseburg where she has been one of the instructors for the Teachers' Institute.

MISS EPPING BRIDE OF HOOD RIVER MAN

Graduate of 1918 Class, Formerly Tennis Champion, Married to J. R. Norton.

News of the marriage of Miss Adrienne Epping of Hood River, in Portland, Monday September 26, to J. R. Norton of Hood River, has just reached the University campus. Miss Epping was graduated from the University in 1918 and was a major in journalism. After her graduation she held a position on the Hood River News, but for the last few months she has been in the employ of the Pacific Power and Light company in Hood River.

While in the University Miss Epping was news editor of the Oregon Emerald for one term while Harold Hamstreet was editor. She was also prominent in athletics and held the championship in tennis for four years. Her husband is vice-president of the company operating the vinegar factory in Hood River where the couple will make their home.

Mrs. Norton's sister, Betty Epping, is a sophomore in the University this year.

NEW CONDUCT RULES FOR UNIVERSITY WOMEN ISSUED BY DEAN FOX

Regulations Are Practically the Same as Those in Force
During Last Year.

Rules for the general conduct of the women of the University of Oregon have been issued by Dean Elizabeth Fox and have been given to each woman as she has registered with the dean. The rules are as follows:

1. Quiet hours shall be maintained on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. and lights out at 11:00. It is understood that exception to this rule may be made for Friday and Saturday nights when the hour may be 11, but the 10:30 rule holds for Sundays.

2. On Friday and Saturday evenings and nights preceding holidays all social functions shall cease at 11:30, including the serving of refreshments, and lights in residences generally shall be out by 12:15.

3. Sunday is to be respected. Music of the higher type is expected and no extensive entertaining shall occur.

4. All men callers must be away from the house by 10:30 any night unless a party is in progress.

5. No men are to call before 12:00 noon.

6. Freshmen are not expected to receive or to go out on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday evenings. Upperclass women are expected to be discriminating in exercising their social privileges and to obtain the consent of the chaperon for all social engagements on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings. No upperclass woman is expected to have more than one social engagement per week on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday nights.

7. All cases of illness, even slight, should be reported at once by the chaperons to the infirmary and the Dean of Women.

8. All picnics or outdoor entertainments must be adequately chaperoned by persons approved by the house mothers.

The Social Affairs committee and the Dean of women ask the hearty co-operation of the women students for a high standard of wholesome social life. They ask the women to realize that no set of regulations can ever cover all instances, but that the dictates of good taste and a sincere desire to keep the University above criticism must govern all social intercourse.

(Signed) ELIZABETH FOX,
Dean of Women.

RETURN OF OLD MEN GIVES OREGON ELEVEN ADDITIONAL STRENGTH

Bartlett, Steers, Huntington,
Other Former Weavers of O are back.

SEASON OPENS OCT. 11th

O. A. C. Will Play First Contest on
New Athletic Field on Homecoming Date

(By Alexander G. Brown)

From every angle Oregon starts the present football season with the best prospects since the memorable year of 1916 when the lomon-yellow warriors proved, not only to be the best of the Pacific Coast conference, but also among the strongest, if not the strongest, of the entire United States. This season presents the greatest array of football talent at the very start that the University has ever had. However, the fact that other colleges of the northwest also have old men back makes this season one that will call for as much work and as steady practice on the part of the candidates for the Varsity as ever before. There is no question among those who have followed football closely for the past few years, that the grade of football to be seen this fall will be of the highest order ever offered the gridiron followers of the northwest.

Old and New Men In.

Old and new men joining in the fight for places on the Oregon team, and the competition is bringing out some of the nicest pre-season work that has been seen for several years. Many of the old men who are back in harness have been playing football while in the service and are in better condition right now than at any previous time of their career. There is only one speck appearing in the Oregon football horizon, and that is that some of the men who have played on first or second teams for the University in previous years are not out this season. They figure that there is no chance for them so are not turning out for practice. The more men that report and get in and work the harder it will be for anyone to make his berth and as a result a better grade of football will be noticed.

The Oregon Varsity is out of for the championship of the Pacific Coast and of the United States if such is possible. Press dispatches from Pasadena report that the management of the Tournament of Roses plans to stage an inter-sectional contest again to decide the supremacy of the country.

Stanford Cancels Game.

Oregon had but one game scheduled in the south, with Stanford, but the latter college has seen fit to join the ranks of contract-jumpers during her first year in the conference and has cancelled the Oregon game. There is no doubt that this is the worst step Stanford could possibly have taken. Being a new school in the conference she will be judged by her actions during her first season. No other college will feel safe in making a contract with the California institution.

Work on old Kincaid field is getting the men into shape rapidly. Three full teams were in action last night, and Coach "Shy" Huntington said this morning that he would have the season's first scrimmage today. Two of the men who are more than prospects for the season are a little late in getting out for work. They are "Bill" Steers, quarterback for the freshmen of 1916 and for the varsity of 1917, who during the last season held down this position on the famous Mare Island Marine team. He is due in today from The Dalles, where he made a short stop on his way back to Eugene from Canada. The other absent member is Bar Williams. Williams has been work-
