REVIVE THIS CUSTOM

Thursday afternoon the varsity football team and substitutes will leave for Moscow, Idaho, where they will play the first conference game of the season with the University of Idaho eleven Saturday afternoon.

In pre-bellum days it was always the custom of every student in the University to form a parade and march to the train where they staged a rally and saw the team leave. The band was out for this occasion and Oregon spirit was as supreme as it was on the gridiron. The team members left for the scene of contest filled with fight and a desire to bring home victory to the students whom they left cheering on the depot platform.

During the past two years this custom has been sadly neglected and our athletic teams have left for conquests on alien fields without so much as a single student at the train to let them know that Oregon, the school they were going to fight for, was behind them in their efforts.

This old custom must be revived, and next Thursday afternoon is the time to do it. Just a suggestion: Put the members of the football team who are leaving in carriages which could easily be pulled to the depot from the campus by a corps of able-bodied freshmen. Put our newly organized band at the head of the procession and following the carriages should be a parade made up of every man and woman in the University. By doing this we would not only show the team that we want them to win but we would get a great deal of fun in doing it.

WRITE YOUR SLOGAN NOW

Write that slogan tonight for Homecoming week-end. The slogan contest closes tomorrow evening. Who would miss a chance of winning $6 through neglecting to put in a few minutes' easy thought? The committee wants a short, snappy slogan full of pep, a slogan that can be used in advertising the week-end and that will help in urging Oregon to victory on the field November 15.

The old "Fight 'em, Oregon," which proved so effective when Oregon beat California in 1917 is the type of slogan that is wanted. The battle cry this year will appear on all the posters, letters and tags advertising the game and Homecoming. It must be a good one. Oregon students, who will be the one to write that slogan and win $6?

THE CAMPUS Y. M. C. A.

A membership drive for the campus Y. M. C. A. is now in progress. It should receive the support of every man in the University. The campus Y. M. C. A. this year, has nothing to do with the national organization. The secretary and student cabinet aim to make the organization a benefit to every man in the University this year. Funds obtained in the membership drive will be used to keep a secretary at the hut throughout the year and also to maintain the building. The building will always be an attractive place where University men can get together. Men outside fraternities will find the Y. M. C. A. hut of special value as it affords an excellent lounging place where music, papers, books and a cheerful fire can always be found. Furthermore the campus Y. M. C. A. after it is more fully organized intends to stage smokers, jazz fests and other entertainments at regular intervals throughout the year. The work of the "Y" employment bureau for University men has aided a multitude of students to stay in college.

25 ORGANIZATION'S OUT FOR DOUGHNUT DEBATE THIS YEAR

Men's Question and Schedule Decided Upon; Women's Subject Tentative

Thirteen men's houses and twelve women's houses are lined up for doughnut debate this year. Last fall only eight of the men's houses on the campus were out for debate and only about the same number of women's houses. Definite plans were made at a meeting of the men's houses held last Friday evening as to a schedule and question for the doughnut series, which will start soon after Thanksgiving recess. The subject chosen for debate is: Resolved, that all immigration should be prohibited for a period of not less than five years. This question is subject to change, however, any time up to November 10.

Representatives from the different women's houses on the campus met and discussed plans for the inter-sorority series which is yet to be arranged. "Industrial Arbitration" was the subject selected as a possible question for the series.

Only a very few of the women's houses have failed to send in the names of their representatives and the selection of their coaches, but those that are out are expecting to have representatives at the next meeting.

Arrangements Are Announced

The women's houses that have so far made complete arrangements are: Alpha Delta, Marie Riddings, house representative; Alpha Phi, Elizabeth Hadley, house representative, with Miss Mary Perkins as coach; Delta Gamma, Lois Hall, house representative and Victor Morris, coach; Gamma Phi Beta, Eileen Tomkins, house representative; Pi Beta Pi, Alice Thurston, house representative, with Dr. E. C. Robbins as coach; Hendricks Hall, Ethel Wakefield, house representative, with Walter Myers as coach; Oregon Club, Grace Knopp representative, with George Turnbull as coach.

UNIVERSITY SENDS FULL QUOTA TO CLUBWOMEN'S SESSION AT CORVALLIS

Oregon Delegates Will Invite Federation to Campus For Next Convention

A full quota of delegates to the convention of the Oregon State Federation of Women's Clubs in Corvallis is being sent by the University of Oregon. The University's enrollment of 707 women allows representation of 16 delegates at the convention, which opened yesterday and will close Thursday. While at the convention Oregon's delegates will extend an invitation to the federation to convene next year on the University campus.

One of the principal items of business of the convention will be the election of federation officers. Candidates for the presidency are Miss Mattie Beatty of Salem and Mrs. Ida Callahan, a member of the faculty of Oregon Agricultural college. Louise Davis, president of women's league, said: "The Women's league does not go on record as taking sides in the matter of favoring a candidate for the presidency. Each delegate is to vote according to her own conscience."

Dean Elizabeth Fox, Miss Lilian Tingle, Mrs. Prince L. Campbell and Louise Davis left last night for Corvallis. Miss Fox, Miss Tingle and Mrs. Campbell are not delegates of Women's league, but are representing the University. The other 15 delegates will make the trip to Corvallis tonight, as excusers from classes will be granted for only two days. While in Corvallis Miss Fox will be the guest of Miss Ava Milam of the home economics department of O. A. C. Representatives of the Women's league are the following: Louise Davis, Nell Warwick, Eileen Tomkins, Ethel Wakefield, Theodora Stoppenbach, Era Godfrey, Mabel Weller, Alice Hamm, Marjorie Kay, Marjorie Holaday, Alice Thurston, Dorothy Duniway, Jennie Maguire.

During both of the men's and women's meetings the sentiment has been to form a permanent inter-fraternity and inter-sorority forensic council to have charge of intramural debate and it is the plan of Professor R. W. Prescott, in charge of all university debaters, to have this done some time during the year.

Other questions discussed thoroughly during the meeting last Friday were the railroad problem, education, and the labor question, but immigration seemed to be the most to the point and was finally decided upon. Only slight changes have been made in the rules governing doughnut debate. Four men or women will compose the team with ten minute speeches and four four-minute rebuttals. Last year's speeches were cut down to six minutes. No eliminations will be made until the second round is started.

SATURDAY'S GAME SHOWS MUCH TO BE DESIRED

"Spike" Leslie's Position Safe
"Spike" Leslie handled the position of left tackle in a most creditable manner. "Spike" is another of the oldtimers that can be relied upon and those on the sidelines have nothing to fear as to the aggressiveness of the Varsity with him on the line. In the game Saturday "Spike's" playing was not spectacular enough to attract the attention of Walter Camp in his selection of the all-American eleven, but is looked mighty good from the standpoint of an Oregon supporter.

The one place on the line that looks a trifle weak is left end. Howard was playing against a hard man to handle in Teggert but if he expects to keep his place on the Varsity he will have to hold his own with men of similar rank throughout the season.

As long as Brandenburg is laid up and Vince Jacobberger is kept in the backfield the Oregon team is going to be handicapped on the end. When "Brandy" is able to get back into the lineup and Vince Jacobberger is shifted to the end the Varsity is going to be just that much stronger. Oregon was penalized at least 60 yards during the afternoon for off-side credited to left end.

F. Jacobberger Plays Good Game
In the backfield Francis Jacobberger played the best game Saturday that he has ever shown on the Oregon campus. His one fault, that cut down his efficiency last season, was noticeable again in Saturday's contest. This is his habit of stopping dead and attempting to dodge a tackle. In one department Francis excelled Saturday and that was his punting. His kicks averaged in the neighborhood of 50 yards and in this respect he outshone the work of Murphy for the clubmen. Murphy, however, did good work when it came to advancing the ball and handling his team.

Manerude Shines at Quarter
"Skeet" Manerude came through with flying colors in the short time that he served as quarter for the Varsity "Skeet" proved himself in the estimation of some, to be, next to Steers, the best field general that the Varsity has to offer. Manerude's selection of plays and players to carry out his selections were very good. "Skeet" put over a nice drop-kick in the final period from the 20 yard line for the last counter of the Varsity of the afternoon.

Two Halves Look Good
The star of the contest was unquestionably Ed Strowbridge. He made some of the nicest gains through the line that have been seen for several seasons on the local gridiron. This is one player that is going to cause no end of trouble to the opposing team before the end of the season. When it came to off tackle plays Vince Jacobberger made a name for himself. These two halves, Strowbridge and Jacobberger, left very little to be desired and this department looks safe for the present.

Hollis Huntington at his post at fullback did not show up with any great amount of brilliancy, but his work was steady and he will probably be better as the season advances. He made some nice gains during the afternoon and as soon as he gets going with Bill Steers at quarter these two should show some of the conference lines a few new offerings along the lines of steam rollers.

Team Work Not Finished
The work of the entire team did not have the finished appearance that is desired before they clash with either O. A. C. or Washington State college. Oregon has no more than an even break to win the honors of the northwest and a few more injuries, like that of Brandenburg and Blake, or a few more of the men being forced to give up the game, as was Joe Trowbridge, and Oregon will have a slim chance for the title.

The Varsity needs more support from the student body and when they leave for Idaho this week-end for the first of the conference struggles every student should be at the train to give them a sendoff like that which was given to the team of 1916. The present team deserves the undivided support of the student body and as few can make the trip to the site of the Idaho university to see the game the best that can be done is to get out for the sendoff.

SOCIETY

The most elaborate and doubtless the most enjoyable event as yet this season for faculty folk was the banquet at the Osburn Saturday evening in honor of Dean Elizabeth Fox.

President and Mrs. P. L. Campbell were host and hostess. Assistant hostesses were Mrs. Eric Allen, Mrs. Jane Scottford Thacher, Miss Mary Watson, Mrs. E. E. DeCou and Mrs. R. C. Clark. Misses Mary Chambers, Charlie Fenton, Jane Campbell and Florence McGilvery attended the door.

The palm room and drawing room were delicately decorated with white clematis and pink roses. Purple asters and baby-breath made a charming color scheme for the tea room.

The members of Tre Nu, an organization of self-supporting girls on the campus, were hostesses for a delightful tea on Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. R. Sweetser. The affair was in honor of freshman girls who are putting themselves through college. During the afternoon Bernice Alstock and Naomi Wilson sang several duets and Alberta Potter, accompanied by Aurora Potter, gave two violin selections. Miss Urith Dalley poured and those serving were Madeline Slotboom, Jennie McGuire, Marion Bowen and Eleanor Spail.

Ted Peterson and Edgar Kline of Portland were week-end guests of Kappa Sigma.

Gus Hickson, Fred Jacobson and George Stafford, members of Kappa Sigma chapter at O. A. C., spent the week-end with their fraternity brothers in Eugene.

Lloyd Teggart of the class of '19 and George Colton, ex-'19, were week-end visitors at the Sigma Nu house.

Mr. D. R. Day and Mr. Christie of San Francisco are spending a few days at the Sigma Nu house. Mr. Day was a member of the Royal Flying corps.

Y. M. AND Y. W. TO MIX FRIDAY NIGHT Dancing, Entertainment and Refreshments Are Being Planned by Committees

Speaking in Y. M. and Y. W. language, they are "going to shake a lively hoof" Friday night at the men's gym, and the whole college is invited and expected.

To use ordinary language, there will be a dance Friday night conducted by the joint action of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. There will be eats; there will be an entertaining program, and there will be good music.

Adah McMurry vouches as to the good program. She and Arthur Johnson are in charge of the details. Lindsay McArthur, widely known as a truthful man, swears

Neil Morfitt, ex '20, who has just returned from San Francisco, where he has been with the army aviation is enjoying a short visit with his fraternity brothers at Sigma Nu.

"Chuck" Zumwalt spent the week-end at the Alpha Tau Omega houses. Este Brosius also spent the week-end at the Alpha Tau Omega house.

Gamma Phi Beta had as dinner guest on Sunday Miss Francis McMillan.

The sophomores of the Gamma Phi Beta house were hostesses for a delightful picnic at Hendricks Park Sunday in honor of their pledges. The party numbered 25 couples, the escorts being limited to the members of the freshman class.

The Alpha Deltas were hostesses Sunday dinner honoring Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Matthis and Miss Susie Matthis of Corvallis. Dr. Matthis is head of the health bureau at O.A.C.

Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Boynton of Eugene were Sunday dinner guests at the Sigma Delta Phi house.

Dean D. W. Morton, Prof. Warren Smith and Charles Seabury, an alumnus of Wisconsin Alpha, now with the Seattle Hardware company, of Portland, were guests of Sigma Alpha Epsilon at dinner Monday.

Doris Churchill, Delta Delta Delta, spent the week-end visiting in Salem.

Lucien P. Arant, member of the Oregonian staff and former student in commerce and journalism in the University, spent a part of his vacation in renewing old ties on the campus last week. Mr. Arant, who visited friends in Salem several days, was the guest of his brother, Francis M. Arant, a freshman in the university of Oregon school of commerce. Mr. Arant returned to Portland Monday.

that there will be exceptionally good music. And Elmo Madden, who would swear at anything, has gone on record to say that the whole affair will be great.

There will be no admission charge and you don't have to bring girls. It is expected that with these two great concessions, even Carl Mautz and Scotty Strachan may be lured to the place. Carl has acknowledged to reading up on houses lately.

Order of the O to Meet

There will be a meeting of all members of the Order of the O in Bill Hayward's office in the men's gymnasium at 7:30 Thursday evening.

WANTED—A waiter. Phone 660.
