A ROOSEVELT CLUB

The discussion of the formation of a Roosevelt club comes fittingly at the close of a week in which University students and men, women and children throughout the United States gave their time and money in anticipation of the construction of a true Roosevelt memorial.

Sentiment on the campus seems to favor the formation of such a club here. What is needed now is some one to organize it.

WRITE THOSE LETTERS NOW

If you haven't written to every single former student and alumnus of the University urging them to come back for Homecoming week-end, November 14 to 15, and assuring them of a hearty welcome, do so tonight.

Members of the Board of Regents, we thank you for raising the salaries of the faculty this morning.

SOCIETY

One of the most attractive social affairs of the week was the tea for which the members of Delta Delta Delta were hostesses Thursday afternoon in honor of their new house-mother, Mrs. S. M. Owen.

It will be of interest to many of the students of the University to learn of the recent marriage of Betty Dare Allinson and Donald J. Meyers.

The men of Friendly hall are holding a smoker this evening.

Dinner guests of Delta Delta Delta Wednesday evening were Edna Bushman and Marjory Wells.

Members of Alpha Delta who are in Corvallis this week-end are Naomi Robbins and Gladys Mathes.

Delta Tau had as its guests for dinner Thursday evening Mason Dillard, Johnny Bryson and Kenneth Cockerline.

Several from the Alpha Phi house are spending the week-end out of town. Jen Laughlin and Dorothy Reed are visiting at their homes in Portland.

Miss Loeta Rogers, an Alpha Delta, had as a week-end visitor her mother, Mrs. J. W. Rogers of Independence.

Carl McBride and Charles Delchman of O. A. C. were Sunday dinner guests of Alpha Delta.

Gladys Lane was a luncheon guest at the Alpha Phi house Sunday evening.

Kappa Sigma held initiation Saturday night for Arthur Kuhnhausen and Floyd Boyles.

Leslie Farley, Charles Crandall and William Patterson were dinner guests at the Chi Omega house Sunday.

Maurice Mann, ex '22, spent the week-end on the campus. He is at present manager of the Ivy Press, Portland.

The upper classmen of the Sigma Delta Phi house entertained their lower classmen with a dinner on Wednesday evening.

MOOT COURT WILL CONVENE WEDNESDAY

Case of a Contractor Against Land-Owner to be Argued by Law Students.

The third weekly session of the moot court, which will be held Wednesday night, will involve a case of a contractor against a landowner.

E. S. Evans and W. W. Dillard, senior and junior counsels, respectively, for the appellants, and L. Bartholemew and J. C. Hedges, senior and junior counsels for the defendants, will argue the case.

The Sigma Nus entertained their sisters at dinner Sunday. The guests were Marjorie Delzell, Barbara Shepard, Laura Gates, Helen Brown, Daisy Gochnour, Marjorie Kay, Leta Kiddle, Margaret Berry, Vera Tracy and Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Schafer.

Dinner guests at the Sigma Delta Phi house Sunday were Genevieve Spriggs, Beatrice Clark, Etta Lahery and Mr. Frank Badollet, brother of Madolet, housemother at the Sigma Delta Phi house.

A "Mother's Dinner" was the feature of the day at the Delta Tau Delta house last Sunday, several of the members' mothers being guests for dinner and the afternoon.

A tea was given by the members of Kappa Kappa Gamma Wednesday afternoon in honor of Dean Elizabeth Fox, Mrs. Grace R. Ellis and Mrs. Madeline Harding Watson.

Miss Georgia Kinsey, a graduate with the class of 1916, and Mentor Boney were married October 16, at 8:30 in the Baptist church by Rev. C. E. Dunham.

Beulah Clark was a Sunday evening luncheon guest of Alpha Delta.

Colonel and Mrs. John Leader and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn McCready were guests at the Sigma Chi house at Sunday dinner.

Alpha Tau Omega entertained the following guests at dinner Sunday: Pauline Coad, Mary Alta Kelly, Katherine Baker, Gladys Emison, Betty Epping and Aileen Johnson.

Guests of Delta Delta Delta for last Sunday evening luncheon were Carl Knudson, Charles Crandall, Jack Hoker, William Patterson, Bob Morrison and Alex Shiye.

Tuesday dinner guests at the Alpha Delta house were the Misses Florence Jagger and Alice Curtis. Wednesday dinner guest was Miss Beulah Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Craven and Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Laughary of Dallas have been recent visitors in Eugene. Last Monday evening they were dinner guests at the Delta Gamma house.

the landowner, so the minds of the parties involved never met at a price. The discrepancy was found later.

No further subjects have been decided upon for the following courts, but they are being arranged for, according to statements of Professor T. A. Larramore yesterday.

TRIPLE A HAS ELECTION

Lucille Branstetter of Eugene President of Organization

Lucille Branstetter of Eugene was elected president of Triple A, an organization of all freshman women in the University, at the first meeting of the club held Thursday.

MURRAY DRIVING FROSH

SEVERAL OLD PLAYERS BACK ON PRACTICE FIELD

Few Changes Expected—Dope Seems to Favor O. A. C. Rooks in Coming Game

Coach "Bob" Murray is putting the freshman squad through a stiff grind every night in an effort to get the men into shape for the game with the O. A. C. rooks November 1.

The advent of "Bob" Murray has brought a number of men out for practice that have not been out since the first few weeks of the season. Hugh Claren, an old Lincoln man, is back in a suit.

Ralph Smith, another one-time Lincoln star, has returned to the field. Smith looked like a good man at the first of the season and may yet show his worth.

With the O.A.C. game a week away Murray will probably make very few changes in the lineup. At present dope seems to favor the rooks in the coming game.
