MEDICAL SCHOOL'S ATTENDANCE BOOSTED BY EX-SERVICE MEN

Foreign Born Students Enroll in Portland; Hollowe'en Party Given Women

Portland, Nov. 10.—(Special).—Since the last report of 99 students enrolled in the school of medicine, three more have been added. The lateness of entering is due, to a large extent, to the fact that medically inclined men are still being discharged from the army and navy. These students are entering under a severe handicap in having missed nearly a month of school. The ordinary daily curriculum of a medical school taxes the average student's capacity. With this fact in view and because of the school's willingness to make concessions, the faculty has not only allowed these late entries but has also made arrangements for assisting the men in making up their back work. Mr. Osgood, for instance, in the chemistry department, will give them a week's course during the Christmas recess. Mr. Thienes and Mr. Foster, in histology and anatomy, will give them extra time also.

Several Nationalities Represented
Among the students enrolled here is one who was born in Warsaw, Poland; another was born in County Cork, Ireland, and still another in Stockholm, Sweden. The two former men received their preparatory training at the University of Oregon, the latter at McMinnville college.

Juan Acosta, a junior, is from the Philippines, but obtained his training at the University of Tokio, Japan. Owing to the fact that English is not taught, or insisted upon there, he is having difficulty in a lingual way. Sancho P. Santos, another Philippino, who was trained at the University of the Philippines, is experiencing little trouble here. Pedro Alcantara, the third man from the Philippines attending the school, received his preliminary training at the state university.

Dr. and Mrs. Haskins Entertain
Friday evening, November 1, at their home in Rose Friend apartments at the corner of Broadway and Jefferson streets, Dr. and Mrs. Howard D. Haskins delightfully entertained the medical school women. The rooms were tastefully decorated with autumn leaves with here and there suggestions of black cats, broomsticks, cobwebs, pumpkin lanterns and witches peering weirdly out from their arboreal surrounding. A large bowl of fruit, beautifully arranged, served as a centerpiece for the table.

Weird lights with ghost stories, mystical rites, "spooky" games and conversation enlivened the evening. Refreshments consisted of cider, loganberry juice, doughnuts and apples. Those enjoying Dr. and Mrs. Haskins' hospitality were the Misses Hunt, Ahrens, Mumby, Young, McBride, Banks, Galloway, Quinn, Dodge, Hough, Logus, Davis, Hallem, Tamesie, Tynan and Mrs. Jessie Farrior.

SPANISH CLUB TO MEET

Interesting Program Planned For Circulo Castellano, Nov. 13

Can you talk Spanish, read Spanish, think Spanish, or do anything else in Spanish? Have you had one year of Spanish in college or two in high school? Any who have are invited to the second meeting of the Spanish club, or Circulo Castellano, which will be held in the Y. W. C. A. Thursday, November 13, at 7 o'clock. An interesting program is prepared. All of those present will answer the roll call with Spanish proverbs. Miss Grace Knopp will give a talk on the cultural, literary and commercial value of Spanish. Two short Spanish plays, "El Medico Infortunado" and "El Doble Robo," will be presented by members of the club, and several Spanish songs will be sung.

GIRLS' CLUB WILL TOUR

CONCERT TRIP PLANNED FOR CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS

Several Smaller Trips May Be Taken—No Performance in Eugene Until Spring

First among the concert trips to be taken by the Girls' Glee club this year will be the southern Oregon tour which will be made during the Christmas holidays, according to announcement made today by Helen Manning, manager of the club. Owing to the fact that their one big trip into the Coos Bay country last year proved to be so successful financially and from a standpoint of popularity the girls hope to take several smaller trips this year.

All members of the organization will report in Eugene December 28 for a day's practice before the first concert, which will be given in Cottage Grove, Tuesday the 30th if present plans are carried out.

New Year's eve is the date chosen for the Medford performances. Although no bookings have been secured at this place, every effort will be made to make satisfactory arrangements for that time since the town always turns out a large crowd for University affairs and this would be one of the popular nights for a concert.

Other towns to be visited are Ashland, January 1; Klamath Falls, January 2; Grants Pass, January 3, and Roseburg, January 4. These are only tentative plans and may be changed at a later date, according to the manager.

A full concert program is being worked out for the club by L. A. Coon, director, who hopes to have several finished chorus numbers and solos, besides some original skits worked up by the middle of December. No concert will be given in Eugene until next spring.

RIFLE PRACTICE MONDAY

Sophomores and Juniors to Shoot on Gallery Range

Gallery rifle practice for junior and sophomore members of the R. O. T. C. started on Monday. The range will be open every day except Saturdays and Sundays, from 9 to 11 a. m. and 2 to 5 p. m. Springfield rifles, firing a .22 calibre bullet, will be used in the practice. The men will fire from 50 and 75 feet. Approximately 200 rounds will be fired by every cadet, the fire being extended over a period of several days. Detailed accounts of the record made by each man are to be kept.

The schedule for the freshman target practice is to be announced at a later date.

Society

Events which took place last weekend in connection with the installation of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, national fraternity, on the Oregon campus, commanded the attention of society. A hundred and fifty visiting delegates from chapters all over the United States assisted in making the local U-Avava a national fraternity. The W. S. C.-Oregon game, too, halted many social events which would otherwise have been given by the organizations on the campus previous to the Homecoming whirl. As it was, over half the students spent the weekend in Portland.

Sixty-five guests were entertained at a dance given Friday night by Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity at the Osburn hotel in honor of their installation the following afternoon.

The hotel dining room was cleverly decorated in gold and purple. Music was furnished by the Beta orchestra. Two professional dancers gave the features of the evening, entertaining with various new steps which are now holding the attention of dancing folk.

Patrons and patronesses for the occasion were President and Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Dr. and Mrs. D. W. Morton, Dean Elizabeth Fox, Dean and Mrs. John Straub, Professor and Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher.

Invited guests were as follows: Lyle Bryson, Agnes Brooks, Lenore Cram, Arbelyna Healy, Eleanor Spall, Lorna Coolidge, Martha Westwood, Bess Shell, Mildred Mumby, Elizabeth McHaley, Ruth Hopkins, Irene Stewart, Florence Riddle, Dorothy Donlon, Margaret Phelps, Wanda Nelson, Imogene Letcher Alma Ditto, Isabel Kidd, Marvel Skeels, Clara Calkins, Mildred Smith, Evelyn Fitzgibbons, Marjorie Edsall, Clem Cameron, Mary Alta Kelly, Dorothy Wootton, Bernice Craig, Jeannette Moss, Emma Garbade, Mary Irving, Hilma Fox, Maud Barnes, Grace Rugg, Caroline McPherson, Marie Goerig, Frances McMillan, Helen Manning, Nell Warwick, Nell Gaylord, Mary Packwood, Beatrice Crewdson, Helen Gronholm, Helen Meires, Katherine Baker, Arthur Tuck, Sidney Hayslip, Charles Seifrid, Clarence Moffit, Charles Chandler, J. but this number has failed to satisfy the demand. The new athletic field will accommodate in the neighborhood of 7,000 and indications are at present to the effect that there will be at least 10,000 here for the game.

The Y hut is the official headquarters for the members of the alumni; and here they can find out anything they wish to know about the past, present or future history of classmates or friends. At the depots, the Southern Pacific and Oregon Electric, booths will be established for the convenience of the former students, who may have forgotten that a Callege Crest car will not take them to the University, and other things of this nature in the course of their absence from the city.

Two Special Trains

There will be two special trains from Portland next Saturday. The Southern Pacific will leave the Union station at 8:05; East Morrison 8:15; Salem 9:48; Albany 10:23; arrive Eugene 12 o'clock noon. The Oregon Electric schedule is: Leave Portland 8:00; Jefferson street station 8:10; Salem 9:45; Albany 10:40; arrive Eugene 12 o'clock noon.

Returning Saturday the S. P. will leave at 5:25 and will arrive in Portland at 10. The O. E. will leave Eugene at 6:00 and is due in Portland at 10. As no special rates are being given for the week-end it is advised that one-way tickets be secured.

Miss Ella Rowlings is in charge of the 100 guides who will make themselves useful around the campus Saturday as traveling information centers. The stores of Eugene will close Saturday afternoon from 2 to 6 in order to allow all of their employees the opportunity to see the annual clash between the University and O. A. C.

Three Tags for Week-end

Three tags are being prepared for use during the week-end. One is for members of the alumni, giving name and class, which will admit to the Homecoming dance Saturday evening and will also entitle holder to first service at the campus luncheon. The second tag is for the guests and the third is for present students.
