OLD SCENES ATTRACT PAIR

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McMurray, '16, Among Those Present

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McMurray, both of '16 and a Kappa Sigma-Kappa Alpha Theta combination which developed from a college romance, are back to their old haunts "taking in" the places they used to seek in the early stages of their romance. "Gertie" a charter member of Kwama and "Bob" a Friar were both prominent on the campus in their day. They were married in 1917 before "Bob", who was a lieutenant, left for France, and they are now making their home in Salem.

BILL BACK FROM BAKING

Heusner, '15, of Portland, Always Has Taken to Cake

Bill Heusner, '15, member of the Kappa Sigma fraternity, has always taken to pastry, it is found in digging up his history. He managed to leave enough cakes for the Royal Bakery in Portland to last them while he ran up to see some of the old timers, but he had to bring his wife, formerly Helen Cake, '15, along too or there would be war in the family, he says. They are good Oregon enthusiasts and wouldn't miss the fun for all the bakeries in the world.

JOHNNY IS JINX TO FOE

Beckett Here from Mare Island to Held Down O. A. C.

Lieutenant John Beckett, ex-'18, is another of those old Sigma Nus who came early to catch the worm. Johnny is better known in California as Coach Andy Smith's Jinx, for the U. of C. team has lost every game that has been honored by the presence of Oregon's old tackle. That he may prove to be coach Hargiss' jinx too is the prayer of every wearer of the lemon-yellow—anyway he's doing his best. Johnny came all the way from Mare Island where he is the social butterfly of the marines, it is said.
