By Mary Ellen Bailey.

Despite the aftermath of the frivolity of Homecoming week University folks are entertaining this week end with parties that are perhaps among the gayest of the season. The Senior dance Friday night had the "tone" that always graces their far famed parties. This evening members of the school of journalism left their typewriters and eye shades and are dancing the hours away in the men's gymnasium. Of a more formal nature were the house dances of Pi Beta Phi and Sigma Delta Phi, Friday night, and Phi Delta Theta tonight. Woman's league sponsored a matinee dance this afternoon.

One of the foremost events of the week is the Sigma Nu dance given at their house this evening. The decorations were original and attractive. The three rooms used for dancing were decorated to represent Spring, Autumn and Winter, respectively. The patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Goodrich, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Paine, and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Walker. The guest list included Marjorie Dellzell, Jeanette Hogan, Bernice Craig, Gladys Nosler, Frances MacMillan, Genevieve Haven, Margaret Cundy, Mable Ramont, Esther Peterson, Thelma Stanton, Ila Nichols, Ada McMurphey, Geraldine Pilkington, Dorothy Dixon, Laura Gates, Madge Calkins, Norma Medler, Ruth Griffin, Lucille Parsons, Barbara Shepard, Maybelle Leavitt, Christine Forbes, Irene Barrett, Marjorie Edsall, Dorothy McGuire, and Alice Wherity.

The men of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity are hosts tonight at their chapter house for an informal dancing party. Sprays of ivy and strips of blue and white crepe paper formed the decorations. The patrons and patronesses for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Larremore, and Dean Elizabeth Fox. The guests were the Misses Helen Murdock, Madeline Slotboom, Margery Holman, Eleanor Bailey, Wanda Nelson, Lucia Watson, Mildred Mumby, Miriam Holcomb, Era Godfrey, Juanita Kirk, Mary Wells, Marjory Kruse, Eva Digerness, Imogene Letcher, Jeannette Crosfield, Florence Hartman, Gertrude Phetteplace, Dorothy Manville, Marian Taylor, Gladys Smith, Irene Brye, Thelma Moser, Pauline Coad, Doris Dezenendorf, Reba Macklin, Margaret Hamblin, Beatrice Clarke, Clara Thompson, Mildred Weeks, Vivian Chandler, Betty Epping, Ima Procter, Gene Geisler, Marjorie Kay, Lenore Blaessing, Marcell Carlock, Haze Hieckthier, Alys Sutton, and Louise Sheahan.

The Sigma Delta Phi house dance was an event of Friday evening. The house was decorated with the sorority colors, green and pink, and the feature dance consisted of a unique arrangement of electric lights, flooding the rooms with rainbows. The patrons and patronesses were Dean Fox, Miss Badolet, Mr. and Mrs. H. Douglass, and Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Boynton. The guests were Prof. Peter Crockatt, Robert Riggs, William Porter, Robert Kays, James Say, Robert Burns, Guy Morlock, John Houston, Ace Eggleston, Stanley Stickle, George Turner, William Garretson, Arthur Johnson, Guy Kent, Creene Fariss, Ernest Crockatt, Carlton Savage, Miles McKey, Robert Reticher, George Stearns, William Purdy, Remy Cox, Charles Giles, Renell Moore, Arthur Larson, Robert Hendron, Jacob Jacobson, Charles Huggins and Pau Cook.

The Sophomores of Beta Theta Pi entertained with a dinner dance at the Osburn Wednesday evening. Following the dinner was a box party to the performance of "A Prince There Was." The guests for the occasion were Mrs. A. H. McDonald, Doris Pittinger, Lillian Manerud, Gladys Wright, Imogene Letcher, Audrey Collins, Anne Shea, Ruth Diehl, Genevieve Matson, Mary Hehardt, and Doris Dezenendorf.

Mrs. Harold J. Broughton (Rita Fraley) and Marian Mateer were dinner guests of Pi Beta Phi Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Carlos Close, a Gamma Phi Beta from Stanford, is here visiting the local chapter.

The Delta Gammas have as their guest this week Miss Pear McDonnell of Seattle, Washington. Miss McDonnell of Seattle, Washington. Miss McDonnell is the province secretary of Delta Gamma.

Miss Catherine Powell of Roseburg was a dinner guest at the Sigma Delta Phi house Wednesday.

Dinner guests this week at the Alpha Delta house were Miss Catherine Winslow, Fern Holcomb, Ruth Stewart, Lois Black, and Miss Rosalina Espanosa.

Dean Mary Fawcett, dean of women of O. A. C., President and Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Dean Elizabeth Fox, Miss Agnes Campbell, and Dr. and Mrs. John F. Bovard were Sunday dinner guests at Hendricks Hall.

Dinner guests at the Pi Beta Phi house Thursday night were Ben Ivey, Wilbur Carl, George King, Hobart Belnap, Kenneth Lancefield and Fred Main.

Robert Stewart was a dinner guest of Sigma Alpha Epsilon on Monday; on Wednesday, dinner guests were Willis Kays and Eugene McKenty.

President and Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Dean Elizabeth Fox, Miss Gertrude Talbot, Dean and Mrs. John Straub, and Professor and Mrs. A. H. Schreff were dinner guests at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house Thursday evening.

Phi Delta Theta held initiation for Rodney Smith of Eugene, Thursday, November 13.

Dinner guests at Gamma Phi Beta last Sunday were Teresa Albers, Mary Clancy, and Elizabeth Hulme, all of Portland.

Monday evening Alpha Delta entertained Mrs. G. G. Hewett and Mrs. C. D. Tilson at dinner. Tuesday evening their guests were Mrs. Anna Stevenson, Miss Elizabeth Stevenson, and Frankie Adams.

Theta Sigma Phi and Sigma Delta Chi are entertaining the school of journalism tonight in the men's gymnasium with an informal lottery dance. The scribes will edit a gossip sheet during the evening and it is rumored that no one's pride will be spared. Committees for the affair are Dorothy Duniway, Mary Ellen Bailey, Frances Blurock, Robert Case and DeWitt Gilbert. Patrons and patronesses are Dean and Mrs. Eric Allen, Mrs. and Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher, Mrs. Anna L. Beck, George Turnbull and Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Hall.

Delta Tau Delta honored their homecoming guests with a breakfast Sunday morning. Old Deltas at this exclusively chapter affair were Joe Seafie, Maurice Hyde, Jerald Backstrand, Russell Ralston, Martin Askey, Robert Atkinson, Raymond Glatt, Claire Ogle, Thurston Laraway, Jack Berry, Walter Sage, Earl Murphy, and Al Epperly.

Kappa Kappa Gamma entertained Wednesday evening with a dinner dance for Kappa brothers, sons and engaged brothers. The dining table had as a centerpiece a large basket of burnt orange chrysanthemus. Small crested cards marked the places for Williams Steers, Paul Foster, Pierre Meade, Allen Hopkins, Newton Crosfield, Ralph Burgess, Shy Huntington, Hollis Huntington, DeWitt Gilbert, Joe Trowbridge, Horace Foulkes, Charles Miller, Kerby Miller, Ian Campbell, Pierce Cummings, Phil Janey and Irving Smith.

The Freshman of Pi Beta Phi entertained the Sophomores Friday evening with a dinner dance. Pink was the predominating color, the rooms being decorated with masses of pink cherry blossoms. Little tables were used and small Vogue ladies formed the centerpieces and marked the place cards for Donald Newbury, Howard Straub, Fred Main, Dudley Day, George King, Arvol Simola, Warren Kays, Austin Hazard, Ray Kinney, Virgil Cameron, Jimmie King, Carl Newbury, Lawrence Gray, Sherman Reeves, John Alexander, Frank Dickson, Floyd Bowles, Wesley Frater, Hal Simpson, Guy Armantrout, Ray Mooers, Wilbur Carl, Audrey Furry and Floyd Maxwell.

The engagement of Lois Hall of Eugene to Louis Bond, also of this city, was announced Monday evening at the Delta Gamma and Delta Tau Delta houses. Miss Hall, a junior in the university, took her first year at Stanford. She is a member of Delta Gamma fraternity and Theta Kappa Psi, woman's honorary national forensic fraternity. Mr. Bond returned in July from France, where he was stationed for more than a year as lieutenant in the artillery. He is on the campus now assisting the department of geology. Mr. Bond was graduated from the university in 1916 and received master's degree the following year. While in college he was a tennis champion, a member of the men's glee club, the Order of the O. and Delta Tau Delta. The date of the wedding was not announced.

A luncheon was given at noon today at the Delta Gamma house in honor of Miss Pearl McDonnell, province secretary of the local chapter. The purple and yellow color scheme was carried out in astors and tulle. The invited guests were Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Mrs. John Straub, Dean Elizabeth Fox, Mrs. Amy Dunn, Mrs. A. Rogers, Mrs. F. S. Dunn, Mrs. L. E. Bean, and Mrs. M. H. Douglas.
