With examinations scheduled for next week, members of the Greater Oregon committee and the student body at large should make big preparations this week for the campaigns and methods they are going to use in raising the $30,000 for the Women's building during the Christmas holidays. Next week will be more or less broken up with examinations, registration and preparation for the visit home, so that this week should see the definite plans for the big drive well under way. Many of the district chairmen have made extensive plans which bespeak success in their committees. It will be an easy matter to pick out the live wire districts of the state next term after the finals returns of the different sections have been made known.

Enthusiasm in the venture should be at fever heat before we depart for our homes next week. This is without question one of the biggest moves ever started by a student body on the Pacific Coast and we will be judged by the way we put it over, by citizens of the state and members of the other coast institutions. The building itself will be of untold value to our campus. It will not only open a wonderful building for the women of Oregon, but will also make room in a number of other buildings on the campus for the student body and the many students of the state who cannot attend the University now because of the lack of room.

Without an exception every member of the student body should attend assembly Thursday when every detail of the big move will be outlined.

This week will be the last one we will have this term in which to make preparation for the term's examinations. Conscientious effort, a sacrifice of social gayeties and longer hours of study will make it possible for many of us to return to our beloved haunts next term without the heavy probation requirements hanging over our heads ready to banish us at the first slackening of our part. Furthermore it will raise the scholastic standing of our University, a condition which is the goal of much faculty consideration this term.

"Time tells all things," says the old proverb. With all his atiquity old Father Time outclasses a certain committee in connection with the Tournament of Roses, when it comes to making things public.

Just because examinations are looming up in the near future is no reason why we should go about the campus with an expression on our face which looks like the advance agent of a hard winter.

End of the world December 17. Examinations at the University of Oregon December 17. Now if the prophet was a university student many of us would see reason for his dire forecast.

There are too many things in the world to kick about to spend time kicking about nothing.

VERSE AND WORSE

By W. F. Plus Be Be.

Paradise Lost.
It is the modern "frat" house,
I awake at six each morn,
The room is all steam-heated,
We eat not flakes of corn.

For breakfast we have hot cakes,
And waffles now and then,
The ham and eggs we eat each morn,
Are food for brainy men.

'Tis early in the morning
The brothers rise and scream,
They drag me out to no steam heat
The food is all a dream.

Take your feet out of the mud
Said the soldier on the right,
The captain said that if I choose,
I could sleep in that tonight.

A freshman said the movie shows
Are dirty downright cheats,
They soak your cash to see a show,
With tax on all the seats.

A frosh who gave up all Hope so far
As Law was concerned is Reddie
to take Dramatics, but does not know
Howe he can drop English.

Those people who run down their friends never do well in thrack.

Bashful Bertam says: I know a telephone operator who has a good line.

As Usual.
Where will I take her Sunday eve?
I told her I'd show her the town,
Should I take her to Coney to see
the sights,
Or should we just "motah" around?

Should I take her down to the College Grill?
Or go to a picture show?
Shall we just pig 'round the fireplace,
Or should we to Springfield go?

Should we elope at midnight?
And leave our guys in the lurch?
But no, we will do as we always do,
And quietly go to church.

There are many students on the campus, but the Pi Phis have a Marvel.

Students should drink deep of the of the Lemon Punch for while there is no kick in it, few kick about it.

Athletes are noted for poor scholastic work, but every varsity athlete is a man of letters.

RULES FOR DANCES SUFFER REVISIONS FOR CURRENT YEAR

Committee on Student Affairs Recommends Changes in Existing Regulations

The committee on student affairs composed of faculty and student members has framed the rules which will be recommended to the faculty to govern student body dances this year. In some cases very little change has been made over last year's rules, but in other decided changes have been inaugurated.

Dances will be permitted at annual "acquaintance parties" for all classes this year. Formerly, only the freshmen have had an "acquaintance" party, but this year due to the return to the college of so many students who have been away for several years, the ruling was revised.

I Dancing between the hours of 4 and 9 p. m. is permitted only on Friday and Saturday evenings and at this time the guest shall be only one-half the number of occupants of the house.

1. The following shall be allowed one dance a year:

- 1.—To-Ko-Lo.
- 2.—Torch and Shield.
- 3.—Oregon Club.
- 4.—Order of "O."

2. There may be eight student body dances a year, including the for annual class dances.

3. Dancing is permitted as a part of the program at the annual "acquaintance party" of each class.

4. Hendricks hall may give six dances; but it is understood that no woman resident in the hall or annexes shall attend more than two of these dances.

The Committees Recommendations..

II—Number of dances:
Dances shall be allowed the various university organizations in accordance with the following schedule:

1—Beginning October, 1919, the student organizations named in (a) and (b) may give or permit on their premises or elsewhere, under their auspices or direction or at their expense (wholly or in part) only the number of dances specified below. Dances are herein construed as dances in which persons who are not members of the group participate. Spring vacation, junior week-end, Thanksgiving recess and Christmas vacation are specifically exempted from this regulation.

a The following organizations shall be allowed two dances a year:

- Alpha Tau Omega, Beta Theta Pi, Friendly Hall Annex, Owl Club, Kappa Sigma, Delta Tau Delta, Phi Delta Theta, Phi Gamma Delta, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Chi, Sigma Nu, Kappa Omicron, Alpha Delta, Alpha Phi, Chi Omega, Delta Delta Delta, Delta Gamma, Gamma Phi Beta, Kappa Alpha Theta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Pi Beta Phi, Sigma Delta Phi.

When there are guests not exceeding one-half the number of occupants in the house, dancing is permitted on Fridays between the hours of 4 to 9 p. m., and those evenings.

II—Dates:

1—Notice of date of all dances must be given by the head of the house or by the president of the class or organization to each of the deans in writing at least one week before the day on which the dance is given.

a At the beginning of the college year, the social affairs committee shall prepare a schedule of week-end dates available for the places assigned under 1, 2, and 4 of Article I. They shall provide as far as possible a fair distribution of dates among the house organizations, allowing to the later not less than 12 dates exclusive of Homecoming and Junior Week-End. This schedule shall then be distributed to those interested and organizations may make application for dates at any time.

b A given date shall be held exclusively for women's or for men's organizations according to the group first making application for that date as specified in Section I, previously.

c When a student body dance is scheduled for a certain date, no other organization shall afterwards be allowed a dance for that date.
