

REGISTERING BEFORE HOLIDAYS GIVE ONE MORE DAYS VACATION

Students May Sign for Next Term Dec. 13, 15 or 16 Says Registrar

RULES SAME AS FALL TERM

$1 Tardy Fees to be Charged After Jan. 7—50c for Each Day's Additional Delay

Here is your chance to get an extra day's vacation—pay your incidental fees, make out and file your study card either on Saturday, December 13, Monday, December 15, or Tuesday, December 16 some time between 8:30 A. M. and 12 noon, and you need not return to school until your class Tuesday Morning, January 6, according to the word given out by Carlton Spencer, registrar, this afternoon. Classes will be held as usual and those registering must find time to do so when their instructors and major professors are not holding classes. Registration day for all students not registering before the Christmas holidays and the new students coming to the University will be Monday, January 5, however, students may send in the student body tax to L. H. Johnson and thus save the trouble of standing in line at the cashier's window on Monday.

2 Days Allowed to Get Cards In

Rules governing the registration of the winter term are similar to those governing the fall term with very few exceptions. The first day of the term is registration and all study cards must be filled out and filed not later than two days after registration. Otherwise a late registration fee of $1.00 will be charged and also 50 cents in addition will be collected for each additional day's delay. For example, for those not registering until Thursday, January 8, a late registration fee will be charged, for those registering Friday $1.50, and for those registering Saturday $2.00, and so on.

Changes of enrollment can not be made except where absolutely necessary and after five days only upon the payment of a $1.00 fee and by petition the faculty.

Students Urged to Keep Receipts
The $8.50 incidental fee may be paid at the cashier's window at any time prior to the filing of the study card, and it especially urged that the students keep their receipts as no duplicates will be issued.

All freshmen and sophomore men and all special men students in their first two years of residence work must get the signature of the military commandant, even though they are not to take military instruction.

Fees other than the incidental fee that is, laboratory, locker and other fees, must be paid at the comptroller's office between the fifth and fourteenth day after the study card has been filed. A latter payment involves the payment of a late payment fee of $1.00. Failure to pay within 35 days automatically suspends the student from the University.

Credentials Wanted Early

New students registering at the university should be sure that their credentials have been sent to the registrar's office in ample time so that there need not be any delay in obtaining their card of admission. "It sometimes happens," said Mr. Spencer, "that a student comes to the university thinking that his credentials had been sent in when either through some misunderstanding on the part of the student or the high school, nothing has been done."

It is absolutely necessary that the signature of all the instructors be obtained before turning in the study card. All laboratory fees should also be filled in.

Women Must Get Dean's Signature.
All women must get the signature of the dean of women.

After all other signatures are obtained, return to your major professor, make out a duplicate study card for his file, have him look over your card and see that it is correct, and have him sign it. The major professor in ever case must be the last one to sign the card.

Service men whose application for state aid have been accepted need not present any receipts, but file study card at window 12.

Oregon Will Play Harvard Eleven

First news of Oregon's selection was received in Eugene about 2 o'clock this afternoon by both the Associated Press and the United Press wires.

Formal Invitation Received.
These were generally accepted as authentic, but all doubt was laid to rest when President Campbell received the wire from the Pasadena authorities bringing the formal invitation.

Press dispatches saying that Harvard had accepted the Pasadena invitation to represent the East were received earlier in the afternoon. Harvard's favorable reply comes after its previous rescinding of their regular acceptance following intervention by the U. S. Fuel administration which thought it impossible to secure a car for the Cambridge men to make the transcontinental trip in because of the fuel shortage in the east. It is thought that the alleviation of the coal situation throughout the east and middle west brought the fuel administration's decision to withdraw their objections, thus allowing Harvard to come West if they wanted.

One of the Biggest Games.

Without question this will be one of the largest football games ever staged in the United States. Oregon's selection to meet the famed Harvard eleven comes after a most successful season for the Lemon-Yellow team. The selection is a popular one, as Oregon's record for the season has left no doubt in the minds of the Pacific Coast critics that it has the most logical eleven to represent the west. The vim with which the Oregon eleven already has started practice leaves no doubt but their sincerity of purpose and determination to uphold the name and reputation of the West which the Oregon eleven established in 1916 when the Lemon-Yellow gridsters won the intercollegiate title of the United States by defeating the Pennsylvania state team.

FIJI QUINTET BEATS FRIENDLY HALL FIVE

the latter part and neither side played as consistent a game as at the outset.

Vincent Jacobberger was easily the star of the game. Houston and Knudsen also showed up to a good advantage on the floor for the Fijis, while Stone and Martin strongly supported when most needed by Baker and Knighten, played their usual game for the Friendly Hall five. In the second period, Davis was substituted for Wagner on the Friendly team.

By virtue of the S. A. E.'s elimination from the finals on Tuesday evening, when they were defeated by a score of 12 to 2, by the Fijis, the game last night was played for the finals honors in the league.

The line-up:
Fijis (6) Friendly Hall (4)
Knudsen (2) C (2) Stone
LaRoche F Baker
V. Jacobberger (4) F Wagner
Houston G (2) Martin
Bain G Knighten
Referee, Shy Huntington.
