

SOCIETY

BY MARY ELLEN BAILEY

In accordance with the rule that there shall be no social functions during the week immediately preceding examinations, university folk have not entertained to any great extent the past week. Dean Elizabeth Fox urged that all students should forego any personal engagements for the week-end. She also asked that each man and woman of the university would carefully observe the new legislation regulating social affairs that was enacted by the social affairs committee, composed of President P. L. Campbell, ex-officio, Dean Straub, chairman, Miss Mary Perkins, Dean Fox, Professor W. F. G. Thacher, Professor Peter Crockatt, Don Newbury, Stanford Anderson, Era Godfrey, and Dorothy Duniway.

A wedding of much interest to university folk was that of Miss Genevieve Dickey, '18, of Eugene, to Carl Nelson, '19, of Chicago, Illinois, solemnized at the Gamma Phi Beta house Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The bride, whose gown was of white chiffon over satin, carried a shower bouquet of white bride's roses. She was accompanied by Miss Martha Tinker, who carried Ophelia roses and orchids. Jack Montague acted as best man.

The bridal party entered the spacious living rooms to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Margaret Kerns, and were married 'neath a bower of lavender and orchid chrysanthemums, the Reverend A. M. Spangler officiating. Preceding the ceremony Miss Melba Williams sang "At Dawning," accompanied by Miss Blanche Wickland and Curtiss Peterson sang "Passing By." After the ceremony a reception was held, the guests dancing until six in the evening.

Mr. Nelson is a member of Beta Theta Pi, Friars, and Order of the O. Mrs. Nelson of Gamma Phi Beta. The couple will make their home at Salem.

Miss Gretchen Wheeler, ex-'21, of Eugene, has announced her marriage to Virgil Parker of Albany, Tuesday, December 16, at high noon, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary Wheeler, on Fourteenth avenue, East. Reverend Andrew Fish will read the Unitarian wedding ceremony, which will be marked by utmost simplicity. Miss Pauline Wheeler will accompany her sister, and Carlton Spencer will be best man. Preceding the ceremony, Lois Muir will sing "At Dawning," accompanied by Patty French, who will also play the Lohengrin wedding march.

The bridal couple, after a week's honeymoon in Portland, will make their home in Albany, where Mr. Parker is an employe of the Southern Pacific Railway Company.

The engagement of Eileen Tompkins, of Portland, to Kenneth Hall, of Salem, was announced at the Gamma Phi Beta house last Thursday at luncheon. Miss Tompkins is a sophomore in the university, is a member of Gamma Phi Beta, Tre Nu, Kwana, a pledge of the Zeta Kappa Psi, and is on the Y. W. C. A. cabinet. Mr. Hall the son of Robert T. Hall, of Portland, was graduated from Yale in 1910, later studying Scotland. Returning from two years in the service overseas, he became connected with the state highway at Salem.

The wedding will be an event of the fall months.

Adah McMurfhey, of Eugene, announced her engagement to Walter Anspoker, of Riddle, Wednesday morning at breakfast at the Alpha Phi house. Miss McMurfhey is a senior in the university, a member of Mask Buskin, and president of the Women's Glee Club. Mr. Anspoker was graduated from the university in 1919 and was a member of To-Ko-Lo and Beta Theta Pi.

The date for the wedding has not been announced.

The student council of the university had luncheon at Hendricks hall, Thursday noon with Mrs. Geo. T. Gerlinger, of Portland. The table was decorated with Christmas greens and holly. Covers were laid for President P. L. Campbell, Mrs. George Gerlinger, Dean Elizabeth Fox, Stanford Anderson, Era Godfrey, Dorothy Duniway, Adelaide Lake, Ella Rawlings, Louise Davis, Curtiss Peterson, Elmo Madden, Lindsay McArthur, Leith Abbott, John Houston, Eddie Durno, Harry Jamieson, and Carl Newbury.

Men of Sigma Chi were hosts at a "sister" dinner last Sunday at the chapter home. The guests were Miss Mae Ballock, Margaret Beattie, Doris Dezendorf, Annette Leonard, Laura Rand, Dorothy McGuire, Lucille Parsons, Ethel McGilchrist, Lucille McCorkle, Clara Wheelhouse, and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn McCreadie.

M. O. Evans, the claim adjuster for the Portland stockyards, and Dr. Forest Grief, also of Portland, were dinner guests at the Sigma Nu fraternity Thursday.

Beta Theta Pi entertained last Sunday with a noon dinner for Alpha Delta, local fraternity. The guests were Mrs. Lucy Perkins, Rita Ridings, Naomi Robbins, Florence Fasel, Leota Rogers, Lela Stone, and Beatrice Crewdson.

Honoring Miss Genevieve Dickey, a bride of the week, Miss Martha Tinker was hostess for a breakfast at the Osburn hotel Friday morning at ten o'clock. The breakfast was served in the tea room, the decorations carrying out the color scheme of pink and white. Ophelia roses formed the centerpiece for the table. The guests invited for the occasion were Mrs. Hamilton Wier, Leta Kiddle, Eileen Tompkins, Nell Warwick, Mrs. Mary Gillette Ruth, of Berkeley, California, Melba Williams and Genevieve Dickey.

Mrs. Park R. Kolbe, of Akron, Ohio, grand president of Kappa Kapp Gamma, is expected on the campus Sunday morning to visit the local chapter. Mrs. Kolbe will remain in Eugene until Monday evening and will go from here to the University of Washington.

Mrs. Hamilton Wier, housemother of Gamma Phi Beta, was hostess for a Sunday evening dinner at the Osburn hotel for the engaged girls of the university of that fraternity and the fiancées. The guests were Eileen Tompkins, Marjorie Kay, Bula Smith, Dorothy Dixon, Genevieve Dickey, Kenneth Hall, Hollis Huntington, Harold White, Willard Hollenbeck, and Carl Nelson.

Honoring Mrs. Park R. Kolbe, grand president of Kappa Kappa Gamma, the local chapter of the fraternity will have as its guest for dinner Sunday, Mrs. Kolbe, Professor and Mrs. E. E. DeCou, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. L. Chambers, Dean and Mrs. Eric W. Allen, Professor and Mrs. John Bovard and President and Mrs. P. L. Campbell.

Sigma Chi, doughnut basketball champions last year, entertained the members of Phi Gamma Delta, who comprise the victorious team this year, at luncheon Thursday noon. The men on the winning team are Carl Knudson, Vincent Jacobberger, George LaRoche, Lyle Bain and John Houston.

Dinner guests at the Kappa Alpha Theta house Wednesday night were Reba Macklin, Era Godfrey, Helen Houghton, Doris Dezendorf, Maurine Elrod, and Lucille Elrod.

Elmer Spencer, of San Francisco, brother of Carlton Spencer, registrar of the university, has been on the campus the past week, visiting at the Delta Tau Delta house.

Edward Bently, of Portland, a former student of the university and a member of Sigma Nu fraternity, has been on the campus the past week visiting friends.

Robert Atkinson, a member of the Delta Tau Delta fraternity, and president of the sophomore class in 1915, is visiting on the campus and was a dinner guest of Beta Theta Pi Thursday evening.

Miss Blanche Wilson, ex-'21, of Portland, is visiting at the Gamma Phi Beta house.

Sigma Delta Phis were hostesses at an informal dinner Tuesday evening. The guests were Clem Cameron, Helen Whitaker, Nell Warwick and Laurel Canning.

Housemothers of the women's national fraternities met with Dean Fox and the presidents of the houses Thursday evening at the home of Gamma Phi Beta fraternity.

On Thursday night Dean Elizabeth Fox and Mrs. Bishop were dinner guests at the Kappa Alpha Theta house.

Graft Alleged at Columbia.

The Columbia Spectator has been publishing a blacklist of the dormitory rooms and fraternity houses who have been using their advantageous locations as a means of viewing the football games without having to pay the usual admission price.

Chi Omega luncheon guests last Sunday evening were Rodney Smith, Hobert Belnap, Hugh Latham, John Gavin, George King, Matt. Duffy, Lionel Trommlitz, John Gamble and Wilbur Carl.

Underclassmen of Delta Delta Delta were hostesses to their upperclassmen and to nineteen men of Delta Tau Delta, Saturday afternoon, December 6, at a matinee dance.

Mrs. George T. Gerlinger, of the board of regents of the university, was a dinner guest of Kappa Kappa Gamma Thursday evening, a luncheon guest of Delta Gamma Friday noon, and a dinner guest of Hendricks hall Friday evening.

Subscribe for the Emerald.

Before You Go
Look Us Over

Cards, Calendars
Books, Stationery
and things

Schwarzschild's
Book Store

In Spite of the Weather You Have to Eat

Why spend time cooking, this weather
It is much safer to stop in at the TABLE SUPPLY COMPANY and get the food from our delicatessen department

We Invite Inspection our kitchen PURE and WHITE

The Table Supply Company

Wishes the University of Oregon and Friends a Merry Christmas

Do Your Christmas Shopping at LUCKEY'S

Many of you will be leaving Eugene for your homes, so take advantage of the opportunity to select your gifts from our wonderful stock.

Jewelry is the most lasting gift, it is the cheapest gift to buy because prices have advanced less in Jewelry than in any other line, most of the slight advances were very recent and this enables us to offer you many price values.

Particular attention is called to our fine line of Elgin and Waltham bracelet & watches.

Luckey's Jewelry Store

"Engraving Free"