

OREGON DEBATERS WILL ARGUE WITH O. A. C. TOMORROW

Affirmative Team Stays Here;
Negative Men Meet Reed
In Portland

IMMIGRATION IS THE TOPIC

Contest Will Start at 8 O'Clock in Guild Hall — Is First of Series

The Oregon varsity debate team will meet the Oregon Agricultural College team in the first varsity debate of the year tomorrow evening. The contest, which is scheduled to start promptly at eight o'clock in Guild hall, is one of a triangular series composed of the University of Oregon, Oregon Agricultural College and Reed College. The question to be debated is, "Resolved, That the principles of the Chinese exclusion act should be applied to all immigration into the United States for a period of not less than five years." The Oregon affirmative, composed of Kenneth Armstrong and Elmer Pendell, will meet the O. A. C. negative, composed of Paul Emmett and T. Landis, in Guild hall, while the Oregon negative will journey to Portland and meet the Reed College affirmative. Remy Cox and Ernest Crockatt will uphold the Oregon negative and Herbert Swett and Lewis Jones, the Reed affirmative. Oregon alternates will be Carlton Savage and Ernest Nail.

The judges selected for the contest in Guild hall are: C. L. Trawin, pastor of the Methodist church of McMinnville, G. Everett Baker of Portland, and R. C. Pennington, president of Pacific University. Either Professor P. C. Crockatt or Dr. J. H. Gilbert will act as chairman. Twenty minutes will be allowed for main speeches and five minutes for rebuttal.

Prof. R. W. Prescott, Oregon coach, expressing his opinion on the coming contests, said that this was the first time that the teams had been so evenly balanced. He further said, "It is a matter of college loyalty that the debaters have the full support of the students Friday night. We must have our intellectual life evidenced and show the people of the state that we are right on the job."

This is the first time in the history of the school that Oregon has participated in a triangular debate with Reed College. The students of Reed have always taken great pride in the debating ability of their teams, according to Prof. Prescott, and the Oregon-Reed contest is being looked forward to with no little interest.

Abe Rosenberg has been appointed to act as publicity manager for the debate. He urges that the fraternities and sororities cooperate with him in putting the debate before the attention of the students.

There are two places on the University team still open for the International Debates, composing Oregon, Idaho and British Columbia. Tryouts for these positions will take place at 4 p. m., January 16, in the Administration building. The subject will be, "The open shop vs. the closed shop". Tryouts for oratory will take place the following Saturday.

ALUMNA HOPES FOR HUMOROUS MAGAZINE

ERMA ZIMMERMAN SMYTHE
SEES CORNELL "WIDOW"
OFFICE

An appeal for a humorous magazine based upon the principles of the Lemon Punch which was started as a supplement to the Emerald last term and which will be a feature of this Saturday's issue, comes from Mrs. Donald Smythe, formerly Erma Zimmerman, '19. She was a member of the Emerald staff last year and also held a reportorial position on the Eugene Morning Register.

"I am sure Oregon could put out a real Wild West of a magazine," says Mrs. Smythe, basing her claims upon the success of a similar publication of Cornell University, at Ithaca, New York, where she now lives. The city is about the same size as Eugene.

- IN COLLEGE THIS TERM

Dow ("Varsity") Wilson

Dow, "Varsity" Wilson, captain of the 1918 football team and a star member of last spring's track team returned to the University with the beginning of this term. He spent last term on his father's ranch at Rufus, Oregon.

Dow was a member of the varsity football, basketball and track teams in 1917 but last spring injured his heart in the O. A. C.-Oregon meet held during Junior Week-end. His heart injury kept him from college and varsity football this past season. He played right end.

His heart is in better condition now, he reports, but he will be unable to participate in track this spring.
