In accordance with the University custom of "open house" at the opening of each term, the women's fraternities have bidden the men's organizations to come to their homes tonight for an informal evening. Unlike the "open house" of other years, the men were invited to come in small groups to make calls between 7 and 10. Dancing will be allowed until 9 o'clock.

The Eugene armory was the scene of one of the largest informal dances of the year Thursday afternoon, when University folk gathered to celebrate the near victory at Pasadena. An elaborate program of impromptu speeches was planned but due to the modesty of the football players and coaches the afternoon was spent in dancing.

The S-Maralda club, local fraternity, held its first house dance on the evening of Saturday, January 10, in the rooms of the Country Club, south of Eugene. The hall was artistically decorated with streamers of the club colors, green and white, which were draped from a large reproduction of the club pin in the center of the ceiling.

Programs were made for fourteen dances and two extras. The lights were dimmed for the feature dance, making the reproduction of the club pin on the ceiling stand out in bold relief. The emerald in the center of the pin glowed brightly and shed a soft light over the dancers. During the dance, punch was served, and at the close of the evening, light refreshments. Patrons and patronesses were Dean and Mrs. Walter D. Morton, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Edmonds, and Dean Elizabeth Fox.

The guests of the evening were Mabel Smith, Louise Davis, Alice Wherity, Frances McGill, Blanche Anderson, Thelma Hoefflein, Alice Thurston, Märvel Skeels, Martha Rice, Audrey Roberts, Marjorie Holcomb, Eva Rice, Elsie Hildebrand, Zoe Allen, Naomi Wilson, Frances Erickson, Beulah Wright, Grace Young, Mildred Taylor, Doris Pettinger, Ellen McVeigh, George Gochnour, Vincent Jacobberger, Guy Armantrout, Robert Boetticher, Don Davis, Carl Savage, Norris Jones, Harold Manell, Leland Lapham, Merle Blake, and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Brent.

Mu Phi Epsilon, women's national fraternity, held initiation today for Alice Golke, Laura Rand, Helen Watt, Genevieve Clancy, Florence Tenneson, Beatrice Clark, Laura Peshiner, Margaret Conklin, Alberta Potter, Mrs. William Moll Case, Mrs. Whitton and Mrs. Larremore. Following the initiation ceremony a banquet was served in the tea room of the Osburn hotel. Mrs. P. L. Campbell and Mrs. A. C. Dixon were the only guests of the fraternity. Tonight Mu Phi is entertaining with an informal dancing party in the dining room of the Osburn. Patrons and patronesses are President and Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Dixon, Mrs. Anna Beck, Dean Elizabeth Fox and Dr. Landsbury.

Coming as a complete surprise to their many friends was the marriage of Velma Moser to Alfred Adams, Monday evening, January 5. The young couple slipped away on the midnight train south after the ceremony was pronounced at the home of Mrs. Cora Davis, a personal friend of the bride. Mrs. Adams, a freshman at the University, is a member of the organization that is petitioning Delta Zeta. Mr. Adams, a sophomore in the law school, is a Phi Delta Theta. The bride and groom were both from Silverton. They will make their home in California and will attend the University of Southern California.

A wedding of much interest to many University students was held last Monday in McMinnville, when Miss Grace Stoll, of Seattle, became the bride of Burnice Nelson, at the residence of Doctor and Mrs. J. Hall Nelson. The house was beautifully decorated with Christmas greens, palms and ferns, as was the altar, with cathedral candles, from which white satin ribbons formed an aisle for the bridal party. The service was read by Judge George H. Burnett, a great uncle of the bridegroom. Mrs. Burnett played the wedding march. The bride was lovely in an ivory satin robe with a tulle veil held in place with a coronet of old lace. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses and orchids. Miss Wanda Nelson was maid of honor while Leslie Schwering was best man. At the reception Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Stoll, Doctor and Mrs. J. Hall Nelson, Mrs. George H. Burnett of Salem, and Mrs. Roy E. Nelson of Portland received the bridal party. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Stoll, recently of Seattle. The bridegroom is a University of Oregon man and a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity. He returned last May from overseas. After a wedding trip to the Sound cities the couple will make their home in McMinnville.

On Christmas day Frances Shoemaker was married to Carl F. Gregg of Amity, Oregon, at the home of her mother, Mrs. J. W. Shoemaker. The bride, attired in a simple white Georgette dress, was attended by her niece, Marjorie Watson of Spokane. Rev. T. G. Wilson performed the ceremony in the presence of only a few members of both families. Mrs. Gregg was a graduate of the University in the class of 1917 and is a member of Pi Beta Phi, Scroll and Script, and Kwama. She was very active on the campus, holding positions on the Emerald staff and Y. W. C. A. cabinet. Mr. Gregg attended the University with the class of 1918 and is a Sigma Chi. Immediately after the wedding the bride and groom left for a short trip, after which they will make their home in Marshfield.

During the Christmas vacation Beatrice Yoran, Claire Yoran, Elma Ludford and Erma Ludford were hostesses for a dance at the Delta Gamma house, honoring Jean Steel of Medford. Fir boughs and mistletoe with a color note of red formed Christmas decorations throughout the rooms. Punch was served by Claire Whitton. Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Yoran and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ludford chaperoned the affair. Guests for the evening were Jean Steel, Helen Day, Aulis Anderson, Aurora Potter, Irene Stewart, Geneva Stebno, Esther Schiemeding, Marion Ady, Gertrude Livermore, Lilah McMurphy, Esther Mickelson, Estelle Johnson, Violet Robinson, Helene Kuykendall, Gertrude Whitton, Margaret Carter, Alice Young, Lois Hall, Alberta Potter, Marguerite Whitton, Lora Hempy, Trilla Hempy, Madge Calkins, Gladys Anderson, Marjorie Edsall, Mr. and Mrs. Claire Pennington, John Bryson, Willis Kays, Warren Kays, Joe Williams, Wilbur Hullin, Kenneth Cockerline, George McMurfhey, Edgar Gurney, Richard Dixon, Prentice Gross, Cedric Wallace, Fred Buck, Rex Lloyd, Howard Godfrey, Paul Shafer, Earl Ludford, Frank Hill, Karl Kellogg, Odine Mickelson, William Purdy, Claire Keeney, Lewis Bond, Eugene Kelly, Bruce Yergen, Walter Hempy, Raymond Hempy, Frank Carter, Edward Mickelson, James Pearson, Clifton Harlow and Berrian Dunn.

Mrs. Stewart, a graduate of the University of Oregon and a member of Delta Delta Delta, has been teaching near Eugene since completing her college work. Mr. Stewart is northwest representative of the Splitdorf Electric company and is well known in Portland and Seattle. After the holidays Mr. and Mrs. Stewart motored to Seattle, where they will make their home.

Invitations have been received here for the wedding of Miss Lee Fortmiller, a former student at the University, to Clarence Wiles, on January 15, at the home of the parents of the bride-elect, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fortmiller, of Albany. Mrs. F. G. Stickles was a luncheon hostess December 31 at the Osburn hotel for the Eugene Alumnae members of Chi Omega.
