

SOCIETY

BY MARY ELLEN BAILEY

One of the gayest week-ends of the winter term was the one just passed. There have been fraternity and sorority initiations, matinee and informal evening dances and the football men have been feted and have entertained. This afternoon witnessed three informal matinee dances and a tea at the Pi Beta Phi house for their province president, Mrs. Burton Beck, of Portland. Sigma Nu and Delta Gamma used the leap year as the basis for their dances and the girls of Sigma Delta Phi were charming hostesses for an informal party. Hendricks hall was the scene of a large informal dance last evening. Kappa Kappa Gamma with a moonlight garden festival and Alpha Phi with the Osburn transformed into a Japanese garden with cherry blossoms and lanterns, are sponsoring dances tonight.

A low ceiling interwoven with black and yellow art paper, from which butterflies of many colors poised close over the heads of the dancers, formed the artistic decorations for the Hendricks hall dance last evening. Through the lattice work ceiling shaded lights blinked and twinkled in a truly festive manner.

The patrons and patronesses were Dean Elizabeth Fox, Miss Gertrude Talbot, Mrs. Edna P. Datson, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher, Miss Martha Findahl, and Professor E. S. Bates. The guests were Helen Manning, Marjorie Kay, Margaret Grey, Alma Ditto, Doris Pittenger, Edwin Kuck, Hollis Huntington, Horace Foulkes, Leith Abbott, Kenneth Smith, Edwin Fraser, Albert Woertendyke, Tom Wyatt, Carl Liebe, Harry Ellis, Homer Mornhinweg, Floyd Shields, Merrill Ely, Roy Hendricks, O. One of the most charming dances of the week-end is being sponsored tonight by Beta Omega of Kappa Kappa Gamma. Sprays of green ivy entwined in a lattice effect from an imitation ceiling which is brightened by numerous vari-colored balloons suspended on silver cords. The chapter rooms are lighted by silver moons which smile as merrymakers pass beneath. Bowls of pussy willows in which black owls perch are scattered about the rooms carrying out the moonlight garden festival effect. Patrons for the evening are Mrs. Grace Ellis, Dean Elizabeth Fox, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Schroff, and Mrs. T. J. Geisler of Portland. The guest list includes Evangeline Foster, Helen Flint, Marian Nicolai, Norma Medler, Robert Case, Lyman Patton, Dudley Day, Lee Bown, Kenneth Comstock, Aubrey Furry, Carl Miller, Arthur Ritter, Lee Wilson, Sanford Gehr, Lay Carlisle, Lindsay McArthur, Morris Morgan, Floyd Bowles, Nelson English, Lucy Bonney, William Steers, Wilbur Phillips, John Houston, Kerby Miller, Newton Crosfield, Frank Holmes, Wilbur Hostettler, Vernon Fudge, Sidney Burley, Allen Carson, Carl Knudsen, Elston Ireland, Claire Holdredge, Irving Smith, Luther Jensen, Hubert Darby, Hugh Latham, Matt Duffy, Harry Ellis, William Blackaby, Russell Myers, Kenneth Ireland, Ormand Hildebrand, Stanford Anderson, Paul Farrington, Roscoe Hemenway, Chris Wetle, and Robert Riggs.

The members of Alpha Phi have transformed the Osburn into a Japanese garden with cherry blossoms, lanterns and many colored parasols, for an informal dancing party tonight. The patrons and patronesses for this charming affair are Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Larremore, Miss Ida Barker, Miss Mary Perkins, Dean Elizabeth Fox, Mrs. Alton Hampton, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher, Dean and Mrs. John Straub, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert McMurfhey. The guests are Marian Lay of The Dalles, Nina Coules and Helen West of Portland, Edna Bushman, Lilah McMurfhey, Gladys Anderson, Trilla Hempy, Maxine Buren, Clara Haas, Edith Flora, Walter Ampoker, W. Beta Theta Pi held initiation this week for Ralph Smith, Lawrence Manerud, Hugh Clerin, Delbert Oberbauer, Pierre Meade, Owen Calloway, John Langley and Reed McKinney. Tonight the neophytes are being honored with a banquet at the Osburn hotel.

Theta Sigma Phi, women's national honorary journalism fraternity, met at the dinner hour at the Rainbow Tuesday. Members present were Mrs. Anna L. Beck, Louise Davis, Adelaide Lake, Mary Ellen Bailey, Helen Manning, Lyle Bryson and Dorothy Duniway.

Sunday the Gamma Phi Beta sorority entertained their brothers with a dinner. Those present were Francis Kern, Hugh Smith, Wallace Carson, Sanford Gehr, Albert Curry, Glenn Hyde, Kenneth Condon, Richard Dixon, Kenneth Hall, Willard Hollenbeck, Hollis Huntington, Herald White and Allen Carson.

David H. Nelson of Pendleton has been visiting his daughter, Helen Nelson, this week. Wednesday evening Mr. Nelson was host for a dinner dance at the Osburn honoring his daughter, inviting a group of her friends. On Thursday evening Mr. Nelson and Miss Nelson were dinner guests at the Kappa Sigma house.

Gamma Phi Beta held initiation today for Margaret Kern, Beatrice Barker, Zoe Allen, Edith Herron, Florence Hartman, Ruth Hopkins, Frances McGill, Frances McMillan, Violet Robinson and Gertrude Livermore. Following the ceremony the initiates were honored with a banquet at the chapter house.

Initiation will be held by Alpha Tau Omega tomorrow for Ernest Crockatt, Sidney Burley, Ralph Couch, Martin Folts, Rufus Dinwiddie, Elbert Curry, George Riggs, Vernon Fudge, Carl Vonderahe, Lee Bown, Frank Vonderahe and Wyman Williams. Following the ceremony a banquet will be held at the chapter house.

The Bachelordom club initiated George Guldager and Lester E. Wellington Saturday.

Mrs. Burton Beck, Portland, Province President of Pi Beta Phi, is visiting the local chapter this week and will remain until Monday. Following her stay here Mrs. Beck will go to Corvallis where she will spend a few days with the Oregon Beta chapter.

Miss Elizabeth Taylor of Los Angeles, who came to Eugene to instruct in the department of Romance languages at the University of Oregon, was a dinner guest of Hendricks hall Wednesday.

Sigma Chi is initiating Stacy Hendricks, Floyd Maxwell, William Poote, Raymond Vester, William Wilmot, Thomas Waters, Rutherford Brown, Frank Bosch, Cleo Jenkins, John Buchtorf, Austin Hazard and Clarence Grey.

E. W. Haffner, grand president of Phi Kappa Psi, and Dean Eric W. Allen were Saturday luncheon guests of the Owl club.

Red carnations combined with sprays of smilax formed the centerpiece for the Pi Beta Phi initiation banquet held in the grill room of the Hotel Osburn Friday evening. The fraternity colors were used in a scheme of wine and silver blue, carried out in silver candles in crystal candlesticks and silver blue tulle entwined with smilax. The initiates were Mildred Smith, Mildred Weeks,

Ruth Wheeler, Arbelyn Healy Marquerite Hammond, Marjorie Kruse, Ruth Diehl, Helen Clark, Lucile Garber, Priscilla Eakin, Rachel Parker, Eleanor Coleman and Dorothy Eakin.

Professor and Mrs. James H. Gilbert and daughter Madeline and Miss Antonette Shumway were Wednesday dinner guests of Delta Delta Delta.

Delta Delta Delta entertained Jack Booker, William Hostettler and George Weller of Corvallis at dinner Sunday.

Kenneth McHaley and Fenton Ford spent last week-end in Portland.

Frank Barrett of Albany was a luncheon guest of Chi Omega Wednesday.

Delta Gamma entertained this afternoon with an informal matinee dance. Sprays of ivy were used about the rooms for decorations. The affair was in the form of a leap year dance. Guests were Stanley Allen, E. F. Lucas, William Collins, Crecene Farris, Robert Cosgriff, John Elder, Holt Berni, Berrian Dunn, Kenneth McHaley, Mathew Duffy, Russell Myers, Ranie Burkhead, Raymond Lawrence, Chester Adams, Charles Huggins, Wilbur Hullin, Theron Northrup, Richard Lyons, Ray Mooers, Frank Carter, Albert Woertendyke, Joe Meagher, Conrad Wroth, John Alexander and Kelly Branstetter.

The undergrads of Sigma Delta Phi honored their four new pledges with an informal matinee dance Saturday. The decorations consisted of spring flowers and baskets of pussy willows. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Peter Crockatt, Wesley Shattuck, Huber Rambo, Jimmie Richardson, Homer Redford, Asa Eggleston, Paul Patterson, Tom Tove, Donald MacDonald, Frank Tschantz, Glen Campbell, George McFall, Stanley Shell, Remy Cox and Robert Burns.

The freshmen of the Sigma Nu house were hosts for a matinee dance Saturday afternoon. The affair was quite novel as it was a leap year dance and the leap year idea was carried out very well to the amusement of the guests. The guest list included Veda Patten, Stella Kingsley, Mildred Mumby, Barbara Shepard, Gladys Laru, Helen du Buy, Jessis Lewis, Jean Hyde, Lenore Cramm, Ruth Griffin, Alys Sutton, Leota Burt, Margaret Studor, Helen Gardiner, Mabel Smith, and Frances McMillan. The patrons and patronesses for the afternoon were Miss Rosaline Espinosa, Miss Martha Findahl, Mike Ross, Neil Morfit and Edward Troy.

A formal tea honoring Mrs. Burton Beck, province president of Pi Beta Phi, was held at the chapter house from 3 to 5 o'clock this afternoon. Cards were sent to 250 friends of the chapter. Mrs. Burton Beck, Mrs. F. W. Benson, Dean Elizabeth Fox, Mrs. P. L. Campbell and Nell Warwick were in the receiving line, while Mrs. W. P. Fell, Mrs. F. M. Carter, Mrs. R. C. Baird and Mrs. L. P. Carter poured during the afternoon.

Alpha Tau Omega honored their sisters with a dinner at their home Sunday. Guests of the house were Mrs. Anna Landsbury Beck, Besie Shell, Eunice Eggleston, Helen Whitaker, Gertrude Whitaker, Gertrude Whitton, Katherine Baker, Lois Barnett, Mary Packwood and Esther Mickleson.

Men of Phi Delta Theta were hosts for an informal dinner and evening at their home Thursday. Guests invited for the affair were Winona Dyer, Dorothy Wootton, Adelaide Lake, Dorothy Dixon, Frances McMillan, Lillian Pierson, Marjorie Kay, Gladys Smith, Lexie Strachan, Jean Strachan, Mary Ellen Bailey and Miss Gertrude Talbot.

"The Master of Ballantrae" is the sixth story of Robert Louis Stevenson's to be dramatized.
