Upperclassmen Roam "Unsnapped"

Oregana Staff Grows Gray Hairs

Many juniors and seniors are still "unsnappped" according to Si Simola, member of the Oregana staff. "Unless these bashful students turn out before Thursday, January 29," said Simola, "the year book will be forced to get along some how without them." This means, for seniors as well as juniors, that unless they take advantage of this last opportunity, they will not appear in the Oregana, for the senior snaps this year are to be used with the studio photographs and only with them.

Arrangements have been made to have these snaps taken at Barclay's kodak shop on Willamette and Tenth streets. Following is a list of juniors and seniors who must report to the kodak shop before next Thursday. "It will only take a minute to be snapped," said Simola "and thus you will be aiding to make the book a more complete record of the year."

CHAMPIONSHIP CLASH TO BE HELD THURSDAY

FINAL OF GIRLS' BASKETBALL SERIES TO BE WOMEN'S BUILDING BENEFIT

The final game of the women's interclass basketball series will be played next Thursday evening at 7:15 in the men's gymnasium. The teams that will play at that time will not be decided upon till after the preliminary games have all been played off. Each class plays every other class and the two teams winning the most games will be the final contestants for the Hayward cup.

The preliminary games played this afternoon were the sophomore vs. freshmen and juniors vs. seniors.

Tomorrow the freshmen-senior game and the junior-sophomore game will be played at 5 p.m. in the women's outdoor gymnasium. These games are fast and snappy and are well worth the hour spent in watching them.
