HARD LUCK AND POOR
PASSING LOSE FOR VARSITY

ter, retiring Latham and substituting Durno in Lind's place at forward. The new combination started good but continual hard luck in shooting at the hoop, broke up many pretty plays. Jamieson made a big spurt at this period of the half and by a series of lucky shots brought his team into the lead for the home stretch, the score—22 to 19 tells the rest of the story.

The basket shooting together with the floorwork of Jamieson and the close guarding by Cook and Nicholson were the big features in the work of the visitors. Manerud broke into a varsity game last night for the first time, taking Durno's place at forward, it being Coach Huntington's plan to save Durno for Saturday night's contest. Chapman played his usual game at guard and Latham worked good in the center position. The team showed the result of the gruelling game with W. S. C. on Thursday night and the game last night was a great deal slower than the Thursday night's game.

CENTRAL CHURCH STUDY
1010 Pearl St., Eugene

February 7th, 1920.

Students of the U. of O., Greetings:
The Churches in Eugene stand open for the students to enter in and expose to refreshment and cultivation that side of their nature that will "outlast the stars."

Central Church is no exception to this rule. Our morning hour comes at 10:30. I shall speak on "The Happy People": who they are and what they do. At 11:40 I shall be glad to talk over with the men in my study "The Blind Man's Creed" as found in John 5. At the same time Mrs. Case will meet the women at the Manse at 1040 Pearl. Then at 5 o'clock our Vesper hour will be made notable through a message from Miss Hughes of New York on "The Girl in To-day's Crisis." Every young woman, every man with a sister, will want to hear her. This will be followed by our Young People's Hour, with social and refreshment features.

Cordially,

Mrs. Moll Case
