

LEAP YEAR DANCE TO BE AT ARMORY FRIDAY, FEB'Y 27

Date Set For Women's League Affair; Committees Are Appointed

The committee in charge of the leap year dance which the Women's league is planning to give at the armory Friday evening, February 27, has been appointed by Louise Davis, president of the league, and preparations for making the dance one of the events in a college lifetime are progressing rapidly.

The proceeds of the dance which will be the first leap year affair which the women as a whole have ever undertaken on the campus will be used for adding to the fund for gold footballs for the team. Every girl on the campus is expected to invite one man to the dance and take complete charge of his program.

The following girls are in charge of the various committees:

Tickets, Nancy Fields; food, Jeanette Moss; advertising, Eleanor Spall; decorations, Elva Bagley; music, Mabel Weller; patrons and patronesses, Ruth Flegel.

Girls from every house on the campus have been appointed to take charge of selling tickets in their houses and they are urged to meet with Nancy Fields at 5 o'clock Friday afternoon in Dr. Clark's room in the library.

The girls are: Chi Omega, Margaret Smith; Alpha Phi, Dorothy Reed; Pi Beta Phi, Elsie Lawrence; Gamma Phi Beta, Helen Clark; Kappa Kappa Gamma, Phebe Gage; Delta Delta Delta, Marianne Dunham; Sigma Delta Phi, Helen Gronholm; Kappa Alpha Theta, Dorothy Manville; Alpha Delta, Lelah Stone; Delta Gamma, Katherine Baker; Delta Psi, Gladys Everett; Hendricks hall, Frances Habersham, Ruth Engstrom, Naomi Wilson, Genevieve Briggs, Bernice Alstock and Pearl Pyritz; Thacher Annex, Jean McEachern; Chambers Annex, Georgina Perkins; town girls, Jessie Todd, Ruth Lane, and Florence Furuset.

ed with having rounded up over 50 subscribers each.

"The success of the campaign depends upon everyone's willingness to subscribe," said George Beggs, generalissimo of the drive. Numbers of students on the campus have promised to subscribe but have failed to make their initial payment of $1.50.

It will be a difficult thing, according to the committee, to secure Oreganas after the drive is over, although subscriptions will probably be accepted for another day or two. The purpose of the drive is to find out how many copies of the book will be needed, and this number, once ascertained, will not be over issued.

Oregana Only Available Record
The Oregana is the one official record of the school year available to the students. It will contain the records of all student activities. The staff this year promises a number of new features which will make the book one of the best that Oregon has ever issued.

The book is to cost $4.50 a copy. The present drive is to secure a first payment of $1.50. The remaining $3.00 will be paid upon the receipt of the book.

Every student who wants a copy of the book is urged by the committee to make the fact known now by the payment of the dollar and a half. Representatives from each house on the campus are canvassing their particular organization, while solicitors are stationed on the campus. A solicitor with a receipt book and "I Have Bought an Oregana" tag can be found at any hour in front of the library.

SCHOLARS CLUB NAMED

UNIVERSITY HONOR SOCIETY IS TITLE SELECTED

Ten Seniors and Five Juniors Will Be Chosen During Spring Term— Graduates Also Eligible

"University Honor Society" is the name chosen by the members of Phi Beta Kappa for their organization which is to include seniors and juniors having had the highest scholarship for their last three years and a limited number of former graduates who come up to the high standards of this society. All members of the new organization are working toward a chapter of Phi Beta Kappa.

The University records will be gone over and the selection of members made some time in April, according to Dr. R. C. Clark, president. The constitution, calls for not more than ten seniors and five juniors to be elected each year. These must be students in the schools which belong to the college of literature, science and the arts.

The annual meeting of the University Honor Society will be held during commencement week when the newly elected members will be initiated.

COMMITTEE GIVES FACTS

Investigation Leads to Statement Concerning Tom Murphy Affair

The faculty discipline committee has given out the following statement in regard to the case of Thomas Murphy, a freshman in the University, who figured in newspaper reports from Portland recently as being before the police court on certain charges.

"The committee has investigated the whole matter in Portland and has affidavits from police officers and others showing:

"That Mr. Murphy was not intoxicated; that he did not make the marks which insulted the woman who caused his arrest; that he was, however, fined for having liquor in his possession.

"A statement was presented from his commanding officer in the army stating that during his long period of service, which included many months overseas and participating in numerous engagements, he had an excellent record of conduct.

"A statement was also presented from the principal of his high school certifying to his good character.

"In view of the facts as above stated the committee permitted him to remain in the University but to be on probation during the rest of the year."
