By ESTHER FELL

The spring weather is beginning to show results in the many hikes and picnics which are now in vogue, and by matinee dances during the sunny afternoons. Mid-week affairs have consisted chiefly of exchange dinners among the fraternity houses. Theta Sigma Phi entertained a group of girls for an evening of literary enjoyment during the week also.

The more formal dances have had their share of time with the annual "Frosh Glee", the largest of the week-end. The army was decorated with great success with a huge life-like spider suspended from the ceiling, the web extending out toward the side walls, forming a canopy over the merry-makers. Tinsel on the side walls helped to carry out the unique web idea. Patrons and patronesses for the evening are President and Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Dean and Mrs. John Straub, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Dixon, Mrs. M. H. Jewett, Miss Gertrude Talbot, Mrs. O. F. Stafford, Captain and Mrs. R. C. Baird, Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Sawyer, Professor and Mrs. F. S. Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Gerlinger, Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Smith, Governor and Mrs. Ben W. Olcott, and Dean Elizabeth Fox.

Green ferns and moss in which were embedded crimson hearts chained together with red cards, formed the artistic St. Valentine's decorations at the Alpha Delta house Saturday afternoon when the girls of that sorority were hostesses for a charming dance. The guest list included John Houston, Stanford Anderson, Marvin Eby, Morgen Stayton, John Alexander, Herbert Decker, Virgil Porter, Mason Dillard, Joe Erickson, James Baker, Leo Jones, George Guldager, George Berg, Walter Conrad, Ivan Warner, Ivan McKinney, and Laura Teschner.

The engagement of Vera Tobey and James Standifer was announced Thursday evening at a dinner at the Sigma Delta Phi house. The table was decorated with pink valentines, streamers and Cecil Bruner roses. Cards bearing the names of the engaged couple marked places for Etta Tobey of Eugene and members of the sorority. Vera Tobey is a junior at the University and a member of Sigma Delta Phi. Mr. Standifer, whose home is in Eugene, is a member of the sophomore class at the University. The date for the wedding was not announced.

This afternoon members of Pi Beta Phi were hostesses for a very informal matinee dance, inviting John Hunt, Kenneth Smith, Fred Dodson, Floyd Maxwell, Dr. Ray Wheeler, Ross McKenna, Jack O'Brien, Harry Ellis, Rodney Smith, Lee Bown, Howard Cooper of O. A. C., Delbert Ober-teuffer, Robert Riggs, Jack Dundore, William Hostettler, Howard Kelly, Kenneth Lancefield, and Edward Twining.

The Gamma Phi Beta house was the scene of a merry matinee dance Saturday afternoon. The guests were Elmo Madden, Owen Calloway, Kelly Branstetter, Frank Hill, Lowell Stockman, Ray Clary, Conrad Roth, Claire Holdredge, Francis Kern, Edward Thompson, Aubrey Furry, Jack Newhall, and Arthur Kuhnhausen.

The men of Alpha Tau Omega were hosts to a group of college women for a very informal dance Saturday afternoon, February 7th. Mrs. Anna L. Beck and Mr. and Mrs. Madison Cooper of Wasco, were patrons and patronesses for the afternoon, and the guests included Lois Barnett, Emma Jane Garbade, Anna May Chipping, Eunice Eggle-son, Alice Evans, Jessie Lewis, Ha Nichols, Helen du Buy, Valiere Coffey, Emma Coolidge, Elinor Good-nough, Leota Rogers, Evelyn Fitz-gibbon, Madge Calkins, Marjorie Wells, and Mildred Apperson.

Additional guests were Mrs. Hampton, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher, Dean and Mrs. John Straub, and Miss Mary Perkins.

Members of Beta Theta Pi were hosts for their sisters for dinner Wednesday evening of this week. Those present were Agnes Brooks, Anna Grace Pallet, Evelyn Fitzgibbon, Louise Sheahan, Wanda Nelson, and Gladys Wright. Mrs. Gray of the Kappa Alpha Theta house was chaperon for the evening.

The sophomores of Alpha Phi entertained at the Hotel Osburn Friday evening. The table decorations were in keeping with Friday the thirteenth. The sophomore's guests were Wesley Frater, Forest Littlefield, Kenneth Smith, Ralph Smith, Jack O'Brien, Harrison Huggins, Virgil Cameron, Arthur Vandervert, and Mr. Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Chambers are entertaining the chapter members of Kappa Kappa Gamma this evening at dinner at The Anchorage Inn.

OLD PRINTS EXHIBITED

ART GALLERY HANGS ANCIENT TAPESTRY DESIGNS

Byzantine, Persian and Egyptian Works Among Those Shown

A unique collection of prints of old tapestries of Byzantine, Persian and Egyptian origin found in the old churches of Europe, in graves in Egypt and in the Berlin Art Museum are now on exhibit in the art gallery of the University Architecture building, having been obtained by Miss Helen Rhodes, instructor of design in the department, through the University library and the Portland library.

Twenty prints, some in greys and neutral colors, and others highly colored are among those sent here from Portland for the exhibit. They are exceptionally fine reproductions, according to Miss Rhodes, having religious subjects in most every case. Some have fabulous winged animals and other birds of rare types in the designs, while still others are interwoven with gold and silver in wonderful designs. Many are in old blues, old rose and old gold tints. The fourteen prints furnished by the University library are all in blacks and whites, but have very interesting designs.

This exhibit will be up for ten days or two weeks and anyone interested is invited to examine them.

Curricula Board Official Visits
Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Brand, of Roseburg, visited the campus Friday. Mr. Brand, who is a graduate of Oberlin college, is a member of the state board of higher cullicula, which has charge of the assignment of courses as between the Oregon institutions of higher learning. He is the owner of a large farm near Roseburg.
