

SOCIETY

By Esther Fell

In spite of the discouraging weather of the past week, picnics and outdoor events have maintained their places in the list of social events, followed up by dances on many occasions. On Wednesday, open house day was the cause of a number of the town folk visiting the campus, to whom the University played host.

Hendricks Hall was the scene of one of the most attractive teas of the year this afternoon when they held a reception and dance for the benefit of the Women's building. Mrs. William M. Case, Mrs. L. E. Bean, Mrs. P. L. Campbell and Dean Elizabeth Fox presided at the tea table, assisted by Louise Davis, Ella Rawlings, Ruth Engstrom, Helen Noyes, Winona Lambert and Irene Wakefield, who were dressed as old-fashioned colonial maids.

Of interest to college folk is the announcement of the engagement of Lora Evelyn Smith, Pi Beta Phi, and Robert Case, Delta Tau Delta. The engagement was made known at a supper party at the Pi Beta Phi house Thursday evening, when Miss Smith's fraternity sisters were handed cards bearing the names of both Miss Smith and Mr. Case. At the same time the news was announced at the Delta Tau Delta house.

Both Miss Smith and Mr. Case are seniors in college, and both are prominent on the campus. Miss Smith is a member of Mask and Buskin, dramatic honor society, and is an assistant in the psychology department. Mr. Case is a member of Cross Roads, Sigma Delta Chi, Sigma Upsilon and has been prominent in journalistic work.

Miss Smith's home is in Redmond, and Mr. Case's is Portland. No date has been set for the wedding.

One of the most attractive dances of the week-end was the formal dance given by Chi Omega fraternity at the Osburn last evening. California aca-cia, daffodils and blue tulle were charmingly combined in carrying out a color scheme of blue and yellow. Wicker baskets full of the bright blossoms and tied with tulle greeted the guests on every hand throughout the rooms. Patrons and patronesses were President and Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Dean Elizabeth Fox, Dean and Mrs. John Straub, Professor and Mrs. Schreff, Dr. E. H. Sawyer and Mrs. Sawyer, Miss Julia Burgess and Mrs. N. S. Pearson. Guests of the fraternity from out of town were Catherine Wilcox, Agnes Kennedy and Elizabeth Hulme of Portland, Martha Johnson and Alice Garretson of Cottage Grove, Lillian Manerud, Aline Equals and Frances Hinkle of Eugene. Additional guests for the evening were Mr. Albert Applegate, Mr. Bater, Mr. O. F. Dillon, George King, Clive Humphrey, Edward Ball of Corvallis, Everett Pixley, Este Farley, Sam Lehman, Merle Moore, Ogdan Johnson, Austin Hazard, John Flinn, Arthur Larsen, Thomas Strachan, Roscoe Hemenway, Carl Weigel, Stanford Anderson, Paul Farrington, Frank Barrett of Albany, Arnold Koepke, Harvey Madden, Roger Plummer, Martin Howard, Kenneth Bartlett, Hubert Smith, Arthur Base, William Ralston, George Sensenich, Arthur Ritter, Fred Lorenz, William Smith, Vincent Jacobberger, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rosenberg and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn McCready.

The underclassmen of Alpha Phi are entertaining with a dinner dance at their chapter house this evening. The decorations for the table are in keeping with Washington's birthday, with the proverbial hatchet and cherry tree. The underclassmen and their guests are Marjorie Wells, Kattie May Stockton, Dorothy Reed, Ila Nichöls, Gladys Wright, Gladys Lane, Christine Forbes, Helen Carson, Marian Gillis, Caroline McPherson, Lucille Hutton, Aulis Anderson, Chloe Thompson, Jessie Thompson, Glyde Shuebel, Lucile Elrod, Maurine Elrod, Hal Simpson, Barney Garrett, Harrison Huggins, Virgil Cameron, James Whitaker, Arthur Kuhnhausen, Ivan McKinney, Wayne DuComb, Richard Martin, Richard Sunderleaf, Delbert Oberteuffer, Wesley Frater, Jesse Digman, and Hubert Jacobberger.

Sophomores of Kappa Kappa Gamma sponsored a dinner dance Friday evening when they invited a number of college men to be their guests. The hostesses were Emme Jane Garbade, Alice Evans, Fern Murphy, Hilma Fox, Evelyn Fitzgibbons, Anna May Chipping, Helen Nicolai, Doris Pittenger, Helen Huntington, Hazel Young, Florence Tenneson, Mary Evans, Phoebe Gage, Mildred Apperson, Eleanor Spall and Lois Barnett. The guests included Sanford Gehr, Nelson English, Reed McKinney, John Finneran, Lee Wilson, Basil Williams, James Benedict, Lawrence Manerud, Sterling Patterson, John Langley, Paul Patterson, Hugh Latham, Matthew Duffy, Sidney Burleigh, Jay Butler and Ormand Hildebrand.

One of the largest social gatherings of the week-end was the reception held by the members of Bachelordon club Friday. In the receiving line were Dr. and Mrs. Bovard, President and Mrs. Campbell, Dr. and Mrs. Straub, Dr. and Mrs. Dale, Dr. and Mrs. Miller, Helen McFaul of Corvallis, Geraldine Leever, Olive MacDonald, Mildred Oleson and Genevive Betts, all from the University of Washington. The guest list comprised all the members of the faculty, representative members from each organization and numerous out of town guests.

The underclassmen of the Beta Theta Pi house were hosts for an informal dinner dance at the "Anchorage Inn" Thursday evening. The guests were Louise Sheahan, Mauna Loa Fallis, Dorothy Donlon, Anne Shea, Arbelyn Healy, Ulda Basler, Florence Hartigan, Wanda Nelson, Marcile Carlock, Lenore Cram, Lillian Manerud, Doris Pittenger, Frances Hinkle and Thelma Stanton.

Kwama members sponsored an especially attractive dance at the Hotel Osburn last Saturday evening. Masses of greenery and boughs decked the walls of the palm room, where orange-shaded lights cast a soft glow over the dancers. Patron and patronesses for the evening were Professor and Mrs. Frederick S. Dunn and Dean Elizabeth Fox. The hostesses and their guests included Katherine Baker, Pauline Coad, Ila Nichols, Dorothy Reed, Eleanor Coleman, Helen Nelson, Phoebe Gage, Mildred Apperson, Helen Nicolai, Marian Dunham, Helen Clarke, Marvel Skeels, Eleanor Spall, Ruth Flegal, Leta Kiddle, Florence Riddle, Reba Macklin, Era Godfrey, Madeline Slotboom, Gretchen Coltem, Lois Macy, Nell Warwick, Jeannette Moss, Margaret Hamblin, Irva Smith, Dorothea Boynton, Vivian Strong, Brownell Fraser, Robert Cosgriff, Carl Knudson, Virgil Cameron, Harrison Huggins, Leon Culbertson, Sanford Gehr, Paul Smith, Frank Durbin, Kenneth Comstock, William Collins, Henry Koepke, Howard Staub, Jay Butler, Don Davis, George Hopkins, Rollin Woodruff, Harry Jamieson, Walter Banks, George Black, Verner Ruedy, Walter Hempy, Eugene Kely, James Smith, Frank Holmes, Sidney Burleigh, Harry Pearson, Ted Ball and Elston Ireland.

Of interest to University people will be the announcement of the marriage of Peggy Boylan and John Bull on Wednesday, February 18, at the home of the bride in Pendleton, Oregon. Mrs. Bull was a member of the class of '19, and of Gamma Phi Beta; Mr. Bull, ex-'17, was a Kappa Sigma.

Chi Omega members entertained their week-end guests today in the form of an all-day picnic at Coburg bridge. Mrs. Rearson was chaperon for the occasion. The guests were Aline Equals, Alice Garretson, Lillian Manerud, Martha Johnson, Elizabeth Hulme, Agnes Kennedy, Catherine Wilcox, Nelson English, Ward McKinney, James King, Jack Benefiel, William Ralston, Sam Lehman, Curtis Phillips, Harry Hollister, Floyd Bowles and Ralph Smith.

Pussy willows and daffodils formed an attractive background for a tea given by Delta Delta Delta last Saturday in honor of Mrs. George Fitch and Miss Louise Fitch. During the afternoon tea was served to a host of University and town folk who were guests of the occasion. In the receiving line were Pauline Wheeler, Mrs.

Flora Owen, Mrs. Fitch and Miss Fitch.

Torch and Shield is responsible for an attractive dance at the Eagle hall this evening when the active members, the newly elected members and the alumni of the club are hosts to a number of the college folk.

Alpha Phi gave a birthday dinner honoring their housemother, Mrs. Barker, on Sunday, February 15, at their chapter home. The table decorations were in lavender and white, Mrs. Barker receiving a corsage of lavender sweet peas and orchids. Only Mrs. Barker and the members of the chapter were present.

Kappa Alpha Theta upperclassmen entertained with a dinner dance at The Anchorage Friday night. Mrs. Grey acted as cheperon.

Friendly hall entertained representatives of Gamma Phi Beta and Kappa Kappa Gamma Friday night with an informal dinner dance.
