Members of Oregon Alpha chapter of Pi Beta are hostesses for a dance given at the Hotel Osburn this evening. Quantities of daffodils brighten the rooms and greeted the dancers from small baskets from all parts of the rooms. Only the side lights were used and these have been disguised into huge paper daffodils. Masses of greens form a background for the blossoms and wind around the pillars in the rooms. A unique idea carried out in the supper was the use of tiny white flower pots with a yellow daffodil standing up in the ice cream, giving the impression of potted plants.

Patrons and patronesses are Dean Elizabeth Fox, President and Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Mrs. Wilson Jewett, Mrs. F. W. Benson, Mrs. Edna P. Datson, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Fell, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Coleman, and Mrs. F. M. Carter. Out of town guests include Virginia Pearson, Gloria Collinson and Gladys Collinson of Portland, Miriam Swartz, Maud McCoy, Gretchen Brown, Amelia Babcock and Emma Snook of Salem, Beth Hill and Thelma Dykes of Corvallis, Kathleen Kem of Cottage Grove, Louise Clausen of Salem, Beulah Keagy, Ellen McVeigh, Betty Shafer, Jane Campbell and Lillian Pearson of Eugene. Other guests were Claire Holdridge, Francis Jacobberger, Ray Kinney, Vincen Jacobberger, John Alexander, Delbert Oberteuffer, William Hostetler, Clifford Manerud, Rollin Woodruff, Fred Main, Robert Case, Eddie Durno, Victor Chambers, John Gamble, Rami Burkhead, Wilbur Carl, Earl Leslie, Mathew Duffey, Arthur Rosebraugh, James Pearson, Charles Lamb, Wilbur Hoyt, Floyd Maxwell, Claire Kenney, Auston Hazard, Don Newbury, Holt Berni, Si Starr, Keith Leslie, Arthur Tuck, Kenneth Bartlett, Tom Delzell, Walter Cofoid, Herbert Darby, Howard Kelly, James King, Eugene Kelly, Lynde Smith, Ray Wheeler, Chester Adams, Ralph Couch, Melvin Solve, Howard Cooper, Bryant DeBar, Ernest Nail, Harry Smith, Selman Gassoway, Wayne Hunt, Frank Carter, Miles McKee, William Purdy, Remy Cox, Howard Staub, Spencer Collins, Alfred Krohn, Berrian Dunn, Henry Judd, Lyle Bartholmew, Sherman Feiss, James Say, Lindsay McArthur, Dr. Cole, Arnel Butler, Ivan Huston and Mr. and Mrs. Ables.

The Owl Club were sponsors for an informal matinee dance this afternoon at the Anchorage on the race. Dean and Mrs. Eric Allen acted as chaperones for the afternoon. The guests were Ella Rawlings, Margaret Jackson, Ruth Flegal, Dorothy Cash, Lucile Branstetter, Ruth Tuck, Mary Ellen Bailey, Mildred Weeks, Isabelle McArthur, Anabel Mackenzie, Ruth Lane, Blanche Anderson, Naomi Wilson, Helen Watt, Marian Briggs, Doris Sengstaken, Helen Whitaker, Madge Calkins, Laurel Canning, Dymon Povey, Clara Thompson, Jacob Jacobson, and Everett Rawlings, of Corvallis.

Sigma Nu was host for a formal dinner dance Friday evening in the spacious rooms of the Osburn. Ivy wound the many pillars in the rooms and hung from the walls, while primroses and lilies brightened the tables. The patrons and patronesses for the evening were Miss Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Luke Goodrich and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Paine. The guests included Ruth Engstrom, Alta Knox, Helen Gardiner, Mildred Apperson, Ruth Griffin, Arbelyn Healy, Wanda Nelson, Jeanette Hogan, Edna Bushman, Theodora Stoppenbach, Valiere Coffey, Ealine Todd, Helen Hooper, Elizabeth Hadley, Gladys Mitchell, Patricia Ball, Dorothy Dixon, Marcie Carlock, Mabel Smith, Madge Calkins, Mildred Smith, Jessie Lewis, Mildred Weeks, Barbara Sheppard, Lenore Cram, Genevieve Haven, Helene Kuykendall, Bernice Craig, Winona Dyer, Marjorie Delzell, Alice Sutton, Carolinne Cannon and Christine Forbes. Additional guests were Curtiss Phillips and Don Goodrich.

The upperclassmen of Sigma Delta Phi were hostesses for an informal afternoon dance Saturday at the local chapter house. Their guests included Stan Shell, Howard Kely, Bobby Burns, Max Shafer, Donald Standifer, Roy Veatch, Raymond Vester, Melcomb Hawke, Carl Phetteplace, Mr. Hargraves and Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Crockatt.

Daffodils and ferns formed an attractive background for an informal matinee dance at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house when the members of that fraternity were hostesses to Horton Beeman, Miles McKee, Ivan Phipps, William Russis, Raymond

Porter, William Martin, Ralph Hoerber, Dan Lucas, James Baker, Remy Cox, Horace Westerfield, Carlton Savage, Elmer Pendell, Raymond Jones, Ezra Boyer, Evon Anedron, Berl Jones, Ralph McClaslin, Wiley Knighton and Delmar Palmer.

The Gamma Phi Beta house this evening is the scene of a very charming formal dance. The interior of the house has been transformed into a dreamy woodland of greenery and spring flowers where numerous gaily colored Jonteel birds flit around before a background of mellow half moons and lend a novel effect to the decorations. Patrons and patronesses for the dance are Mrs. O. F. Stafford Dr. and Mrs. Orville Waller, Dr. and Mrs. F. M. Day, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Livermore, Dean Elizabeth Fox. The guests for the evening were Herald White, Kenneth Smith, Arvin Burnett, Henry Foster, David Baird, Arthur Kuhnhausen, Kelly Branstetter, Richard Martin, Everett Pixley, Merle Blake, Jack Dundore, Francis Beller, Rollin Andre, Stanford Anderson, Robert Morrison, Aubrey Furry, Robert Earl, Lyle Bain, C. C. Clark, Lawrence Woodworth, Francis Kern, William Poteet, Elmo Madden, Conrad Roth, George King, Wesley Sattuck, Willard Hollenbeck, Frank Hill, Richard Dixon, Kenneth Cockerline, Karl Kellogg, Wilbur Phillips, Hubert Smith, Ogden Johnson, Chas. Huggins, Kenneth Condon, George Royer, Maurice Mann, Floyd Bowles, Carl Newbury, Martin Howard and Wallace Carson.

A very simple but impressive wedding was an event of Friday noon at the Gamma Phi Beta house when Eileen Tomkins of Cascade Locks, and Kenneth S. Hall of Portland, were married.

The bridal party entered the living room to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, where the service was read 'neath a bower of daffodils and ivy, by Reverend William Moll Case.

The bride was gowned in a traveling suit of seal brown with a small brown hat to match. She wore a corsage of violets, Ophelia roses and maidenhair fern. There were no attendants and only the relatives and immediate friends of the bride and groom were present. Following the ceremony, Mrs. Hamilton Wier was hostess to a charming wedding breakfast during which Genevieve Clancy sang several delightful selections. The couple left early in the afternoon on their honeymoon.

Mrs. Hall is a member of the class of '21, of the Gamma Phi Beta sorority, Kwama, Tre Nu, and Zeta Kappa Psi. Mr. Hall is a graduate of Yale in the class of 1910 and is a member of the Highway Commission stationed at Salem, where they will make their home.

Tre Nu held initiation for its new members last Sunday at the Bungalow. The banquet table was beautifully decorated in pink and gray with a large basket of ferns in the center. The guests of the organization in addition to the initiates were Dean Elizabeth Fox, Miss Mary Perkins, Miss Mary Watson, Mrs. A.R. Sweetser and Miss Urith Dailey. The initiates were Lyle Bryson, Louise Davis, Nell Southworth, Ruth Engstrom, Helen Flint, Eva Hanson and Jessie Todd.

Term and Semester Plan Discussed in February Issue of School and Society Periodical

Professor Edgar E. DeCou, of the mathematics department of the University, has had an article on "The Three Term versus the Two Semester Plan, and the Summer Session," published in the February 28 issue of the School and Society magazine.

Two questionnaires have been sent out, according to Professor DeCou in the article, one in December of 1918 and one in December, 1919. These were to determine the trend of the larger universities in regard to the two systems, the term and the semester plans.

A year ago, he said, two-thirds of the universities used the three term plan. They are about half and half now, he said, as most of the eastern schools have gone back to the systems used before the war. According to Professor DeCou's article, most of the eastern schools now use the two semester plan, the western schools the three-term plan, and the middle state universities are about evenly divided on the two.

ROY J. WHITE OPENS FIVE ROOM MUSIC STUDIO IN CITY

A course of musical instruction that is a little "different" has made its appearance in Eugene, and judging by the success with which it has started off, it will be very popular. Roy J. White, manager of the Waterman Piano School of Oregon, is opening a five room studio at 917 Willamette street, over the Western Union Telegraph office. Mr. White has been in Eugene for two months, and already has a class of 52 students, but it was not until within the past few days that he could secure a permanent location. The studio, when completed, promises to be most attractive. There will be five music rooms with sound proof partitions.

Mr. White plans to open studios in a number of Oregon's larger towns, but will make Eugene his headquarters. The studios will be under his competent staff of instructors.

For the past five years Mr. White has been with the Waterman Piano School of Los Angeles and for the last year of his connection with the school he assisted Mr. Waterman in preparing text book of music for the students of the Waterman method.

The method used by Mr. White is proving very popular with his students in Eugene. So carefully has it been worked out that much of the wearisome repetition and monotony of the usual course of study mapped out for the piano student has been dispensed with, with the result that every lesson, from the very first one, is full of interest.—Adv.
