OVER-POPULAR MAN ENGAGED TO THREE GIRLS AT SAME TIME

"Company" Presents Trials of Hero With Too Many Heroines

DATES IN ORDER FOR PLAY

Heather of Guild Hall Highlands Will Be in Full Bloom on Opening Night

Imagine one man engaged to three girls at one time, and then bring the trio face to face with each other. Trouble is sure to result, all kinds of trouble, but if you don't happen to be one of the affianced women or the over popular man himself you are in for a good time. "Warning enough for any man," so "The Company" of dramatic students claim and they are the ones who ought to know since next Friday and Saturday nights they will present the problem in all its many sidedness under the title of "Engaged."

It is hard enough to handle all of those engaged women at one time, so the "company" believes, without being hampered with an accent thick enough to suit the most exacting "Bagpiper." The book of tongue twisting words, according to the Scottish version, has been committed to memory and the result promises to be hilarious. Mrs. Duglad Campbell, of Eugene, has assisted the cast in the intricacies of the dialect.

Much time and effort is to be expended upon the stage effects, and Carl Miller, who is in charge, claims he will have the hether in full bloom by Friday night. The costumes are under the care of Adah McMurry, Valerie Coffey will see that Guild hall is supplied with ushers.

According to Dean Fox dates are in order for the evening if assurance is warranted that examination preparations are not neglected. Seats can be secured Friday and Saturday at the Guild hall box office, or by phoning 142.

Dean Fox to Attend Conference

Dean Elizabeth Fox will leave the campus March 29 to attend the conference of the Deans of Women of the Pacific northwest, of which she is secretary. The conference, which will be held at Spokane, Washington, is in connection with the convention of the Inland Empire Teachers Association which is also held there.

Minus Men; Girls to Stage Party April Frolic Date Set For Ninth

Already the timeworn costumes of both ancient and modern freakish design are being pulled down from the shelves and the dust and moth balls shaken out. Freshmen who have never been to an April Frolic are in the market for Hula Hula outfits or a good barrel to wear on the night of April 9.

Yea, verily; once more the gym will wear the modest canvas curtains and the doors will be locked with a chain. Reserved seats on Friendly hall are at a premium. A number of the men are beginning to shave every day in the hope of sneaking past the eagle eye of Vivian Chandler, who has been appointed "bouncer". The floor manager is going to wear that same little scream she wore last year, she says. "It's had a lot of hard wear, but I think it will stand one more evening", she confided.

The party is going to be so changed that even the veteran frolickers won't be able to recognize it. Bleachers will be erected in the middle of the floor on the top shelf of which will sit the honorable judges of the stunts. For the best costumes two prizes are to be awarded, $5 and $2.50,

This is an association of several thousand teachers from the western states which meets every year at Spokane. Various educational problems will be discussed and there will probably be one or two notable speakers from the east on the program.

Campbell, yesterday sent acceptance. The ceremonies will take place at Berkeley March 23, the Charter Day. It will be the 52nd anniversary of the University's foundation.

Dr. Barrows has long been concerned with educational policies on the Pacific coast and deeply interested in international relations. This occasion is one that draws into closer unity of union the institutions of higher learning in the west.

TRACK OUTLOOK IS AS BAD AS THIS WEATHER SAYS CAPTAIN FOSTER

Distance Men Scarce; Plenty of Material on Campus; Few Are Out

- TRACK SCHEDULE FOR 1920
 - April 24—University of Washington Relays at Seattle.
 - May 8—Oregon vs. Washington dual meet at Seattle.
 - May 15—Pacific Coast Conference meet at Palo Alto.
 - May 22—O.A.C. vs. Oregon dual meet at Corvallis.
 - May 29—Northwest Conference meet at Pullman.

The first track meet, April 24, is over a month away, and the track team is showing few encouraging developments. The Oregon men will not be seen in action in Eugene this season. The turnout of men has been very poor, but it is probably due to the rainy weather.

Distance men seem to be very scarce as there are only about three out, while there should be at least twelve, according to "Hank" Foster. Bill Hayward is dissatisfied with the number of men that are turning out. There are many men on the campus that would make good track men if they would come out and work. Work is one of the main requisites of a cinder athlete, is the opinion of athletic authorities.

The rainy weather has hindered the training of the men because it is almost impossible to get in good condition in this kind of weather. Several of the old reliables have been out every night, keeping in as good shape as possible.

It was hoped by the athletic department that the men would be influenced to report on the field through the fraternities, but as yet the roll has not perceptibly increased.

Whitman track prospects look very bright since the arrival of George Lawrence, from Stanford, as track coach. Lawrence intends to turn out a crack team. Dement, who starred on the Missionary basketball team, is reported as a champion hurdler.

Coach H. W. Hargiss, O. A. C. athletic director, has offered his resignation. This action has been expected for some time. It is probable that Hargiss will coach the O. A. C. track squad this season.

SHELDON BACK ON CAMPUS

Education Dean Speaks Before Principals Club

Dr. H. D. Sheldon, dean of the school of education, has just returned from a trip to Jacksonville, where he spoke before the Rogue River Principals' club. Dr. Sheldon reports that a number of Jackson county teachers, including a number of principals, are coming to the summer school at the University this year. In this connection he also states that there is an unusual interest being shown in summer school this spring, a large number of inquiries having been received, many of them from Idaho.

Dr. Sheldon took occasion to ask concerning the sentiments toward the millage tax bill for the University and other educational institutions, and reports that business men as well as those interested directly in education feel that sentiment in that section is in favor of the bill. He said, however, that very little organization to forward the measure had been done there.

Midnight Relays Around Hendricks Follow Fire Alarm

It was a dark and rainy night. The midnight silence held sway over the sleeping girls, when suddenly a brazen blare was heard. It was a fire alarm at Hendricks hall last Saturday night.

When the girls discovered that it was only a fake alarm they started back to their couches of rest, but there was no rest for them. Outside some of the girls who had rushed out of the building, fell off the porch, others became entangled in the shrubbery. Excitement reigned everywhere—outside. Their companions inside had not missed them and were blissfully unaware of their sad plight. The rain fell in torrents; the night latch was on and the lodgers were keyless. Around the building they rushed, dodging the raindrops, splashing in the mud, and further disturbing the otherwise peaceful scenery of the hall grounds.

At last their frantic efforts to get in were heard, the doors were opened, and the dripping maidens were once more admitted to the shelter of the house. Fire alarms aren't what they seem, say the girls.

NEXT TUESDAY IS SET AS REGISTRATION DAY

INSTRUCTORS WILL ANNOUNCE WHETHER OR NOT CLASSES WILL BE HELD

Registration day for the spring term will be held on Tuesday, March 23, but it will be left optional with the instructors whether classes will be held that day or not. Students are advised to register on that day, said Registrar Carlton E. Spencer, but they must also go to their classes unless the instructor has announced that their classes will not meet.

This is a new departure from the usual custom according to the registrar, and has been made because some of the professors, need the extra time to round out the term courses.

Registration fees may be paid any time before the study cards are filed in the office, said Mr. Spencer. All students, except those who avail themselves of the pre-registration on March 23, must file their study cards within three days after they get them from their major professor. There is a fine of 50 cents a day for every day after that time, until the cards are handed in.

Students registering on March 23 will have until April 8 for the filing of their cards. After that date they will be overdue, and will be subject to the fine.

PHI DELTA PHI HEAD HERE

New Law Chapter Inspected by Coast President, Dr. Ray Barnett

Dr. Ray Barnett of Los Angeles, province president of the Pacific Coast provinces of Phi Delta Phi, law fraternity, is on the campus inspecting the Chase chapter, which has just been moved here. He is making a tour of the coast, visiting the six chapters in California, Oregon and Washington, and is looking after their welfare, giving advice and assistance.

Dr. Barnett's visit here is purely coincidental with the moving of the Chase chapter here, said Carlton E. Spencer, an alumni of the local chapter. It was largely through Dr. Barnett's efforts, said Mr. Spencer, that the national convention of Phi Delta Phi, scheduled to meet in December, 1921, will be held in Los Angeles. This will be the first time the national convention has met on the Pacific coast.

Beauty Contest at O. A. C.
A number of popularity and beauty contests are being conducted by the "Barometer" at Oregon Agricultural college.

VOTING STUDENTS URGED TO REGISTER SPRING VACATION

Three Ways to Insure Right For Non-Residents of County, May 21

PROCEDURE IS OUTLINED

Absentee Privileges for University People Told by R. S. Bryson, County Clerk

- Register with the county clerk or designated officer (if you do not reside at the county seat).
- Registration books close on April 20.
- Non-residents of Lane county should register in their home county and apply for a certificate allowing them to vote anywhere in Oregon.
- The Lane county clerk can register you for your home county.
- Students who become of age between April 20 and May 21 may register now by securing a qualifying card.
- Registration procedure is simple. Do not put it off. Do not neglect it. Make sure that all the voters in your family register.
- Spring vacation is the opportunity for the University student. Know the facts and use them.
- Work for Old Oregon

Three ways are open to the students of the University of Oregon who are non-residents of Lane County to make sure they have a vote coming on May 21, according to R. S. Bryson, county clerk of Lane county. The student may either be sworn in on the day of election by two freeholders, he may apply to the county clerk for the right of absentee voting, or he may register in his home county and get a certificate from his county clerk allowing him to vote in any precinct in any county in the state.

The last method Mr. Bryson says is much less complicated and more satisfactory than any of the others. It gives the voter transferring his registration the right to vote on state and district measures only, but this would include the right to vote on all measures referred to the people by the last legislature. Students who have not registered may do so on their return home during the

RABBI WISE UNABLE TO TALK TO ASSEMBLY

LANCASTER, HIGHWAY BUILDER, WILL SPEAK—GIRLS' GLEE CLUB TO SING

Word was just received from the Rabbi Jonah B. Wise, of Portland, who was scheduled to speak in assembly Thursday morning, that he would be unable to be here. It would be necessary to officiate at the funeral of one of the members of his congregation who had died he said. He stated his regret at his inability to be present and asked for the privilege of a later visit to the University.

Arrangements are being made by President P. L. Campbell to get for this hour Samuel C. Lancaster, the engineer who laid out the plans for the Columbia Highway in Oregon. He will speak thirty minutes, said Karl Onthank, on "Beautiful Highways," the remainder of the time to be devoted to final instructions and announcements for the April millage bill campaign.

All students are urgently asked to attend this assembly. The Girls' Glee club will furnish music.
