TAFT TO SPEAK IN EUGENE MAY 23

ONLY THREE STOPS SCHEDULED IN OREGON; VISIT TO CAM- PUS IS HOPED FOR

William Howard Taft, ex-president, will speak in Eugene on Friday night, May 28, at the Armory as the result of negotiations which were completed yesterday through the Ellison-White Company who are arranging dates for the speaker in this territory.

Mr. Taft's address will be on one of the present day topics of international interest, probably "Bolshevism and the Soviet" or "Present Day Aspects of the Peace Treaty," according to Karl Onthank, secretary to President Campbell, who made the announcement yesterday. The ex-president will arrive in the state from the north and speak in Portland and Salem.

It is possible, according to Mr. Onthank that Mr. Taft may be induced to speak on the campus during the two or three days of his stay in Eugene. Upon the occasion of his first trip to Oregon, about ten years ago, the former official spoke to the townspeople and University from the rear of his special train.

"We were only possible to get him," said Mr. Onthank, "after we had assured Ellison-White of the heartiest support of both University people and the citizens of Eugene. The University will, of course, aid in giving the speech publicity."

3 ORATORS TO COMPETE

FIRST ENTRIES IN FOR FAILING- BECKMAN PRIZES

Fred Coley, State Contest Winner; Ethel Wakefield, K. C. Hendricks Turn in Names

Fred Coley, Ethel Wakefield, and K. C. Hendricks have announced their candidacy for the Failing and Bekman oratorical contest.

Coley was the winner of the state oratorical contest over all of the colleges in the state in Forest Grove.

Mar. 12. Miss Wakefield is president of the Women's Forensic League, a member of the Hendricks Hall debating team which has won on the campus for the past two years, and part time instructor in public speaking in the Campus high school. K. C. Hendricks is active as a minister.

The Failing prize, not to exceed $150 is the income from a gift to the University of $25,000 by Hon. Henry Failing of Portland. It is awarded to the senior making the best original oration at the time of his or her graduation. This prize was won last year by Joseph D. Boyd.

The Bekman prize, not to exceed $100, is the income from a gift of $16,000 made to the University by Hon. C. C. Bekman of Jacksonville. It is awarded under the same conditions as the Failing prize, for the second best prize. Last year it was awarded to George Baney.

All applications must be filed with Professor R. W. Prescott before May, 21.

Honor System at Washington
The board of control at the University of Washington decided to adopt the honor system in the future.

COHAN'S MYSTERIOUS "THREE FACES EAST" AT EUGENE TUESDAY

Violet Hemming, Broadway Lead, to Appear in Cast, Seats Reserved by Mail

Spies, detectives, love, hate—mystery—the plotting and counterplotting of the most brilliant brains of two nations—"Three Faces East"—George M. Cohan's extraordinary offering will be at the Eugene theater next Tuesday.

Two 64-foot baggage cars are necessary for the equipment of the play, and Mr. McDonald stated positively that Violet Hemming, who played the lead for more than one year at the Cohan and Harris theater on Broadway, New York City, will be seen as "Helene" in this city. Five other members of the New York cast will support Miss Hemming. Seats may be reserved by mail, the management explained.—Adv.

E. F. LAWRENCE TO GO EAST

Dean of School of Architecture Will Attend Convention

Dean Ellis F. Lawrence, of the school of architecture, will leave for Washington, D. C. the latter part of the month to attend a convention of the Association of Collegiate Schools of Architecture, May 3 and 4, and also one of the American Institute of Architects, May 5, 6, and 7.

While in the east he will try to locate a successor to Louis C. Rosenberg, instructor in design, who is leaving the University at the end of the present college year to study in Europe. He will also visit a number of schools of architecture during his absence.

Dean Lawrence expects to be gone about three weeks on this trip and will return the latter part of May.
