

BENEFIEL STARTS JUNIOR WEEK-END ADVERTISING DRIVE

High School Students To Get Letters of Invitation To Big Celebration

SPECIAL RATES SOUGHT

Pushball Contest Revived; Program to Be Sent to Preppers All Over State.

Plans for advertising the largest and best Junior week-end since pre-war days are under way at present, with Jack Benefiel, general advertiser for the affair hard at work. According to Benefiel who is canvassing the entire state through the high school, Y. M. C. A.'s and various athletic clubs this is to be the very best Junior week-end ever staged at Oregon, an dit is his desire that all the University students cooperate with him by starting in today to write to all the preppers they know and extending to them an invitation to visit the campus at that time.

"Start now to write all the facts about Junior Week-end that you know to the preppers and urge them to come here," was Benefiel's message to the students this morning. "It is up to each and everyone of us to get as many high school students as possible from all over the state for the week-end."

Railway May Give Rates.

As an added inducement to the coming visitors Benefiel announced that Marion McClain, graduate manager, taking up the proposition of the fare-and-one-third rates for the week-end, with the Portland railway officials and also with the local agent here in Eugene. If it is possible to get this rate for the visitors it will save those coming from Portland $2.66.

By way of advertising the week-end throughout the state the advertiser is having posters constructed. These he states are to be on grey card-board with green letters extending an invitation to all preppers for the affair. On the lower part of the poster there will appear a cut from an old Oregana page with Junior week-end features pictured, such as track meet snaps, cone fete scenes and various other attractions photographed during previous week-ends. These posters will be sent to every high school in the state as well as to Y. M. C. A.'s and clubs where all students would be most apt to notice them.

Posters Due Soon.

Posters will also appear on this campus and in all the various houses on the campus and with the poster idea and the letters which each student will take upon himself to write to preppers all over the state, it is the hope of the advertiser to have the largest crowd in history and the best Junior week-end ever pulled off at Oregon, this year.

SWIMMING MEET MAY 8

Women to Compete with O. A. C. for First Time in Three Years.

May 8 is the day set for the swimming meet between the women of the Oregon Agricultural College, and the Women of the University of Oregon, according to Catharine Winslow, instructor in swimming. This is the first meet held between the women of the two colleges for three years.

The following is a list of girls from whom Miss Winslow will choose a team to represent Oregon: Caroline Cannon, Valiere Coffey, Wenona Dyer, Winifred Hopson, Hope MacKenzie, Frances Moore, Jeannette Moss, Helen Nelson, Helen Nicolai, Marian Nicolai, Margaret Russell.

The entries are as follows: Free style, one length, free style two lengths, breast stroke race, back stroke race, plunge for distance, dives, strokes for form, and relay.

Alleged Robbers Freed By Jury; Old Alibi Works

Well, the alleged hold-ups are not guilty. The moot court jury said so. It took only three minutes for the jury to decide the "fate" of the four suspects accused of holding up and robbing the Delta Gamma house last Friday evening. The defendants were Claire Holdridge, Meredith Beaver, Clayton Ingle, and Fred Packwood. So much interest had been stirred up in the case that the big lecture room in the education building was jammed, about forty or so being reporters.

The four had an alibi that got over with the jury, although the Delta Gammas were decidedly unconvinced. They were particularly hostile from the fact that a wrist watch by which several of them might have made 8 o'clocks was taken by the holdups. It was returned after the trial, however. E. R. Bryson, Eugene lawyer and lecturer on law in the University, acted as judge.

TENNIS MEN FINALLY GET CHANCE TO WORK

Brown, Smith and Westerman Leaders; Team May Go to Willamette May 7-8

With the clearing up of the weather the tennis courts have prepped for the team. These men will probably make up the team that will be sent to Salem in negotiations, which are now under way to meet Willamette university there, May 7 and 8 as a part of Willamette's junior week end program, are completed.

Manager Marion McClain said yesterday the executive committee of the associated student-body had voted not to send the team to the Pacific Coast tournament to be held at Palo Alto May 15. This action, he explained, was due to the depleted condition of the student body treasury.

Arrangements are open for dual meets with the University of Washington and O. A. C., but as yet neither of these meets is assured.

FRIENDLY HALL IS HOST

Mrs. Irene Gerlinger, a regent of the University, and Miss Helen Lillis, of San Francisco, who is visiting the former at her home in Portland, are guests at Hendricks Hall while spending a few days on the campus.

Mrs. Gerlinger is here attending a meeting of the board of regents of the University this afternoon. While here she will also probably make further plans for the raising of funds for the Women's building.

EASTERN SOPRANO CHOSEN FOR LEAD IN CAMPUS OPERA

Rose McGrew To Have Part In "Cavalleria Rusticana", Cast Selected

CHORUS OF 600 TO SING

Children, Directed by Mrs. Beck, to Assist in Both Productions in May Festival.

Plans and rehearsals for the approaching May Festival are being rapidly completed and the three-day festivity promises to be one of the biggest productions ever attempted by the University. Announcement has just been made of the engagement of Madam Rose McGrew, prima donna of international repute, to appear in the leading roles in the opera, "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "the Rose Maiden." Arrangements for the tenor part in these two productions have not yet been completed, but some singer of a high order will be secured.

The soloists for the opera "Cavalleria Rusticana" are:

- Santuzza, soprano.....
- Madame Rose McGrew
- Turridu, tenor..... Unselected
- Lola, soprano.....Martha Findahl
- Lucia, contralto.....Kate Chatburn
- Alfio, baritone.....Albert Lukken
- In the Rose Maiden the soloists are:
- Soprano.....Madame Rose McGrew
- Tenor..... Unselected
- Baritone..... Curtis Peterson

Honors Won Abroad.

Madame McGrew, the prima donna, and dramatic soprano selected for the leading roles in the festival, is an American endowed with outstanding talent, love for the opera, and determination. Upon the advice of many prominent musicians, she went abroad and shortly was engaged by many of the leading opera houses of Europe. She has had the distinction of having been called upon several occasions to sing before royalty, and has been a guest artist in practically all the leading opera houses in Europe, and being opposed to the militaristic attitude of Germany, early found it impossible to live with her husband. Upon threat of war she returned to America. She has been unable to bring her two children to America because of the strained relations between America and Germany. Madame McGrew is a woman of most dramatic and elemental temperament, proved by the fact that she has sung 72 distinct opera roles; any one role being in itself a great study.

She was specially selected by Richard Strauss to create a number of then roles in his later operas. Her further resourcefulness is shown by Informality Will be Keynote for Women's League Dance.

The Women's League dance to be held on the evening of May 7 at 8:15 in the Armory will be very informal according to the plans made by the girls at the league meeting on Thursday. Light afternoon dresses will be worn and the entire plan for the evening will be that of a general good time.

Girls who have not yet made their dates for the dance are asked to get busy as many of the dates made last term were broken by girls failing to return to school. Tickets for the affair may be obtained from Nancy Fields, or members of the organizations on the campus who sold tickets last term.

Louise Davis, president of the Women's League at the same meeting appointed a committee consisting of Inga Winters, chairman; Anamay Bronough, and Wanna McKinney to revise the present constitution which is not adequate to the needs of a growing organization.

MORE CANDIDATES OUT FOR STUDENT OFFICES

SARDOU PLAY TO BE PUT ON NEXT WEEK BY THE COMPANY

Brilliant French Comedy Will Be Offered, Barker Play Set For May 10-11

Charlotte Banfield and Fergus Reddie are to star in the play "Suzanne," a comedy based on "The Scrap of Paper," by the popular French dramatist Sardou, which is to be presented by The Company in Guild Hall, April 30 and May 1.

The play, a follow-up to the comedy "Engaged," that was recently presented by the company. The reception of this production was so good that it was decided to present another comedy.

The scene of the play is laid in France and the time is about the middle of the nineteenth century, or hoop skirt period. The plot revolves around a scrap of paper which compromises the Baroness de Glaciere.

Sardou is world renowned for his extreme cleverness, wittiness and the remarkable dramatic situations created in his plays. "The Scrap of Paper" is perhaps the best known of all of his plays. Such famous stars as Sarah Bernhart, Mrs. Kendall and Mary Anderson have made the play very popular.

The cast, that has been slightly revised, is as follows:

- Suzanne de Ruseville.....
- Miss Charlotte Banfield
- Prosper Garamont.....Fergus Reddie
- Louise de Glaciere.....Helen Case
- Mlle. Zenobie.....Loeta Rogers
- Mathilde.....Marian Gilstrap
- Mme. Dupont.....Vera Van Schoonho
- Mme. Dupont.....
- Vera Van Schoonhoven
- Pauline.....Helen Casey
- Baron de Glaciere.....Fred Dodson
- M. Brisemouche.....Claire Keeney
- Anatole.....Charles Miller
- Baptiste.....Stanley Eisman
- Francois.....George Stearns

The dates May 10 and 11 will have been secured by the dramatic department for the production of "Madras House" by Granville Barker.

SENIORS, FILE! IS PLEA

Application Cards Necessary to Those Who Want Sheepskins.

Seniors who do not file their application cards for commencement by May 1 may find that they cannot get their sheepskins in June, is the word from the Registrar's office. They will run the risk of not getting their diplomas until November, said Mrs. George Fitch, chief clerk in the office, as they will probably be ordered immediately after May 1.

All commencement committees, having the ordering of the caps and gowns, and the other commencement details to arrange for, also get their lists from this office and the failure of a few seniors to file their cards is holding up the whole plan of things, said Mrs. Fitch.

Y. M. C. A. PRESIDENT ANNOUNCES CABINET

FRIENDSHIP COUNCIL ALSO TO BE FORMED, TO INCREASE INTEREST.

The personnel of the Y. M. C. A. cabinet for the coming year was announced last night by Roy Veatch, president of the organization. Those appointed at this time will serve until the spring of 1921. The complete cabinet is as follows:

Officers; President, Roy Veatch; Vice-President, Joe Ingram; Secretary, Norton Winnard; Treasurer, Elston Ireland. Those on the cabinet and the departments they will have charge of are: Education, Kenneth Hendricks, William Coleman, Wesley Frater; Membership, Wilbur Carl; Meeting, Lyle Bartholomew; Student Volunteers, Randall Scott; Publicity, Bob Boettcher; Social, John Houston; Conference, Joe Ingram; Social service, Carlton Savage; New Students, Don Davis; Jim Lyman Fund, John Gamble; Church relations, Wayne Akers; House committee, Francis Wade, Exchange secretary, Raymond Osborne; Finance, Elston Ireland.

A friendship council or Y club is to be organized and will be composed of representatives from every house on the campus. This council will meet every other Thursday and will act as the legislative body of the Y. M. C. A. The cabinet will meet on alternate Thursdays, and the two groups will work in close relationship, according to the plan outlined by the president. This is a new idea in the composition of the campus Y, and the officers hope that it will bring about more interest in and a more efficient operation of the organization

REGENTS ELECTING DEAN

Dr. R. B. Dillehunt to be Made Head of Medical School.

A dean for the University of Oregon school of medicine, at Portland, will be elected at the board of regents' meeting this afternoon, to take the place of Dean K. A. J. MacKenzie, deceased. Dr. Richard B. D. Dillehunt, of the school of medicine, is acting dean at present, and his election is said to be certain.

A number of routine matters will also come up this afternoon, which is the first regular meeting of the board of regents since October 25 of last year.

A number of the regents are in Eugene already, and several others are expected in time for the session. Those who are here now are Mrs. Irene Gerlinger, A. C. Dixon, C. C. Colt, W. K. Newell, Charles H. Fisher, and L. L. Mult.

Y. M. C. A. HEAD TO RETURN

Marjorie Holaday Reports Cleveland Convention Successful.

Marjorie Holaday, president-elect of the campus Y. W. C. A. who is attending the national convention of that organization in Cleveland, Ohio, expects to return to the University about May 3, according to word just received from her by Lotta Holopeter.

Miss Holaday writes that she is having new experiences every day, and says, "I am learning so much, and the people here treat us royally."

Florence Riddle To Run For Senior Woman On Council; Helen Nelson Up For Junior Woman

(By The Deady Bug)

The announcement of chief interest to followers of the proposed candidates for student body elections is that of Donald Newbury as candidate for president of the associated students. Wilbur Carl and Nish Chapman have not decided whether they will run or not, but Newbury is in the race definitely.

He returned to the campus last fall after 26 months in the service. He was a lieutenant in field artillery for 10 months. He is a major in law, a member of student council, Delta Theta Phi law fraternity, Friars and To-Ko-Lo, and has served on many committees. He is perhaps best known to students at the present time as chairman of the student millage bill campaign.

Not many other new candidates are in the field, although there are several offices which are going begging at present. For some positions, the race promises to be a close one.

Three in Oregana Race

Editor of the Oregana seems at present to be one of the most desired positions, for three are in the race, the first time for several years that more than two have run for this office. This is also the first time for two years that a man has been in the running. The new candidate for this office is Wanna McKinney. She is a major in the school of journalism, has been on the Emerald staff two years and is at present acting assistant city editor. She was elected editor of Women's League last year. The other candidates previously announced for this office are Raymond (Curly) Lawrence and Velma Rupert (observe alphabetical order.)

The office of junior woman has two aspirants. The new woman out is Helen Nelson. Miss Nelson is secretary of the student body, but it is expected that some one will be ready to run early next week.

Other Officers Fall to Attract Vice-president of the student body still has only one aspirant, Jack Benefiel. No men have been mentioned for senior men on the council and three are to be elected.

Florence Riddle will run for senior woman on the student council. She is an active member of the Women's Athletic Association and has served on the Y. W. cabinet. She is a member of Kwama. Lois Macy is also a candidate. Two are to be chosen.

Two junior men are to be elected for the council, but Ned Twining is the only one in the race at present. No one has been mentioned so far for sophomore man on the council, for the three members of the athletic council, for executive council or yell leader.

Harry A. Smith is still the only man running for editor of the Emerald, Warren Kays the sole candidate for business manager of the Oregana and Ray Vester for business manager of the Emerald.

OREGON NINE LOSES 6-2

The University of Washington baseball team defeated the Oregon nine in the first game of the conference schedule at Seattle Friday by a score of 6 to 2.

A seventh inning rally in which the Northerners scored five runs was responsible for Oregon's defeat.
