

FROSH READY FOR CLASH WITH ROOK NINE TOMORROW

Pitching Staff Prepared To Baffle Aggies; Real Fracas Expected

The frosh baseball team is fit and primed for the mix with Aggie rooks in Eugene next Friday, and Dick Nelson, coach, is working the men every night.

The Eugene high school provided recreation for the frosh last night, and they simply ran away from the high schoolers. Sport followers are looking to the frosh for an excellent team this season.

The pitching staff seems to be one of the strongest departments of the team. Rollo Gray, former Jefferson high school mound artist, is showing up as a bright light.

Gray is using his head in good shape, and works the corners to advantage.

Pitchers are Plentiful.
"Duckie" Holmes has been working as pitcher, and will probably be one of the dependable. Holme's long suit is control.

Ford and Hewitt have also been doing considerable mound work. Ford has a slow ball that ought to fool the rooks. Hewitt shows good promise and ought to develop with experience.

The probable lineup for the Friday's clash follows:

Bruhn, first base; Base, second base; Jacobberger, shortstop; Svarverul, third base; Zimmerman, McEntee, Alexander, King, outfield; "Doc" Furry, Manerud, Shields, catchers. The lineup is only tentative and may be changed before the game.

Equipment is Needed.

The frosh team is fast developing into a fast, snappy machine, under the direction of Dick Nelson. Nelson has been working his new men overtime getting them into condition. The frosh are said to be handicapped by the lack of equipment. The partial batting order, that may be used Friday is: Alexander, Jacobberger, Base, McEntee, Svarverul, Bruhn, Zimmerman, catcher, pitcher.

Word has sifted in from Corvallis that the rooks have a formidable nine. Hughie McKenna, the diminutive Portland athlete, is said to be working wonders on the diamond. The rooks also have a pitcher that is supposed to hold the varsity team to no hits. The game with the frosh will not be a walk away for either nine, and should be a worth while contest.

Return Game Scheduled.

A return game will be played by the frosh in Corvallis on May 8, the O. A. C. Junior week-end. Manager McClain is trying to schedule a game with the winners of the Portland interscholastic league. Another trip will probably be arranged, but the team has not been announced.

PROFESSORS IN CAMPAIGN

Dr. Sheldon and H. R. Douglass Speak for Common School Tax.

Several university professors are taking part in the systematic campaign for the two mill tax for elementary education now being conducted, says Dr. H. D. Sheldon, chairman of the Lane County committee for promoting this bill. Dr. Sheldon recently spoke at Elmira. Professor H. R. Douglass, of the school of education faculty, spoke at Florence Saturday, and other lectures are scheduled.

"I would like for the University students to remember this bill is also of interest to them, especially to the seniors who expect to teach next year," said Dr. Sheldon, "and whenever advisable speak a good word for it."

Mrs. Alexander Thompson, the only woman member of the state legislature, spoke on the two mill tax in Eugene Friday evening and in Springfield Thursday.

PLANS FOR MU PHI CONVENTION ARE MADE

the convention will be held, and at this time the supreme officers of the fraternity will be elected. At the close of the afternoon session the guests will be taken to the campus where students in the department of physical education will give a play which will include a great deal of aesthetic dancing. The play will probably be "The Pled Piper of Hamlin," though this has not been definitely decided. Saturday evening, the final event of the convention will be the formal banquet for Mu Phi only, at which time the Supreme officers of the organization will be installed.

Campus People to Help.
Campus and towns people have already helped a great deal with the plans, according to Miss Marsters, and have volunteered to do their share in the entertainment of the guests.

"This is a great honor for the University of Oregon, and Eugene," said Miss Marsters, "and everyone has showed how they appreciate it by offering suggestions and their assistance in other ways." Most of the guests will probably leave for their homes sometime Sunday, though it is expected that a number will remain for part of the week to see the college in actual "running order."

CORN JUICE IS DENIED CAST OF SENIOR PLAY

MEN MUST GET REALISM FROM OTHER SOURCE IS EDICT; CHANGES ARE MADE.

The city "hoosgow" is doomed to its usual emptiness on the Friday night of the Senior play, during Junior Week-end, for the dogmatic demand of the cast (male members) of the senior play for "real corn juice" has been refused. A low condition of the treasury of the class is hinted as the reason for the refusal of Jack Dundore, the much harassed manager.

"Realism!" demand the men, "give us the atmosphere and the play will be a success." But Dundore is of the opinion that cold tea or pink lemonade will suffice, and that the proper exhilaration can be obtained from these.

Strikes seem to be the popular things, and on the campus may be envisioned by an actor's strike in the near future. The anti-prohibitionists may compromise, though, on grape punch, is the opinion of the manager.

"The Man on the Box," the senior play to be presented the Friday night of Junior week-end, May 14, is one of the cleverest of the modern light comedies. It is not only a delightful comedy but contains several of the leading campus actors in difficult roles. Several changes have been made in the cast. "Stuffer" Dresser is to take the part of Perre, while Sprague Carter will replace Curtiss Peterson. Mamie Radabaugh has been added to the list in the role of Cura, and also Bryon Foster will be William, the stable boy.

CARL AND SAVAGE UP FOR STUDENT PRESIDENT

member of the cross-country track team last fall. Three men are to be chosen for this office. The others announced are Leith Abbott and George Hopkins.

Four Out for Senior Woman.

Mary Moore is the fourth woman to be announced as candidate for senior woman on the student council, two of whom are to be elected. She is retiring treasurer of the Y. W. C. A., served as a member of the Y. W. cabinet for two years, has played on the class basketball teams and is a member of Tre-Nu. The other women have been announced are Wanda Brown, Lois Macy and Florence Riddle.

This completes the list of new candidates announced today, but it is expected that more will be in the running by Saturday, with nominations only four days away at this time.

Lyle Bryson is still opposed for secretary of the student body. Others who are running unopposed at the present time are Warren Kays for business manager of the Oregona, Raymond Vester for business manager of the Emerald, Jack Benefiel for vice-president of the student body, and Ned Twining for junior man on the council.

Two women are in the race for junior owman on the council, Helen Nelson and Eleanor Spall. One is to be elected. Ernest Crockatt and Harry A. Smith are candidates for editor of the Emerald. No men have been mentioned so far for members of the athletic council or for sophomore man on the council.

"HUCKLEBERRY FINN" TO BE GIVEN MAY 17 BY DRAMATIC CLASS

Vern Fudge to Play Lead in Mark Twain's Story of Boyhood

The date for the presentation of "Huckleberry Finn," Mark Twain's famous tale of rural childhood, has now been definitely set. It will be presented by Prof. A. Fergus Reddie's class in dramatic interpretation on the evening of May 17, in Guild hall.

The lead of "Huck" Finn, the well-known little outlaw, will be played by Vern Fudge. The dramatic class has been working on the play since the winter term and the action is promised to be of rapid fire style, filled with many humorous situations. The opportunity for character portrayal afforded in the play is great and is handled by the respective players in a style that promises to make it remembered for some time after its presentation.

The cast of characters is as follows:

- Piny ..... Doris Pittinger

"BASE HOSPITAL 46" HERE

Original Officers Graduated From U. of O. Medical School

A book entitled "Base Hospital 46" has been received at the University library from Dr. Robert C. Yenney, of Portland, Oregon, formerly Lieut. Col. M. C. and commanding officer of the hospital unit. The original officers of this base hospital were teachers and graduates of the medical department of the University. A number of the enlisted personnel were in attendance at the University before entering the service. Dr. Yenney's associate editors were two Portland men, officers in the company, Otis B. Wright, Major M. C. and Arthur S. Rosenfeld, First Lieut. M. C.

The book contains a general outline of the hospital's formation and an account of its work. Students wishing to read the book may get it by inquiring at the desk in the library.

R. O. T. C. WILL BE INSPECTED BY GENERAL STAFF

of the platoon and company. Field exercises will occupy the first part of the afternoon. During this time a battalion attack will be staged. From 2:30 to 3 o'clock the time will be devoted to class room work. The last hour of the day will be devoted to physical culture.

On Saturday the board will inspect the grounds and the facilities for military instruction on the campus. A trip to the rifle range at the south end of Willamette street will be made, probably in the afternoon.

The inspecting officers are Colonel Frank J. Morrow of the general staff, Major James F. McKinley of the cavalry, and Captain Elvir Hunt, of the general staff. This inspection takes the place of one of the three annual inspections and is made with a view of placing the University in the list of the fifteen "Distinguished Colleges" which maintain an unusually high standard in the R. O. T. C.
