

STUDENT ASSEMBLY EXPRESSES THANKS FOR STATE'S SUPPORT

Holiday on Campus Monday to Celebrate Victory of Measure

PLANS FOR FUTURE TOLD

$400,000 to Be Spent On Buildings
This Year, States President;
Faculty to Get Raise

Pledging themselves to keep faith with the voters of the state of Oregon, the students of the University gathered yesterday in company with the townspeople to celebrate the passage last Friday of the largest popular measure for education in the history of the commonwealth. The people have cast their ballots for higher education. It is up to the students—to the University—to see that this faith is justified by combining with the noble traditions of the past the advantages of a larger and more adequate institution made possible through the funds provided by the millage bill.

Such was the sentiment which yesterday merged with gratitude for the opportunity now at hand the resolve to justify the people's investment in collegiate training.

The measure, explained President P. L. Campbell to his audience in Villard hall, will give the University an annual income of $800,000. One of the first places where the funds will be spent will be in enlarging and better providing for the faculty, he said. Many instructors at Oregon, through loyalty to the institution, have remained despite the fact that their salaries were lower than can be obtained elsewhere. They can now be put on a proper basis, and the faculty augmented so that instead of having thirty students for each instructor the ratio can be reduced until the work is on a more personal standard.

Housing Shortage to Be Remedied
At least $400,000 will be spent this year on buildings, said President Campbell. Through the act of the legislature the University will receive $900,000 this year which will allow them to get immediate plans under way for removing the acute housing shortage which every department of the University is facing. During the next five years, the president estimates, $200,000 will be spent annually in building construction. It will require this much time to put the University on a basis where it will be able to function with a maximum of efficiency.

"The passage of the millage bill has done more than anything else to fix the standard of the state where education is concerned," said President Campbell. "Higher education is becoming democratized and

Seniors, Look What You Drew; Lottery List Out; No Blanks

'Wildest' Party Ever Held In,
Sigma Nu House Threatened
By Committee

Seniors have been restless ever since Saturday evening, when read that the lottery list for the great senior hard times round-up would be announced "soon." The "soon" has come and the lottery, guaranteed to be absolutely square by Chairman Sprague Carter, makes its appearance. Every senior is supposed to know every other senior, but in case this ideal situation is not realized Sprague urges the men to call the registrar's office at once for address and telephone number of the senior woman drawn.

The committee promises that the party will be the wildest ever held in the Sigma Nu house. The time is Friday evening. Only those in old

Voting Is Not So Simple After All, Is Girl's Verdict

A college girl approaching the polls yesterday for the first time, timidly announced her name to the judge, as she had heard the man in front of her do.

"What kind of a ballot do you want?" inquired the judge, who was slightly deaf.

"Why-er what kind have you got?" was the embarrassed reply.

"He means do you want a Democratic or Republican, kindly explained the wise masculine per-who was still standing near.

"Oh, I think I'll take a Democratic one," said the frustrated Miss.

"Do you want just one, or all three?" asked the judge, and by this time the knowing man had passed on and was not there to enlighten her on this new development.

"Three! exclaimed the now completely flabbergasted co-ed "I don't know, but just give me everything you have."

She was handed three white official ballots, at which she looked with a disappointed air, thinking meanwhile of the attractive pink and blue one she had seen distributed the day before.

And thus she commenced her career as a voter.

MONDAY SCHEDULED AS SCHOOL HOLIDAY

Morning to Be Used In Carrying Out Memorial Day Exercises With the City

Monday, May 31, has been set aside as a holiday since Memorial day falls on Sunday this year. There will be no services conducted by the University, according to word from the president's office, but students are invited to participate in the town's observance of the day. No classes will be held at the University.

Reverend W. A. Elkins, a chaplain in the recent war and now an instructor in the Eugene Bible University, will deliver the address in the morning at the L.O.O.F. cemetery on University street.

Every one is asked to meet at the armory at 10 A.M. and the line of march to the cemetery will be as follows:

Mayor and city council, county officials, Elk's band, militia company, G.A.R., Ladies of the G.A.R., Women's Relief Corps, United Spanish War Veterans, American Legion, Veterans of foreign wars and their auxiliaries, lodges and patriotic organizations, school children, and general public.

Immediately following the exercises in the cemetery, the annual memorial address will be given by Rev. C. E. Dunham, pastor of the First Baptist church of this city, in the Baptist church, corner of Eighth and Pearl streets.

GLASS GOES TO COLUMBIA

1902 Graduate and Wife Will Study
In New York During Summer

Roy W. Glass, an alumnus of the University of Oregon, who is now superintendent of schools at Raymond Washington, will leave for New York City the latter part of the month to enter Columbia University for the summer session. He will be accompanied by his wife, who will study voice while in New York.

Mr. Glass received his degree of B.A. from the University in 1902 and obtained his master's degree two years later. He has been re-elected to the position of superintendent at Raymond for next year with an increase in salary from $2400 to $3100.

Mrs. Glass was enrolled in the school of music during her years at the University.

THREE 1-ACT PLAYS ADD $87 TO FUND FOR WOMEN'S BUILDING

Portland League Presentation
Successful; Participants
Guests on Campus

ENTERTAINED ON CAMPUS

Players Attend Hendricks Hall Tea
Given in Their Honor; Alpha Phi Receives

The plays given by the Drama League Players, of the Little Theatre of Portland, Saturday evening in Guild hall, netted a total of $87, which will be turned over to the Woman's Building fund. The three one-act plays, which were presented under the direction of Mrs. Dent Mowrey, were well received by the audience. The plays were complete in detail and showed the careful and professional-like work of the Little Theatre Players. The plays given and the members of the casts were as follows:

"The Stronger" (By August Strindberg): Mlle. X., Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett; Maitress, Marian Voorhies; Madame Y., Mrs. Dent Mowrey. Scene—A cafe on Christmas Eve.

"Riders to the Sea" (By J. M. Synge): Cathleen, Mrs. Dent Mowrey; Nora, Evelyn Cheely; Maury, Eileen Brong; Bareley, Mr. George Gerlinger; Women, Mrs. Corbett, Mrs. Gerlinger; Men, Dent Mowrey, Henry Corbett. Scene—Cottage of Irish Fisher Folk.

"The Maker of Dreams" (By Olliphant Down): Pierrette, Marian Voorhies; Pierrot, Mrs. Dent Mowrey; The Manufacturer, Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett. Scene—Abode of Pierrette and Pierrot.

The players came to Eugene by automobile, stopping at Salem, where they gave an entertainment Friday night. They arrived in Eugene shortly after noon and spent the afternoon practicing in Guild hall, after which they were entertained at Hendricks hall. After the performance Saturday evening they attended the reception for the faculty at the Alpha Phi house.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerlinger and Mr. and Mrs. Mowrey were entertained at Hendricks hall. Miss Cheely was a guest of the Mrs. Largent at Thatcher Annex, Miss Voorhies at Mrs. P. L. Campbell's home and Miss Brogn at the home of Mrs. B. L. Baggart of Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Corbett were guests at the Osburn hotel.

Miss Maury Perkins and members of Mask and Buskin had charge of the ticket sales for the entertainment.

15 STUDENTS SUSPENDED

Non-Payment of Lab Fees Cause of Action by Business Office

Fifteen students in the University were suspended from classes for non-payment of laboratory fees Monday morning when notices to this effect were sent to all professors. These students are to be suspended from all classes, and not just those in which fees are due, said E. P. Lyon, of the business office staff.

Most of the fees are in the men's and women's gymnasium classes, said Mr. Lyon, but some of them are from the chemistry, zoology, and geology departments. The students have been notified by mail and by bulletin previous to this last notice, which is just sent to the professors.

In order to be reinstated and allowed to attend classes again the students must pay their fees, and obtain a reinstatement blank.

Assembly at 11 Thursday

The regular meeting of the associated students will be held Thursday, May 27, at 11 o'clock in Villard hall. The speaker for the occasion has not been decided upon, and the announcement will be posted on the bulletin boards.

Honor Thrust on Sam Bass Warner Law Prof. Gets Real Nomination Democrats Name Him For Constable

It is the "Honorable Sam Bass Warner, Democratic nominee for the office of constable," now if you please. For years a Republican, this w. k. member of the faculty of the law department is at last mingling in the politics of the opposition party.

There were no names listed for the office of constable on the official Democratic ballot in the late election but, thanks to an efficient campaign manager and his fellow lawyers, Mr. Warner drew enough votes to assure his nomination. A number of outside and downtown votes were also influenced, by some means or other, according to the manager, who modestly asked to have his name withheld.

A double game seems to have been played by these dabblers in the great American game for not only did Mr. Warner receive the votes of the Democrats but those of a number of Republicans as well. The fact that the Socialists did not have a ticket in the field made the chances of Mr. Warner's nomination less by one party, but evidently two parties were enough.

Mr. Warner claims complete ignorance and innocence of his campaign and election but a suspicion was cast over him when he told the reporter that the office carried a salary of eighty dollars a month with it. A man can hardly be held responsible for his actions when such a goal is in view.

It is understood that another prominent campus character, Bib Carl, made a strong run for nomination as county coroner but in his case the competition proved too "stiff" and he was unsuccessful.

DOUGHNUT SCHEDULE DRAWN UP; CONTESTS START IMMEDIATELY

Many Teams Look Strong; A.
T. O.s and Sigma Nus
Clash Today

The doughnut baseball season, which promises to be the best sport of doughnut athletics, began this afternoon with the Sigma Nu vs. A. T. O. game. The schedule has been drawn by Charles "Shy" Huntington, who has charge of the baseball season. Some of the organizations promise to turn out real teams.

The schedule is as follows: Tuesday, A.T.O. vs. Sigma Nu. Wednesday, S-Maraldas vs. Weona. Thursday, Sigma Chi vs. Bachelor-don.

Friday, Friendly Hall vs. Phi Delt. Saturday, Owl Club vs. S.A.E. Monday, Phi Gam vs. Oregon Club. Tuesday, Delt vs. Kappa Sig.

The Betas were not put on the schedule because in the drawing they were not mated with a team. But it is thought S-Maraldas may not enter a team, if so the Betas will take their place.

All of the games will start at 4 o'clock. The rules of eligibility have not been decided upon by Shy Huntington. No member of the regular freshman team will be allowed to participate, and also members of the present varsity team. However, the baseball letter men of former years who did not win a letter this year are permitted to play.

This ruling allows Johnny Houston, Eddie Durno, John Gamble, and others who are former baseball letter men but did not win their letters this season to participate. Present indications show the Kappa Sig, Sigma Chi and Delt teams to look like strong teams.

According to the schedule the winners of the first games will play the other winners in the semi-finals. If present plans are followed the season should be completed within two weeks.

OFFICERS TO BE SWORN IN

Last Student Meeting to Be June 3; Musical Assembly June 10

Installation of student body officers will take place June 3 in Villard hall, at the last meeting of the associated students of the University for the college year. This meeting of the students will take the place of the regular assembly which would have been held at that time.

On June 10 the Mu Phi Epsilon, musical sorority, will hold its national convention, and the assembly for that date may be a musical one to fit in with the program of the convention.

CARL NEWBURY WILL HEAD CLASS OF 1922

MARGARET PHELPS, MARVEL SKEELS AND MARTIN HOW-
ARE ELECTED

Carl Newbury was elected president of the junior class for next year at the class election held in the administration building this morning. Newbury received a total of 100 votes to his opponent, Ray Moore's 78.

Other officers elected are: Margaret Phelps, vice president, unopposed; Marvel Skeels, secretary by a majority of 44 votes; Martin Howard, treasurer by a majority of 9 votes and Howard Staub, sergeant of arms with 42 votes. Five men were in the running for the latter office. Staub won by 5 votes.

Scandal Mongers Make Big Kill In Case of Harris vs. McCorkle

20 ALREADY SIGN
TO ATTEND SEABECK

Full Quota of 50 Expected Within
Two Weeks; Eight Foreign Students To Go

Twenty men have already signed up for the Seabeck conference and it is expected that the entire quota of fifty will be filled within the next two weeks, according to Joe Ingram, who is in charge of the drive for delegates. Among this number are eight foreign students, from the total of twelve on the campus, showing that they are fully awake to the advantages which may be gained from taking the trip, said Ingram. A special place is reserved for foreign students in the work of the conference and particular attention is paid to their needs and problems.

Those who have already signed up for the Oregon delegates are now at work on a stunt to be given on stunt night, which is one of the features of the Seabeck program, he stated. On this evening each group represented at the conference puts on some sort of a stunt and competition is keen to see which will be the best. This feature amounts almost to a vaudeville show, said Ingram.

The fact that the conference is the only gathering of its kind at which student body problems are discussed in such a broad and helpful manner is proving to be one of the greatest inducements that can be held out to prospective delegates, say those in charge. Next to this feature the recreational part of the conference is the most popular. Situated as it is in the Olympic country, Seabeck offers great vacation possibilities in the way of fishing, boating, hiking, and mountain climbing. In addition to these sports there are all forms of regular athletics to be indulged in, such as baseball, track, and swimming.

LAST TRACK MEET TO BE HELD SATURDAY AT WASHINGTON STATE

Oregon Will Send Ten Men To Northwest Conference;
Names Not Known

VARSITY CHANCES LOOK BAD

Aggies Seem Best Bet for Victory
At Gathering; Coast Laurels
Belong to California

The last track meet of the season is the northwest conference gathering at Pullman next Saturday to which Oregon will send a squad of ten men. The names of the athletes have not been announced, but there is little doubt concerning who Bill Hayward will select.

University of Washington will send 9 men, and O.A.C. probably approximately the same number. The Aggies look like the best bet for a victory at the sport gathering. The chances of an Oregon victory are practically nil, however, Hayward's men may gather a considerable number of points.

Oregon to date has won one and lost one dual meet, and placed fifth in the Pacific Coast gathering at Palo Alto. The Washington relay is not counted as a regular meet. The only rating given the track teams is the winning of the coast or northwest championship. California has picked off the coast laurels, and the northwest honor holders will be decided Saturday at Pullman. Many sport followers believe O. A. C. will win the championship, and this belief is substantiated by the showing made by the Aggies in the south, and in the dual meet with Oregon.

The Ohio State Lantern has begun to economize on space. Certain abbreviations are used for the names of different schools while a student's year is represented by 1, 2, 3, or 4.

Breach of Promise Suit Started After Startling Scene In Oregana

A breach of promise suit was filed today by Mike Harris against Miss Lucile McCorkle and one more broken engagement has been added to the already well filled University roster. The trial will be held Thursday evening at 7:30 in the law library.

Miss McCorkle, when interviewed last night, was in a state of semi-collapse. Between sobs she gave her story as follows: "Mike left me Friday night after borrowing two dollars and telling me he had an important business engagement Saturday which would prevent him from seeing me. The next afternoon I walked into the Oregana and there in the most secluded corner sat my fiancé imbibing Bevo with a most celebrated vampire who was none other than Miss Helen Case. Her hat was large and they were both under it. One glass of Bevo stood on the table with two straws in it."

By this time she was heaving and sobbing with such rapidity that she was no longer intelligible so the reporter was forced to leave. Mr. Harris was hard to find and when cornered his attitude was entirely nonchalant.

"She had no reason to make a scene and to return this handsome ring," he declared, holding up the glittering object, which he claimed cost not less than $1.05. "My offence was not serious and I have seen her in far more precarious positions. Just as I was removing an insect from Miss Case's eye, Miss McCorkle entered and, taking entirely too much for granted, she threw my ring at me, insulted Miss Case and
