

VARSAITY QUARTETTE SINGS YALE "BOOLA" PLEASING MR. TAFT

Difference On League Merely Question of Authorship He Declares

LUNCHEON GIVEN VISITOR

American Government Great In World Because Adapted to Governed, States

Ex-President Taft manifested great delight when the University quartette sang the Yale Boola Song at the luncheon given in his honor yesterday noon by the Eugene chamber of commerce and the University faculty at the chamber of commerce.

Mr. Taft lectured at the Armory last night on the combined topics, "Americanism vs. Bolshevism" and "The League of Nations." He made a short speech at the luncheon about the attitude of the political parties toward the league.

He explained that the differences which have been taking place in our Senate today are merely a question of authorship. He said that in effect the changes which the Republicans would have made, especially in relation to the article concerning the Monroe doctrine, are the same as those the Democrats desire.

"I say to you, gentlemen," said the ex-president, "in all good faith, that the differences propounded and pounded in the Senate over Article Ten in ten years, will seem impossible because they are so ridiculous."

Hendricks Hall Girls Serve By a special invitation of the chamber of commerce the following Hendricks hall girls served at the banquet yesterday noon: Mona Logan, Frances Moore, Frederika Schilke, Genevieve Spriggs, Helen Brown, Helen Dustan, Laura Duerner, Naomi Wilson, Bernice Alstock, Dorothy Chausse, Wilhelmina Becksted, Bonita Kirk, Bertha Case, Leona Gregory, Margaret Scott, Elizabeth Stephenson, Inez King and Kathryn Ball.

Mr. Taft in his speech at the Armory declared that there is a greater distribution of wealth, and a greater distribution of happiness in the United States than there is in any other country in the world, and the reason is that the form of government is adapted to the characteristics of the governed. The right of the individual to "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" is the one great principle of our Constitution, he declared, and this principle which is based on man's desire for personal gain is the only incentive which is great enough to make for consistent and continued progress.

No Danger in America There is no real danger to the United States because of the doctrines of Bolshevism being preached, and the

Kissing Other Women in Public Justifies Jilting Decides Jury

Mike Harris Loses Financee, Job, Health, And Gets No Damages

When a girl catches her fiance kissing another girl in such a public place as the Oregon, while evidence that they had been drinking out of the same glass with two straws still lies before them, she is justified in breaking her engagement with him. Such was the opinion of the jury which heard the case of Mike Harris vs. Lucille McCorkle in moot court Thursday night.

In spite of the fact that Harris claimed to have lost his health, his job as night watchman on Kincaid field, all chances of ever getting married, and his future support, on account of the sudden fracture of his engagement to Miss McCorkle, the jury thought it no reason why she should have to pay him $10,000 damages after he had acted in such a manner with other women.

The lily-like character of the plaintiff, as it was painted by the various witnesses for the prosecution, was

REINHART ELECTED BASEBALL CAPTAIN

Popular Player On Shy's Team Hits .333 Second Season On Varsity; Made Fresh In '17

William Reinhart, a junior from Salem, has been elected captain of the 1921 varsity baseball team, "as the successor to Herman Lind, captain of this year's nine. Reinhart is a veteran of the diamond, having had considerable experience before coming to college. He has been a member of the varsity team for two years, and was a player on the freshman team in the spring of 1917.

"Billy" gained his first knowledge of baseball in Salem, where he was the whole show. He played on the Salem high school aggregation for several years, and also on the Salem team in the inter-city league. Reinhart, a favorite of the Salem fans, is known and liked all through the Willamette valley.

On the varsity team "Billy" is known to the fans as one of Oregon's premier sluggers. He is batting average for the season was .333. He is one of those boys who gives the pitcher heart failure after his first time up.

Reinhart's regular position is left field and he has handled his place in the garden in big league style this year. Last year Billy took care of shortstop on Shy's nine.

MAYBE PASADENA DID IT

University of Oregon Listed First by Simpson College Weekly

"What college are you going to attend?" runs an editorial in "The Simpsonian", the weekly newspaper of Simpson College at Indianola, Iowa. "Will it be the University of Oregon, Yale, Harvard, Northwestern, or Simpson?" Dean John Landsbury, of the University school of music, is an alumnus of Simpson College and is the recipient of the May 17 issue of "The Simpsonian", in which the article appears.

It is significant to me, said Dean Landsbury, that the University of Oregon was mentioned first in the list. The really big schools in the United States, Yale, Harvard, and Northwestern, were included, and the classification shows the sentiment for the University which is held in the east, and middle east.

Better come back to Simpson, though, concluded the article, even if you do hate the very ground it walks on.

DOUGHNUT BASEBALL LEAGUE GAMES SHOW CONCEALED TALENTS

Husky Sigma Chis Slip Over Army of Runs On Bachelordon

HURLERS SERVE HOT ONES

Sigma Nus and Weonas Also in Ring for Semi-Finals So Far; Three Eliminated

The A.T.O., Beta, and Bachelordon doughnut baseball teams have been eliminated from the league. All of the other teams remain, but up to this noon only the Sigma Chis, Sigma Nus and Weonas had played their games and won.

The biggest excitement of the week was the Sigma Chi vs. Bachelordon contest, in which the husky Sigma Chis slipped over a whole army of runs on the Bachelordons, and the final score after careful counting was 15 to 7. If Roscoe Gawcett had been there he would have had a world of fun writing an account of the cavortings of the fraternity nines. Cres Maddock was there, 190 lbs strong, pastiming in right field.

Ten Runs Made Kennon and Bullock took turns pitching for the Sigma Chis, and Milzner did the hashing for the Bachelordons. The victors piled up ten runs in the initial period, and they slacked on their efforts the rest of the game. If they hadn't the scorer would have had a writer's cramp.

Sigma Chis Going Good The result of the game showed that the Sigma Chis are going to be strong bidders for the title, and they are working hard to improve their outfit. The lineup was:

Sigma Chi—Kennon c, Bullock p, Bradeson 1st, Hazard 2nd, Moore ss, Elwood 3rd, Hill, cf, Palmer lf, Maddock rf.

Bachelordon—Wallington c, Miezner p, Kirk 1st, Benedict 2nd, Reese ss, Woods 3rd, McIntoch lf, Guldager cf, Patterson rf.

One Game Postponed The Phi Delt vs. Friendly hall game was postponed by the Phi Delt until next Tuesday. The Delt and Kappa Sigs will unite in a struggle Tuesday also, which is the last game of the preliminary schedule. When these games have been completed the teams winning their games will be matched against each other for the semi-final games. On Monday the Fijis will battle the Oregon club. Johnny Houston will work for the Fiji team.

The Oregon club was out practicing with the Friendly hall team this morning, but they are not up to last year's form, and are not expected to have championship success. The Friendly hall team is no weak sister, and they will be heard from next week.

Gossip has it that the Delt vs. Kappa Sig game will be one of the fastest of the season. Tiny Shields will de-

FOUR MORE DROPPED BY PROBATION BOARD

Failure to Improve Scholarship or Observe Rules After Posting Chief Reasons

Three students were dropped from the University Wednesday by the probation committee, and one was dropped at their meeting last evening, according to Registrar Carlton E. Spencer, chairman of the probation committee. This makes a total of 13 who have been dropped this year.

Students on probation who have not complied with the rules governing this, or who have not improved their scholarship are the ones called before the probation committee. Some of them have failed to report to their dean when posted, or have failed to get in the required reports when on probation. These failures, along with other delinquencies, said Mr. Spencer, are grounds for dropping a student permanently from the University.

In order to be readmitted to the University the student must petition. Only one such petition was sent in this year, said the registrar, and this one was denied.

HOPKINS WILL HEAD NEXT SENIOR CLASS

Vivian Chandler Made Sergeant-At-Arms; Lyle Bryson Barber After Rair-Raising Race

George Hopkins was chosen president of next year's senior class at elections held Friday in Johnson hall. His vote was 51 as compared with 48 received by Eddie Durno, who was running against him. This is almost the only office in which much interest was shown, since there was no opposition for the positions of vice-president, secretary and treasurer, which went to Margaret Hamblin, Helen Loughary and Bob Cosgriff, respectively.

For the office of sergeant-at-arms, Vivian Chandler led with 40 votes against the opposition composed of Jack Benefiel, Nish Chapman, Barney Garrett, Jake Jacobberger, Bobby Lees and Everett Pixley.

Much campaigning and pulling of hair was caused by the keen competition for the office of barber which went to Lyle Bryson, who led with 33 votes. The count was Rex Yamashita, 16; Leith Abbott, 16; Harry Smith, 9, and Maud Barnes, 13.

UNIVERSITY CLASSES WILL BE DISMISSED MONDAY FOR MEMORIAL DAY OBSERVANCE

No new plans have been made by the University for the observance of Memorial day, Monday, May 31, which has been set aside as a holiday since Memorial day falls on Sunday this year. No classes will be held and the students are invited to attend the services arranged for by the townspeople.

Everyone is asked to meet at the armory at 10 A. M. and march to the I.O.O.F. cemetery on University street where Rev. W. A. Elkins, a former chaplain in the army and now an instructor in the Eugene Bible University, will deliver an address.

The order in which the organizations will march to the cemetery will be in the following order: Mayor and city council, county officials, Elk's band, militia company, G.A.R., Ladies of the G.A.R., Women's Relief Corps, United Spanish War Veterans, American Legion, veterans of foreign wars and their auxiliaries, lodges, patriotic organizations, school children and general public.

The annual memorial address will be given by Rev. C. E. Dunham, pastor of the First Baptist church of this city, in the Baptist church, corner of Eighth and Pearl, immediately following the exercises in the cemetery.

Stanford Anderson, retiring president of the student body, acted as toast master for the evening and after welcoming the newly elected president and members of the council and giving them a few words of advice, he gave a brief summary of the work done during the year by the outgoing student governing body.

Student officers and others who responded to toasts were Carlton Savage, Lindsay McArthur, Johnny Houston, Era Godfrey, Lyle Bryson, Louise Davis, Vivian Chandler and Mrs. Marion McClain.

CHAUTAUQUA GIRLS VISIT Ruth Nash, Lois Hall, and Mrs. Paget Here for Week-End

Ruth Nash, Lois Hall and Beatrice Thurston Paget, all former students of the University, are in Eugene this week-end, brought here by the Chautauqua circuit. Ruth Nash was a senior, but left at the first of the spring term to work as a Chautauqua director. Her work brought her through Eugene and she stopped over night, leaving Friday morning.

Miss Hall arrived from Drain late Friday night, for a stay until Sunday, at the home of her parents. She is junior supervisor, taking charge of the children for a morning play and story hour in the various Chautauqua camps. Her next stop is Sheridan.

Mrs. Paget accompanies her husband, who is a Chautauqua worker. She is visiting her home for two or three days, as her circuit brought her near Eugene.

Elizabeth Aumiller, '19, is also visiting the Delta Gamma house for the week-end. She comes for a holiday from her work, which is in Yakima, Wash.

Elizabeth Aumiller Visits

Miss Elizabeth Aumiller, '19, is on the campus for the week-end from her home in Yakima, Wash. While here she is the guest of her sister Mildred Aumiller at the Delta Gamma house. Miss Aumiller was associate editor of the Emerald last year. She is considering going east to do advanced university work next year.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON WINNER IN TRISTATE ORATORICAL CONTEST

Fred Coley's Address, "Call No Man Common," Awarded $100 Prize

U. OF W. SPEAKER MISSING

Failure of Kenneth Cole to Appear May Necessitate Repetition; Idaho Eliminated

Fred Coley, representing the University of Oregon, won the annual tristate oratorical contest for the cash prize of $100 which was held in Guild hall last night. Coley received two firsts on composition and two on delivery. The subject of his address was "Call No Man Common," and was a justification of trade unionism.

Owing to the failure of Kenneth Cole, the University of Washington representative, to show up for the contest, the only other speaker last night was R. R. Breshears, of the University of Idaho. His topic was "The American Plan." No explanation had been received late last night for the failure of the Washington man to put in an appearance but if he arrives with a valid excuse for being late the contest will be held over again tonight between him and Coley, according to Professor R. W. Prescott, of the public speaking department. Last night's results eliminate Breshears from participation in this, if it is held. Cole was to have talked on the subject of "Theodore Roosevelt."

This is the third year in succession that an Oregon man has won the contest. Last year the prize was taken by Joseph Boyd and the year before by Abe Rosenberg. The prize is offered by ex-Senator Blaine, of Seattle. This year the contest was held on the campus for the first time since it was started.

Judges of delivery last night were J. B. V. Butler of Oregon state normal school, Professor F. G. Franklin of Willamette university, and Professor W. H. Lee of Albany college. The judges of composition were the heads of the English departments of Reed college, Whitman college, and Washington State college.

In addition to his last night's event, Coley was winner of the state oratorical contest which was held at Forest Grove earlier in the spring.

Seniors Get nth Degree of Jazz At Sigma Nu House Affair

There are vehicles of many sorts, and many kinds, but no one ever guessed that there were as many means of transportation as were brought forth to carry the ladies to the senior party at the Sigma Nu house last night. Wheelbarrows, bicycles, youngster's wagons, one horse shays, and a farm wagon featured. The farm wagon was drawn by Charles, who is an ancient white horse, but who has not yet forgotten his childish tricks, for streetcars and automobiles still spell terror to him, and his one steps and shimmies to the left and right of the street were a marvel to all those who witnessed it. Some of the dancing later in the evening was said to have been copied from Charles.

The party was decidedly jazzy, and it is whispered that there were few, if any, chaperons, and that the party lasted until—well, we hate to expose the seniors.

Cres Maddock as the parson made a decided hit, but his actions were decidedly disapproved of, for most of his attentions were centered upon the vamp of the evening, "Red" Sutton.

The Emerald sleuth would like to expose many more of the class dignitaries, but feels that he cannot do justice to either their actions nor their costumes, so will call it square by voting it an honest-to-goodness party and keeping the rest of the "dope" out of print.
