OREGON TEAM TAKES THE NORTHWEST TRACK MEET

sity has entered, says prospects for next season are pretty fair from the present outlook. Of his veterans he loses Bartlett, Hargrave and Foster, all hard men to replace. From this year's freshman team, however, he has several very good prospects to rely upon.

Hayward Looking for Workers
"The main thing," said Hayward in discussing next year's outlook, "is to get men who will come out and work. A man can't come out for six weeks and make a point winner in track. It takes a full year of work to do it."

In addition to the remaining members on the '20 team who will be improved by this season's training Hayward has the pick of a fast freshman team for next year. In the sprints he is counting on Oberteuffer, Larson, Boyer and Wyatt; pole vault, Phillips, Ingle and Waters; weights and discus, Tuck, Shields and Brown; quarter mile, Collins, Larson and Wyatt; half mile, Peltier and Wooding; mile, Koepp and Blackburn; hurdles, Malone, all from this year's frosh squad.

Hank Foster's place will be a very hard one to fill, the trainer admitted, and he indicated that one way would be to build a team stronger in the other events. He is also counting on Carl Knudsen for some heavy work next year after his remarkable showing as a hurdler in the last two meets.

The Oregon team won from the University of Washington in Seattle 56 to 65, and in the other final meet of the season lost to O. A. C. 80 to 50. In the Pacific Coast Conference the Oregon team finished fifth with 14 points.

Oregon sprang the real surprise of the season, however, when she captured the Northwest Conference meet at Pullman. The final score stood, Oregon, 36; O. A. C., 33; University of Idaho, 30; University of Washington, 25; Washington State, 22; University of Montana, 13, and Whitman College, 5.

NORTHWEST TITLE TENNIS MATCH IS OFF

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON
CANCELS FINAL GAME
AT SEATTLE

The tennis meet with the University of Washington that was to have decided the Northwest championship has been cancelled by Washington. The meet was to have been held in Seattle next week end and Brown, Smith and Westerman of Oregon were to have made the trip. Lack of funds was the reason given for cancelling the meet.

A meet is now being arranged with O. A. C., although they have not organized a team, it is expected that they will be ready to meet Oregon within the next two weeks. There will be no freshman meet with O. A. C. this year as no team has been organized in either school. There is also a possibility that Oregon will meet the Multnomah Club team. There have been no definite arrangements but it is hoped that a meet may be scheduled before school closes.

KAPPAS VICTORS BY 7 TO 8 SCORE OVER HENDRICKS HALL

Dorothy McKee, Kappa Pitcher
Is Stellar Light of Close Game

Hendricks hall had the edge until the last half of the fourth in the final game of the doughnut baseball series with the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority, Saturday morning. At beginning of the fourth inning the score stood 7-1, in favor of Hendricks hall, but during the fourth, the Kappas rallied and bunched their hits, scoring six runs.

After this inning, due to the stellar work of Dorothy McKee, Kappa pitcher, Hendricks hall was held scoreless during the rest of the game. The Kappas scored two home runs made by Lois Barnett and Dorothy McKee, in the fourth and again scored a run in the fifth, making the score 7-8.

Both teams were well supported at the game and interest ran high. Wanda Daggett garbed in a Russian "In my harem" gown of red and black led the Hendricks hall rooters in yells for their team. Many members of the "stronger sex" packed the bleachers.
