MULTNOMAH COMING SATURDAY FOR GRID MIX WITH VARSITY

Manager McClain Arranges For Initial Contest on Old Kincaid Field.

MANY EX-OREGON MEN ON SQUAD OF CLUBMEN

Lemon-Yellow Coaches Silent on Line-Up; Fight for Berths Still On.

Definite arrangements with Multnomah Club, of Portland, were completed last night to bring the club eleven to Eugene Saturday for the first game of the season for Coach Huntington's warriors. Manager Marion McClain has been busy the past few days in attempting to get the clubmen here for an opening game but was unsuccessful, owing to the fact that they wished to play in Portland. A telegram from Portland last night settled the matter and the Rose City aggregation will line up against the lemon-yellow eleven Saturday afternoon on Kincaid field.

Coach Huntington is not very optimistic in speaking of the outlook for a victory, and has not announced his line-up as yet, although he will probably use a number of men in an attempt to get a line on what he can expect from them during the season. Last night's was the peppiest little practice the team has been through for some time and they showed a marked improvement in their work. Coaches Huntington and Spellman said they were both well pleased with the workout.

Jensen Out of Game.

"Pete" Jensen, who has been going strong for a backfield position, has dropped out of the squad and will be unable to play this season, according to his doctor's verdict. This means one more backfield man out of the running, and it is the backfield that at present giving the coaches the greatest amount of concern. The line is showing up good, in fact, the competition for a line berth on the varsity is getting so keen that no one is sure of a position as yet. Huntington is working about 14 men on the line and as yet is not making any predictions as to who will hold down the positions in the first conference game. No doubt the line-up in Saturday's game will go a long way towards deciding the contest among a number of the aspirants.

Multnomah may be expected to bring down a fast and husky eleven as they have been working for the past month with a good turnout at each practice. There are a number of old Oregon players trying out with the club eleven, among them Ed Strawbridge, who was in Huntington's backfield squad last year. Bob Cosgriff, who also worked as a sub backfield man last season, Stan Anderson, who held down an end position, and Cres Maddock, a letter man of former years with the lemon-yellow squad.

Letter Men Wear "M".

Among the men who wore the winged "M" togs last year and who are out for a position this season with the club gridsters are, Gene Murphy and "Pudge" Brown, who held down quarterback jobs; Alex Donaldson, end; "Bill" Holden in the backfield, and "Mike" Block and Bert

EMERALD STAFF ANNOUNCED

Appointments to the staff of the Oregon Daily Emerald for the coming year appear for the first time on the editorial page of this issue. The appointments were made as a result of tryouts held during the past week, but positions will be permanent only if the present staff continues the same consistent work as during the week of tryouts.

Fifteen appointments were made to the news staff, but further additions to the news staff will be made during the year as reporters prove their ability. Thirty students are still competing for positions on the Emerald staff.

Big Mautz Back; Out of Jail and Out For Varsity

A trifle thinned and somewhat rusty looking because of a summer spent within the Multnomah county jail, Carl Varner Mautz, elephantine lineman of the varsity football team, returned Sunday evening to the campus ostensibly to resume his work in the pre-med department. Last evening he made his first appearance in a suit of moleskins.

Mautz — or Mautz, or Muttz, or whatever other names sporting writers and society reporters chose to give him — began his connection with the strong arm of the Multnomah law forces shortly after the beginning of the summer vacation term in the capacity of assistant jailer and deputy sheriff, and served up to a few days ago. While there he helped safeguard the public from a number of dangerous criminals, including Neil Hart, Indian half-breed who is now awaiting execution at Salem for the murder of Sheriff Til Taylor of Pendleton, and many others.

"Charlie" admits that he likes the work and says that he may consider going back to jail next summer.

GLEE CLUB TRYOUTS TO BE HELD OCT. 11

John Stark Evans Will Lead Men's Organization.

Tryouts for the University of Oregon glee club are to be held Monday afternoon, October 11, at the music building at 4:30. Warren Edwards, president of the club announced yesterday. All students who wish to try for the club should turn out at that time.

According to Edwards the old men on the club plan to make this organization come up to its old time standards this year. Of late years the interest has not been as great in the club as in previous seasons. The club concert at home was formerly one of the chief functions of the year, and it is planned to re-establish its popularity.

Many of the men of last year have returned to form a basis for the organization of this year's club, and there are prospects for a very successful season. A number of trips are being planned, among them being one to Pasadena, when the Oregon varsity football team plays there. There is some talk of a trip to Chicago should the faculty see fit to allow sufficient time for it.

The club will have the advantage of an excellent director this year, in the person of John Stark Evans. Mr. Evans handled the club successfully two years ago. He returned to the University music department this year after a year of active work in New York.

All students are eligible for the club, and it is the hope of the old men that as many as possible will turn out for the tryouts.

Mr. Evans expects to have about 150 men out for the tryouts, he states. The most of the openings this year in the club will be in the bass and baritone sections.

NEARLY 400 STUDENTS RECEIVE STATE AID

Law Requires Filing of Daily Attendance Reports At Close of Each Month.

Between three hundred fifty and four hundred ex-service men will receive state aid through the channels of the University, according to Miss Abbie Ledward of the business office, who has charge of this work. Some two hundred on the campus have already filed affidavits and it is expected that about fifty more new students will come under the provision by the time registration is completed. Besides these, the campus office handles the claims of about forty medical students and seventy-five of the extension division in Portland.

According to the provisions of the law passed last spring it is necessary for each man to secure a daily attendance report from his professors each month, in addition to filing a special schedule card at the office.

Varsity and frosh crews are going through their fall practice in southland.

CAMPUS ACTIVITIES WILL BE INCREASED BY RELIGIOUS WORK

Presbyterian Church and Y. M. C. A. Co-operate to Aid Students.

REV. BRUCE J. GIFFEN TAKES PASTOR POST

Chief Duty to Center Around Members of His Own Denomination.

A new field in campus activity has been opened at Oregon with the assignment of Rev. Bruce J. Giffen as student pastor. Reverend Giffen has been placed here through the co-operation of the Central Presbyterian church and the Y. M. C. A.

Reverend Giffen will act as a member of the Y. M. C. A. staff and have charge of the religious educational work of the Presbyterian church in Eugene. Half of his time will be spent on the campus caring for the special needs of Presbyterian students.

This, according to Reverend Giffen, is in line with a movement now prevalent throughout the country to establish at every state university, student pastors to care for the special needs of their denominations.

To Work With Y.

Much of Reverend Giffen's time will, however, be devoted to general work in line with the Y. M. C. A. program, the actual nature of which has not yet been definitely decided. Beginning with the fall term this year, Reverend Giffen will conduct a course on religious education open to all University students. The title of his lectures is to be "Masterpieces in Religious Literature."

There is now a complete registration of the student body on file at the campus Y. M. C. A. hut, which is available for all the religious communions. Reverend Giffen's chief work will center around cultivating the good will and friendship of the Presbyterians of the University.

Formerly From McMinnville.

He is not a stranger to Oregon people, having been pastor at McMinnville and Vernon Church in Portland. Reverend Giffen received his Master's degree at Princeton University and Degree of Bachelors' Divinity at Princeton Seminary. He was engaged in the teaching of the profession at Cairo, Egypt.

Mrs. Giffen is also well known in the state, being the first president of the Women's Presbyterian Synodical Society of Oregon.

Reverend and Mrs. Giffen will make their home with John Rennie at 1186 Ferry street.

BIG YELL PRACTICE PLANNED FOR TODAY

Tryouts to be Held at 4:15 For Keeney's Helpers.

To give the freshmen men their first bit of organized practice in Oregon yells and songs, and to brush up the vocal cords of sundry upper-classmen and sophomores, Rooter King Claire Keeney has called the initial practice of the 1920 season for this evening at 4:15 o'clock. The scene will be the old Kincaid bleachers, during football scrimmage.

At the same time will be held the official try-outs for assistant yell leaders, for which there are two vacant positions. Keeney expects at least a half dozen aspirants on the field this afternoon to work for the positions. Roy Veatch, "Del" Obertueffer, Leslie Nunn and George Pasto among them.

All of the old Oregon battle songs and cheers will be given, and also a number of new ones that have been written recently. Campus versifiers are asked by Keeney to get busy and compose a bunch of new pep-kindling yells, as he feels the school hasn't enough of them.

Yell practice will be held regularly every Wednesday evening at open football practice, Keeney continues, and he urges a large turn-out.

FIRST MEETING OF A.S.U.O. TO BE HELD THURSDAY MORNING

Combined Glee Clubs Will Lead in Singing Oregon Songs.

FIFTY MINUTES ONLY, SAYS CARLTON SAVAGE

Important Reports, Amendment, Plans for Coming Year Discussed.

The first regular meeting of the Associated Students of the University of Oregon will be held tomorrow at 11 a. m. in Villard hall. Important reports, the presentation of an amendment to the student constitution, and general plans for the coming year will occupy the fifty minute assembly, according to Carlton Savage, and the combined men's and women's glee clubs under the direction of John Stark Evans will lead in singing Oregon songs.

A report on the athletic situation of the University will be given by Marion McClain, graduate manager of the A. S. U. O., while reports of standing and special committees will also be heard. Those to submit reports include Eddie Durno, Greater Oregon committee; Johnny Houston, Homecoming committee; Wayne Akers, campus committee; Norton Winward, condoleance committee, and Johnny Houston, dance committee. Final arrangements for the student body dance to be given Friday evening at the Armory will be announced.

Will Present Amendment

An amendment to the A. S. U. O. constitution will be presented by Harris Ellsworth, former manager of the Emerald and the Oregonian, students yearbook. The amendment proposes to raise the amount which the editor and manager of the Emerald may make during a year from $100 to $400 apiece. According to Ellsworth, this merely means that the editor and manager of the college publication, which began the year as a daily, might make more than the $100 a year, should they clear that much after all expenses for the year have been paid. This money would not come from the treasury of the Associated Students, but would be earned as a result of their own work, he said. The $100 arrangement was made when the Emerald was issued but twice a week.

Bring Your "Handbook."

The combined glee clubs will lead in singing Oregon songs after the regular meeting has been concluded, according to President Savage. All students are advised to bring their "handbooks," if they are unfamiliar with the words of the songs. The meeting will be dismissed early in order to allow the freshmen plenty of time for their class meeting, which will be held after the A. S. U. O. assembly.

BAND MEETING GIVES PROMISING OUTLOOK

Thirty-five Musicians Turn Out at First Call; May Play for Saturday's Game.

With thirty-five enthusiastic musicians out at the band meeting in Villard hall last night, prospects for a good band this year seem particularly promising. A majority of the men were new, but the old men were fairly well divided over the various sections of the band.

It was found, however, that because the band is without a library, a director, or a fund of any kind, it will be impossible for them to turn out for today's rally. Sufficient money was personally advanced by those interested to allow for a hurried order to Portland that will furnish enough music on which to start the season. If the plans for a game Saturday are realized the band will be whipped into shape for that date.

Band practice was called for Friday night in Villard hall at five p. m. Whether a man will make a position on the band or not depends largely on his presence at these early meetings it was stated so every man interested should make it a point to be out.

FRESHMAN OUT STRONG.

The University of Washington has 100 freshman out for football.

STUDENT BODY DANCE SCHEDULED FOR OCT. 9

Committee Hopes Everyone Will Start Year Right By Being There Saturday Night.

The first student body dance of the year will be held Saturday night, Oct. 9, at the Eugene Armory. A jazzy six-piece orchestra has been secured and the dancing committee promises a good time with lots of "Oregon Spirit." A charge of fifty cents a couple is to be made and all money exceeding the expense of the dance will be turned over to the Student Body funds.

It is hoped that all students will start the year right and take advantage of this opportunity to become acquainted with each other. Johnny Houston, chairman of the committee arranging student body dances, requests that the students be especially cordial to the patrons and patronesses at the dance Saturday evening. Other Student Body dances for the year will be scheduled within the next week.

2200 BOOKS ADDED TO LIBRARY IN SUMMER

Vacation Months See Increase In Number of Volumes.

A total of 2200 books have been added to the University library during the summer months, according to M. H. Douglass, librarian. This represents an addition of about 600 books per month, 20 per day, or one an hour. The total number on the shelves is now approximately 96,500.

Among the more important are a number of the Pauline Potter Homer series that were given to the University by friends and relatives of Mrs. Homer. The J. K. Gill company of Portland has sent down $200 worth of books from which $50 worth will be chosen for this collection. Any student who wishes may suggest volumes to be selected. The books are in the gallery of the library and there are only a few days left in which the selections may be made. The books which have already been chosen are: Wordsworth's "Poems," Edward's "Holland of Today," Plutarch's "Lives," a set of Mrs. Browning's poems, and the Uffizi gallery.

Another important group that has been added to the library is two sets of proceedings of the London Mathematical

COMMITTEE PLANS JUNIOR COLLEGES

Recommendations Drawn Up to Submit to Teachers.

Recommendations concerning the organization of the proposed junior colleges in Oregon were made at a meeting of the state committee of educators in charge of the subject, held at the Multnomah hotel in Portland Friday afternoon, Dean Sheldon of the school of education is chairman of this committee, which is composed of Dean G. H. Alden of Willamette University, Dean E. D. Ressler of O. A. C., Supt. George A. Briscoe of Ashland, Supt. Aubrey G. Smith of Medford and Supt. A. C. Strange of Astoria.

The committee drew up a report to be submitted to the teachers committee of the Oregon state teachers association for their adoption. This report contains a number of recommendations to be passed upon, among them it was recommended that the junior colleges should be kept separate from the high schools, be housed in separate quarters and have different teachers than those in the high school. Students shall be required to take the same number of hours as in college, and there shall be at least twenty-five students for the first year and fifteen for the second.

There are about one hundred junior colleges in the country, twenty-five of which are in California, they were started there for the purpose of lessening the number of freshmen and sophomores in the state university. The idea was started by President Harper of the University of Chicago over twenty-five years ago. Oregon at present has no junior colleges and according to Dean Sheldon there is no need for them at the present time.

CAMPUS ORCHESTRA PLANS MANY THINGS FOR COMING WINTER

School of Music Faculty Members Will Solo in Concert.

REAL JAZZ TO FEATURE PART IN STUDENT MEETS

Twenty-Three Old Members Form Nucleus of Organization.

The University Orchestra is to be one of the liveliest musical organizations on the campus this year according to Orchestra Director Rex Underwood, who today outlined the plans which the orchestra is making for the year.

Aside from the trips which the orchestra will make, there are arrangements under way for a series of five concerts to be given with different members of the faculty of the school of music appearing as soloists, and featuring orchestral accompaniment.

Mr. Underwood, by training a beginner's orchestra, is planning to help the students who have had little orchestral experience but who wish to do that sort of work. The members of this body will practice an hour each week under his supervision, and who they are considered good enough will be promoted to the regular University orchestra.

Small Admission Fee

At all public concerts given by the orchestra this year there will be a small admission fee. This money is to be used for the purpose of buying instruments, about $1000 worth of which will be needed before the year is supplied.

A new policy is to be adopted this year by the orchestra playing at assemblies and other student meetings. This plan will provide for some popular music on the program, so that the wishes of all the students will be answered. Real "jazz" will be furnished, according to Mr. Underwood.

The meeting for the organization and election of officers will probably be held next Tuesday, he says.

Personel of Orchestra.

Twenty-three old members of the orchestra are back, and the new members will probably be added from now on. The list of those who will be on the orchestra again this year is as follows:

- Aurota Potter—Pianist.
- Alberta Potter—Violin.
- Margaret Phelps—Violin.
- Gwendolyn Lamphire—Violin.
- Ransom McArthur—Violin.
- Leland Perry—Violin.
- Ralph McClafflin—Violin.
- Maude Largent—Violin.
- Wilson Gailley—Violin.
- Ralph Hoerber—Cello.
- Carpenter Staples—Cello.
- John Anderson—Cello.
- Benlah Clarke—Flute.
- Norman Byrne—Clarinet.
- Arthur Campbell—Clarinet.
- Thomas Larremore—French Horn.
- Irvin Thomas—Double Bass.
- Harold Simpson—Cornet.
- Reta Ridings—Cornet.
- Meryl Deming—Cornet.
- Herbert Hacker—Trombone.
- Frank Jue—Saxophone.
- Lee Bown—Tympany.

CONTRACT FOR DEBATE SIGNED WITH O. A. C.

Negotiations Under Way With Reed; Meeting To Be Held To Pick Question.

A contract has been signed with O. A. C. for intercollegiate debate. Negotiations are under way for a similar arrangement with Reed college.

Remy Cox, forensic manager, is working out a schedule now, to be approved by the other two colleges. Later there will be a meeting to decide the question for debate, and the time for try-outs.

Any student matriculated for three months or more is eligible to enter the contest.

The first men's debate will be held the second week in December, when the affirmative team will debate in Eugene and the negative team will go out of town.
