OLD VARSITY STARS TO PLAY TOMORROW WITH PORTLAND CLUB

Game With Winged "M" Will Open 1921 Season on Kincaid Grid.

OREGON'S BACKFIELD TWENTY POUNDS LIGHT

Greatest Task to Stop Bucks of Multnomah; Little Work Done in Defensive.

If there are any admirers of the Gilmore Dobie style of coaching which proved so popular at the University of Washington a few years ago, in Eugene tomorrow, they will in all probability have an opportunity to see this system in operation against Coach Huntington's eleven. Coach Dorman, of the Multnomah aggregation which comes here for the opening game of the season tomorrow afternoon, has been drilling his squad for the past two months and it is generally understood that this will be Dorman's mode of offensive and defensive attack in tomorrow's game.

Coach Dorman was a former pupil of Dobie's when the latter was heading the Washington squad, and he played a backfield position under Dobie's tutelage. As to just how much this style of playing will avail against the lemon-yellow varsity can be better determined after the first few minutes of play tomorrow afternoon.

Oregon Backs Outweighed.

Ed Stroubbridge, former backfield man for Oregon, "Bill" Holden, big star for the past several years on the Multnomah aggregation, "Pudge" Brown and "Gene" Murphy, both of whom have been playing for the past several years with the winged "M", will probably make up the backfield of the club team. If that is the case the Oregon backfield will be outweighed some 20 or more pounds to the man, and Oregon's line will be taxed to the utmost when big "Bill" Holden starts his off-tackle bucks.

If Oregon wins tomorrow's game, it will not be brawn that does the job, but rather the superior speed of the Oregon eleven. Multnomah is known to have a slow line and although big and plentifully supplied with beef, they lack the pep and snap which always characterizes Coach Spellman and Huntington's linemen. "Stan" Anderson and Donaldsen are slated to handle the end position for the Multnomah eleven. The ability of Anderson is well known to Oregon students on account of his previous performance and Donaldsen has been playing with the club team for the past several years.

"M" Ends Fast.

Oregon can expect no advantage over the ends in the game. "Mart" Howard who was Anderson's running mate at end last year on the lemon-yellow will probably be in that capacity in the game, the handling of the other end position will fall to "Bud" Brown, "Hugh" Clerin, or Neil Morfitt according to present dope. Last night's scrimmage workout was the last for the week and tonight's work-

CLAIRE WALLACE TO HEAD CLASS OF 1924

Complete Set of Officers Are Named at Meeting.

Claire Wallace, of Portland, was elected president of the freshman class at a meeting held in Villard hall yesterday morning immediately following the A. S. U. O. assembly. The other officers elected to help guide the "frosh" through their first year are as follows: Vice president, Edna Bushman of Springfield; secretary, Iantha Smith of Albany; and treasurer, George Bronaugh of Portland. President Campbell addressed the class, administering a few telling remarks and bits of advice. He urged upon the students the necessity for a daily schedule of work, recreation and sleep. The day should be divided into three eight hour shifts, and the schedule lived up to, according to President Campbell.

Sigma Chi House Arnica-Scented Like Red Cross

"I didn't know they had a reconstruction hospital for war wrecks in Eugene," observed a new student the other day as he passed the Sigma Chi house at a moment when all the house crutches were being displayed on the front porch.

The S. X.'s home has, for a fact, presented an appearance of hospitality, i. e., a la hospital, ever since their permanent boarders began to drift back to the family fireplace. There are Ray Vester and Johnny Palmer to form the background for the setting and numerous minor injuries such as Horace Byler's black eye to help keep up the surgical atmosphere of the house.

Ray Vester came to grief as the result of a fall. Ray says that it was the sudden stop rather than the fall that did the damage.

Johnny Palmer was also the victim of a fall. In his case he was the faller rather than the faller, however. A lumber pile was the active agent this time.

It is said that the Sigma Chi house manager is trying to arrange a trade with the infirmary whereby the two would exchange houses.

HOUSE DANCE DATES WILL BE DECIDED ON

Representatives to Gather Saturday Morning.

That delegates from all organized houses on the campus will meet on Saturday morning to indicate their preference in dates for dances for this year was decided at a meeting of the social affairs committee on Tuesday, Oct. 5. The committee, consisting of Dean Fox, chairman, Miss Perkins, Dean Straub, Professor Milne, Professor Dunn, and the following student members: Leta Kiddle, Maud Barnes, Don Newbury and Elmer Pendell, had as its guests at Tuesday's meeting Dean Dymet, John Houston, chairman of the social committee of student council, and Carlton Savage, president of the A. S. U. O.

Dean Fox wishes to remind the students that the tentative engagement of dates does not release them from filing a formal petition in the offices of the two deans.

Rules Explained in Booklet.

Emphasis was also placed upon the proper understanding of the "Living, Social and Disciplinary Rules" which appear on page 33 and following pages in the booklet entitled "University Regulations." Because of the explanations given in this booklet, it was decided that no student or organization has any legitimate reason for misunderstanding the rules of the University.

The committee urges that Friday, Oct. 15, be kept free from any campus activities, so that the churches may have one uninterrupted evening for holding parties for the students in the church rooms.

Johnny Houston will soon have a report of all student body dances for this year with a list of the chaperones for each one.

Next Meeting October 19.

A letter which will later be given publicity is being sent to the student council from the social affairs committee interpreting the University regulations which concern dancing.

Tuesday, Oct. 19, was set for the next meeting of the committee. At that time a large number of guests will be present, including all the men and women who were patrons and patronesses at dances last year, house chaperones, representatives from organizations giving dances, student council, and all interested standing committees. The purpose of the social affairs committee is to discuss fully the social life at the University.

PHI DELTA PHI TAKES 5

Phi Delta Phi, national honorary law fraternity, has announced the pledging of Ogden Johnson, William Ralston, Forrest Littlefield, Harry Skyrman and George La Roche. Initiations will be held on Halloween night, it is announced. The Chase Inn chapter of the Phi Delta Phi was installed at Oregon last April. There are fifteen active members in the organization, most of whom stay at the new chapter house at 2309 Emerald street.

PRES. P. L. CAMPBELL URGES HONOR SYSTEM IN ASSEMBLY SPEECH

Students Advised to Assume More Responsibilities in School Government.

HOME COMING WEEK-END PLANS OUTLINED

Emerald Editor and Manager to Receive Share of Paper's Earnings.

Appearing before the Associated Students of the University of Oregon at the first business meeting of the college year in Villard hall yesterday morning, President P. L. Campbell urged the adoption of an honor system in student affairs, and, further, urged the students to assume more of the responsibilities of governing the institution. An audience that packed the hall to the doors gave vent to enthusiastic applause at the conclusion of the address.

Because of the fact that Oregon is destined to become in ensuing years a much greater state than it now is, said the President, it will need a high standard of citizenship; a citizenship that will be alive to the public duties and responsibilities and one that will be able to handle them. As prospective leaders in the affairs of the state in years to come, the students were urged to learn all that they could, while in college, of self-government of the higher type. This, the President held—and he said that the rest of the faculty agreed with him—could best be attained by the introduction of an honor system, and a deeper and more intimate knowledge of self-government among the students at the University.

System Will Work Here.

While he admitted the failure of the plan in some of the eastern institutions, he said that it was his belief that the system was generally sound and that it should be able to work happily at Oregon. Some time next month President Campbell expects to visit the so-called fountain-head of the honor system, the University of Virginia, and will make a detailed investigation of affairs as they are at that institution.

John Huston told of the preparations being made for Homecoming week, November 12, 13 and 14, and asked the student body to help in any and every way possible to make the affair successful so that it will be remembered as the best ever held on the campus. Reports from different committee chairman, Wayne Akers, of the campus committee, Don Davis, of the Friday night student body committee, and from Remy Cox, who is handling collegiate debate, were given.

An amendment to the constitution of the Associated Students that will provide for a maximum of $400 to be given each year to both the editor and business manager of the Oregon Daily Emerald as a reward for extra effort in the interests of the publication put forth, providing that the earnings of the paper will cover it, was introduced by Harris Ellsworth, seconded by John Houston, and passed without a dissenting vote. Any amount above the $400 will be divided between the two executives and the A. S. U. O. on a 50-50 basis.

Music from the combined Men's and Women's Glee clubs, under the direction of John Stark Evans, of the school of music, was a feature of the meeting.

OREGON CLUB MEETS

Byron Garrett, president of the Men's Oregon Club, appointed Carl Epping, Wilbur Bolton and Roy Veatch, chairman, on the constitutional committee Tuesday. The committee named to arrange for a smoker consists of Norton Winnard, chairman, Emerald Slogan, and Charles Gratie. The appointment of Phil Brogan, chairman, Glen Walkley and Virgil DeLap on the budget committee was announced by Garrett. These committees are to submit their reports to the next meeting of the Oregon Club, which will be held two weeks from last Monday in the Y. M. hut at 7:15, according to the president.

PLEDGE IS NAMED.

Alpha Tau Omega announces the pledging of Guenter Bickel, of Wasco, Oregon. S-Maralda announces that Herbert T. Hacker has broken his pledge with that organization.

HOME COMING RALLY AND REUNION TO BE CHUCK FULL OF PEP

Committees Completing Plans For Large Attendance of Alumni.

WASHINGTON CONTEST BIG EVENT SATURDAY

Night Clothes Parade Stunts on Program for Friday Before Game.

If plans can be carried out as outlined by the various committees on Homecoming, alumni and friends of the University who will be here for the big events on Friday and Saturday, November 12 and 13, will witness the largest Homecoming ever held at Oregon.

On Friday night preceding the big game with Washington there will be a big rally down town in the nature of a 'night-clothes' parade. Then back to the campus where there will be plenty of enthusiastic speeches on how Oregon won the games in the old days, from coaches Hayward and Huntington as well as from prominent members of the alumni. There will also be a complete schedule of stunts to add to the life of the occasion.

Homecoming Dance Friday Eve.

Saturday, November 13, is the big day. The football game with the University of Washington is of course the big event. In the forenoon will be the alumni reunion which has for many years been one of the features of Homecoming looked forward to by former students and friends of the University. In the evening the big Homecoming dance is scheduled.

The committees on Homecoming have already begun work. The advertising committee, headed by Jack Benefield with Abe Rosenberg and Ray Vester as co-workers, have outlined several plans for letting the people of the state hear about Homecoming at Oregon.

Homecoming will be advertised in the papers throughout the state, and posters will be sent out to the alumni to be placed in show windows of the various towns.

Houses Write Old Men.

The publicity committee, with J. Jacobson as chairman and Curly Lawrence, Eugene Kelly, Guy Sacre, and Arthur Rudd as assistants, are planning on a very effective way of handling all news regarding Homecoming. According to plans, efforts will be made to reach every town in Oregon through the alumni secretary, Charlie Fenton, to ascertain just who will be back for the week-end.

The advertising committee is also working on a novel scheme of having every house on the campus carry on a campaign to get as many of the old graduates back as possible. The plans is for every house to write as many of the old men as possible and tell them about Homecoming, making every effort to persuade them to come back.

Further, the committee on stickers urges every student to get the stickers at the Co-op store at once and put them on every letter.

WEDDINGS ARE MANY

More Names Added to List of Married Students of University.

When the list of benedicts and brides from among the ranks of the students and faculty of the University was printed in the Emerald a few issues ago, a few names were omitted owing, no doubt, to the fact that cupid was so busy during the summer that he was unable to keep his records up to date and is only now getting the last names in.

George Alder of Eugene, a pre-medic student in the University and Miss Ellen Wible of Arcata, California were married on Sunday, August 29. Mrs. Alder, who is a graduate of the Humboldt Normal School, plans to take a course in pipe organ in the school of music next term.

Last Saturday the Mallory Hotel in Portland was the scene of the wedding of Miss Lucille Evans to Urban F. Dite-man, Jr. The bride was a Sophomore here last year and was a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

William Skidmore, graduate fellow, chemistry department, married Elta Dillard, Aug. 20. They are now living at the Hull apartments.

NOV. 11 IS SET FOR MEDAL PRESENTATION

Ex-Service Men Will Receive Awards On Armistice Day Says Commander Dorris.

Official presentation of the Victory Medals to ex-service men will constitute a part of the Armistice Day program now being prepared by the American Legion, according to an announcement made by Ben F. Dorris, commander of the Lane County Post No. 3, of the Legion. Commander Dorris is a member of the class which graduated from the University in 1915. All ex-service men in the University are urged by the commander to send for their medals so as to co-operate with the Legion in the day's program. The announcement follows: "The official presentation of Victory Medals will constitute a part of the program now being prepared by the American Legion for Armistice Day. Ex-service men are urged to send for their medals immediately. This is done by presenting the discharge at the recruiting office. The officer in charge will thereupon send for the medal on behalf of the applicant. After the medal is received by the ex-service man it should be deposited with Harold Beytlen at the Bank of Commerce. On Armistice day the formal presentation will take place and the medal will be returned to the owner. The Legion hopes to have a considerable number of medals to present at this time and urges the ex-service men of the University to co-operate by sending for medals."

CADET BOARD NAMED

Student Officers To Suggest Men for Promotions.

Record of Members Last Year To Be Important Consideration in Selection.

For the purpose of making recommendations of R. O. T. C. members for promotion an advisory board of cadet officers was yesterday appointed by Major Raymond C. Baird, commandant. In the drill work so far this year appointments as non-commissioned officers have been merely temporary. This board will advise all of the permanent appointments. First Sergeant Robert M. Martin is a member of the board in an advisory capacity, and the other members are Major Arnold H. Koepke, Captain Byron O. Garrett, Captain William P. Allyn, Captain John Gamble, Jr., and Captain Emerald F. Sloan.

As outlined by Sergeant Martin the plan is to have the company officers send a list of men whose work has been especially commendable to the advisory board, who will conduct an examination and make the recommendations for promotion.

The record of the cadet for last year will be the important factor in the selection of men to be examined.

The plan has never been used here before, but the military instructors believe that it will promote greater efficiency in the selection of non-commissioned officers.

There is a large increase in the number of students enrolled in the R. O. T. C. this year, and more interest is being shown in the work by the cadets. The Bolshevik attitude is not so evident among the ranks as last year. Major Baird plans to enlarge the scope of the military department, placing the sophomores, who have had a year's training, in positions of instruction to the freshmen. Among other things, more rifle practice on the range is planned.

WARNER'S FATHER DIES

Major Murray Warner, Well Known Engineer, Stricken at San Francisco.

Major Murray Warner, father of Sam Bass Warner of the school of law, died Saturday in San Francisco after he had been stricken with a sudden illness while playing golf.

This sad news was contained in a telegram received by Professor Warner Saturday afternoon, and Mr. and Mrs. Warner immediately left for the Bay City.

Major Warner, emergency officer in the United States engineer corps, was well-known in the engineering world and during the war had charge of the building of Camp Dix, New York, one of the largest cantonments in the United States. Previous to his military work he was in charge of large engineering projects in China.

McCLAIN HOPES TO GET TRACK MEET FOR MAY

Conference Event May Come Here During Junior Week-End if Possible

Six varsity football games, three of which are to take place on the campus grounds, will make up the 1920 football season, according to the announcement made yesterday afternoon by Graduate Manager Marion McClain.

The first game is scheduled for this coming Saturday when Oregon will meet Multnomah club of Portland. On October 23 the next game will be played here with the University of Idaho.

October 30, the lemon-yellow will journey to Palo Alto where they will meet Stanford. On November 13 the homecoming game against the University of Washington will be played here.

The Oregon-Aggie game will not be played on Eugene ground. Oregon will go to Corvallis November 20 to meet the O. A. C. gridsters. The last game of the season will be played on the historic Tournament of Roses field at Pasadena, when Oregon battles with the University of Southern California Thanksgiving Day.

These schedules will be definitely arranged at the Pacific Coast conference early in December directly following the close of the football season. At this conference, the winner of the football conference will be announced. Freshman football schedules will be completed in a few days.

O. A. C. Track Meet Here.

"We have every assurance," said Manager McClain, "that the O. A. C.-Oregon track meet will be held in Eugene this year." The track meet with the University of Washington, will also be held here in present plans materialize.

A special effort is being made to secure the Pacific Coast Conference track meet here during Junior Week-end, states Manager McClain. During the past three years it has been held successively at the University of California, University of Washington and Stanford. "We feel," said Mr. McClain, "that Oregon is next in line and we will be fully prepared to handle the meet."

ARCHITECTURE CLUB HOLDS OPEN HOUSE

Faculty and Students Join in Informal Meeting.

About fifty members of the faculty and student body of the University were present at the open house held by the Architecture Club Wednesday evening in the exhibit room of the Architecture building, according to Lyle Bartholomew, president of the club. The affair was informal, the evening being spent in conversation and in the inspection of the exhibition of work of the schools of fine arts, architecture, and normal art.

During the evening Miss Frederika Schilke sang a soprano solo accompanied by Leone Gregory; Mrs. Avard Fairbanks gave two readings, and Madame George Reed played two selections on the piano. Among those present were Professor and Madame Reed, Professor F. H. Miles, Dean and Mrs. Ellis F. Lawrence, Professor and Mrs. Percy Adams, Professor and Mrs. Avard Fairbanks, Professor H. M. King, Miss Helen Rhodes and Miss Avakain. The invitations for the gathering included all those students and faculty who are interested in fine arts or architecture.

STANFORD NOT TO ROW.

No appropriations at Stanford for the maintenance of a rowing crew has compelled the graduate manager's office to withdraw plans.
