

SOCIETY

Ruth Young, a former student of the University and resident of Eugene, was married to J. Ralph Beck of South Bend, Washington, on October 7, in Seattle. Mrs. Beck spent two years at the University of Oregon. She was graduated in June, 1920, from the University of Washington, where she spent her senior year. While at Oregon, Mrs. Beck was a member of Alpha Phi fraternity, and was very active in dramatics, where she has unusual talent. She was president of Mask and Buskin, local chapter of the Associated University Players, and in her Junior year was elected to Scroll and Script, local honorary woman's organization.

Mr. Beck is a graduate of the Oregon Agricultural School of the class of 1919 and is a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

The sophomores of Kappa Alpha Theta sponsored a very charming dinner dance Friday night for their new pledges. The guests for the evening were Robert Hadley, Edward Herman, John Rickard, Ralph Burgess, Dean Ireland, Hall Smith, Lot Beattie, Ben Reed, Ase Eggleston, Gene Kelly, Rodney Belknap, Clifford Carlson, Desmond Cudlipp, Hobart Keiknap, George Sensenich, Harland Gram, Don Newbury and George Bronough.

Miss Virginia Gilles, who has been visiting on the campus for the last two weeks returned home Sunday.

Miss Roberta Scheubal, a prominent alumna of Alpha Phi has been visiting on the campus. Miss Scheubal is interested in Chautauqua work for the Ellison-White Co., but intends to re-enter school next term.

Mrs. Frank Barrett, nee Marjorie Holman, of Seattle, was a house guest here for first week, as were the Misses Helen Houghten, Marjorie Kay, Bernice Craig and Era Godfrey.

Chi Omega entertained their local Alumnae chapter Tuesday evening. Those present were Mrs. Helen Martin, Mrs. Gladys Wilkins McCreddie, Mrs. H. D. Sheldon, Mrs. P. E. Snodgrass, Mrs. Harold Cockerline, Mrs. Herbert Rhome, Mrs. Ruby Goodrich, Mrs. Fred Stickle, Mrs. Rae Jenkins and Miss Burgess.

Sunday dinner guests at the Delta Gamma house were Robert Cosgriff, Austin Hazard, William Coleman, Raymond Vester, Bill Rhinehart, Alden Bennett and Raymond Douglass.

Delta Delta Delta held initiation Sunday for Midge Nelson, Maybelle Ramond and Irene Barrett. A banquet at the chapter house followed.

an event of Sunday. Only the new Sigma Kappa was host for a sister dinner Sunday. The guests were Dorothy Eakin, Priscilla Eakin, Merle Hamilton, Annamay Bronough, Gladys Everett, Doris Churchill, Eva Randall, Grace Peck, Miss MacManus, Mr. and Mrs. Marion McClain were honor guests.

The Phi Delta Theta sister dinner was held on the campus were present, including Elizabeth Strowbridge, Jessie Gamble, Ethel Durno, Jane Campbell, Elizabeth Torrey, Josephine Woods, Crystal Stearns and Margaret Murphy. President and Mrs. Campbell, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hall were chaperones.

Sigma Nu also entertained with a sister dinner Sunday. Those honored were Geraldine King, Daisy Gouchner, Leta Kiddle, Lyle Bryson, Helen Madden, Wanna McKinney, Jeannette Hogan, Dorothy Dixon, Dorothy Graham, Dorothy Wootten, and Doris Hoefler.

Sigma Nus from O. A. C. who visited at the chapter house here over the weekend were Albert Hodler, Maurice Snook, Bob Stewart, Robert Brandes, John Crout and Step Briner.

Dinner guests at the Delta Tau Delta house this week were Frank Krippen, Dean and Mrs. Straub, Merle Thorn and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Spearow.

Two engagements that come as a surprise to many campus people are those of Mauna Loa Fallis and Floyd Bowles, and Irva Smith and Rollin Woodruff. Mauna Loa Fallis was a student at the University last year and of the most prominent girls of the freshman class. Miss Fallis is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma and the honor society of Kawama. Mr. Bowles is a member of Kappa Sigma and is a Junior this year.

Friday evening at a prettily appointed dinner at the chapter house of Sigma Delta Phi, Miss Irva Smith announced her engagement to Rollin Woodruff. Miss Smith is an Alumna of Sigma Delta Phi, Kawama and Scroll and Script. She was a girl of rare capability and very active in campus affairs during her four years here. Rollin Woodruff is a member of Delta Tau Delta.

CLASSES IN HOCKEY ON

Teams Planned to Represent Four Student Groups.

Weather Not Yet Favorable to Practice Experience Unnecessary, Says Coach.

Hockey teams to represent the freshmen, sophomore and upper classes will be organized in the near future if a sufficient number of girls turn out to practice. Miss Emma Waterman, instructor in hockey, announces that practices will be held every evening at 4:15. Regular hockey classes meet Monday, Wednesday and Friday, but she has arranged for special class practices Tuesday and Thursday afternoons at the same hour. Any girl who is interested may attend any of these classes.

"Thus far, the weather, especially at 4:15 in the afternoon, has not been suitable for practicing," said Miss Waterman, "but if it ever clears up, we shall be able to have some good practices and I should like to have a large number each evening."

Experience is not necessary, she says, since the majority of the girls are beginners. The first practices this week were poorly attended, but it is hoped that the promise of class teams will arouse interest. Miss Waterman states that a varsity team may be organized but, owing to a late start and unsettled weather, she doubts if it will be possible this season.

Oregon Victorious; Multnomah Beat 7-0

Blake and Hoisington showed that they are to be reckoned with in the selection of men for the first-string berths.

Oregon Defense Ragged.

Oregon's defensive work was extremely ragged at times, and the Lemon-Yellow line allowed the Multnomah forward defense to break through several times and sneer the Oregon backfield before they were started. Oregon's interference running proved effectual against the visitors in the game, although few long end runs were attempted. Both Multnomah and Oregon stuck closely to line smashes and off-tackle bucks.

A crowd of about 2000 students were in attendance and the student support was all that could be asked for. Between halves the time honored custom of the serpentine was carried out under the direction of Yell Leader Keeney, assisted by Ireland and Nunn.

Referee "Sam" Dolan handled the official position in his usual satisfactory way, and there were no complaints from this end of the game Saturday. "Bill" Schmitt officiated as umpire, and Everett May acted as head linesman.

The following lineup started the game Saturday:

Oregon	Position	Multnomah
Howard	le.	Ratcliff
Leslie, E.	lt.	DeCicco, P.
Ward	lg.	Nelson
Leslie, K.	c.	DeCicco, M.
