

CAST IS SELECTED FOR BARKER PLAY

"Prunella" to Be Given in Guild Hall, Dec. 2-3.

CHARACTERS TOTAL 21

Story of Mummer Life Dreamy in Atmosphere.

Parts for "Prunella," a fantasy by Granville Barker, were cast among the members of The Company, Monday afternoon. The play will be given in Guild Theatre December 2 and 3, with a special matinee for children on the afternoon of the 4th.

Prunella, or Love in a Dutch Garden, is a beautiful play in three acts, concerning the life of the mummies, or wandering players. Prunella has been reared by her old aunts who have kept her from the world in seclusion. She does not know what love is until the coming of Perrot, a leader among the mummies. He meets her in the garden and there urges her to leave with him. She consents. Afterwards Perrot suddenly believes that he has ceased to love her; as she becomes aware of this she leaves him.

Festive Reunion Failure.

After some years the mummies gather at the garden for a festive reunion, but no one is happy because there seems to be something lacking. Finally Perrot is forced to realize that after all he was in love with Prunella. At last she returns to the garden in the guise of a beggar, but is unrecognized by the mummies. When her identity is known she is made welcome.

The atmosphere of the play is very dreamy and well adapted to lighting and musical effects. With the scenery repainted and new equipment ready for its production, it promises to be one of the best things produced in Guild Hall this year.

Cast For Play.

The cast is as follows: Perrot, Norvell Thompson; Scaramel, Ford Wallace; Hawk, Harold Brown; Kernel, Glen Hyde; Callow, Verne Fudge; Mouth, Claire Keeney; Tenor, George Stearns; First Gardener, Elgie Altimus; Second Gardener, Ervin Ludeman; Third Gardener, Reuel Moore; Boy, Victor Setter; Prunella, Helen Casey; Prim, Martha Rice; Prude, Dorothy Wootton; Privacy, Loeta Rogers; Queer, Dorothy Jameson; Quaint, Helen Madden; Doll, Doris Pittenger; Romp, Marion Taylor; Tawdry, Marion Gilstrap; Coquette, Irene Stewart.

A S U O HEAD HONORED

Seabeck Conference to be Held Again Next Year.

Carlton Savage Elected Secretary of Student Government Association; W. S. C. Man President.

Carlton Savage, president of the A. S. U. O., was elected secretary-treasurer of the Northwest Student Government association at the conference held at Seabeck, Washington, on June 19-23. Dave Hartz, president of the W. S. C. student body, was elected president of this association.

The representatives to this conference were the student body presidents, editors and other prominent members of the student bodies of fourteen colleges of the Northwest. Harry A. Smith and Savage are Oregon's representatives.

According to Carlton Savage, the purpose of the association is to maintain friendly relations between the colleges of the Northwest. The members of this organization hope to do much in the promotion of student government, clean athletics and forensics.

All proposed conflicts between colleges of the organization will be put in the hands of the secretary, who will present them to the association for its opinion.

The conference will be held at Seabeck again next June. The state colleges having representatives last year were U. of O., O. A. C. U. of L. U. of W., and W. S. C. The smaller colleges represented were McMinnville, Whitman, Spokane, Willamette, Idaho, Reed, Pacific College, Pacific University and Whitworth College.

PLEDGES ANNOUNCED.

Zeta Rho Epsilon announces the pledging of Florence Fursut, of Springfield, Ore., and Josephine Woods, of Woodland, California.

Beta Theta Pi announces the pledging of Curtis Phillips, of Portland.

VOSPER TEACHES ENGLISH.

E. E. ("Ernie") Vosper, who as a member of the class of '15, spent nearly three years at Oregon, has just been appointed instructor of English for foreigners in the Oakland night schools, according to word received Monday by President Campbell. While here Vosper was yell king and was later married to Helene Delano, '18.

DE BUSK AND POWERS TO TALK TO TEACHERS

Faculty Men to Lecture Before Douglas County Teachers' Institute This Week

Dr. B. W. DeBusk, professor in the education department, and Alfred Powers, assistant director in the extension division, will each give a series of lectures at the Douglas County Teacher's Institute to be held at Roseburg, October 13th, 14th, and 15th. About 200 teachers will be in attendance, according to Mr. Powers.

On Wednesday, October 13th, Dr. DeBusk will deliver four lectures, "The Ne'er Do Well," "The Psychology of Learning," "Conditions That Affect Mental Activity," and "The Mind in Health and Disease."

On Thursday, October 14, Mr. Powers will speak on "Geography as a Live Subject," "The Teacher and the Community," and "Martyrdom or Efficiency in English Teaching."

It is the custom of the Oregon Alumni of Douglas County to meet during the annual institutes. There generally are 25 members at these meetings.

UNIVERSITY SINGERS IN EUGENE'S CHOIRS

Many of Faculty and Students of School of Music Aid in Churches on Sunday.

Every Sunday the citizens of Eugene are able to bear witness to the excellence of the work of the university School of Music, for many of the faculty members and students have positions in the church choirs of the town.

Madame Rose McGrew is soprano soloist in the choir of the Methodist church. John Stark Evans, professor of organ in the School of Music, is organist and director of the choir in the same church. George Hopkins also occupies a position in this choir.

Laura Rand, president of the Girls' Glee Club, sings in the choir of the Christian Science church. Vera Shaver sings contralto in the quartet of the Methodist church choir, and Glen Morrow sings bass in the same quartet.

PRACTICE WORK DONE

New Buildings Furnish Opportunity for Architecture Majors.

The new buildings springing up on the campus are furnishing considerable practice work for the students majoring in Architecture.

The Architecture Club, under the direction of Professor Miles, plans to go over all these buildings twice each week and make progress reports to Dean Lawrence, head architect of the whole building program.

Under the supervision of Professor Reed, they will figure the amount of radiation and size of pipes necessary to heat these buildings properly.

The four buildings receiving their particular attention are the second unit of Hendricks Hall, the women's open air gymnasium, the new Educational building and the new Commerce building.

WRITERS START CLUB

Portland Correspondents Meet and Plan to Organize.

At a meeting of University correspondents of Portland papers held in Dean Allen's office Tuesday afternoon it was decided to form a club and meet at least once a month to talk over ideas. Alfred Powers, assistant director of the Extension division of the University and half time worker in the School of Journalism, will work with the correspondents. J. Jacobson, chairman of the Homecoming publicity, outlined the plan for homecoming news and explained the idea which will be followed in this respect. Those enrolled in the club are Eugene Kelly and Raymond Lawrence, Oregonian; Guy Sacre, Evening Telegram; Arthur Rudd, Oregon Journal.

TORREY VISITS OAKLAND.

Dr. Harry B. Torrey, head of the Department of Zoology, was a week-end visitor at Ashland, Oregon, for the purpose of inspecting the work of the department of biology of the Ashland high school.

Patronize Emerald advertisers

Phone 141
City Messenger Service
Messengers
39 E. 7th J. C. GRANT, Mgr.

Club Shoe Shine
For Ladies and Gents.
Next to the Rainbow.

Stationery You Like

Those exquisite Styles, Shapes and Designs are most pleasing to the user and also gives to your correspondence. YOU will be DELIGHTED to use them. They come in white and various tints and are handsome productions. WE will be pleased to show them to you.

TONE

CRESSEY'S

Booksellers & Stationers
Eugene Theatre Building.
660 Willamette Street.

CLUB Barber Shop

The place that you return to.

Willamette—
Just Off 8th.

CHARLEY'S PLACE

982 Willamette

Roasted Peanuts
Mother's Candy
Buttered Popcorn

Your Films Are Safe In Our Hands.

DEVELOPING OUR BUSINESS
ANDERSON'S FILM SHOP.

Opposite Rex Theatre.

Forry Watson

Exclusive College Dance

Friday Night

In the newly decorated

Old Armory Building

Get Your Date. Don't Miss This One.

Delightful is the Feeling

That you receive when perfect satisfaction and pleasure is obtained through the medium of SERVICE.

All of our Confectionery, Pastry, Lunches and Drinks have the brand of Purity on them.

The RAINBOW

H. BURGOYNE, Prop.

STYLE HEADQUARTERS

Where Society Brand Clothes are sold

© A. D. & C., 1920

Why we sell Society Brand Clothes

Because you should buy them

When a man puts on Society Brand Clothes he, in a measure of speech, steps entirely out from the crowd of commonplace clothes wearers—he becomes a style leader.

Society Brand Clothes give distinction of appearance through their skill and good judgment in tailoring. It is tailoring without fancy trimming—tailoring without a flaw.

We find that the men who think ahead of the crowd like Society Brand Clothes—for their style value, their wear value and the ease with which they can purchase a correct-fitting suit or overcoat.

GREEN'S
MEN'S WEAR