R. O. T. C. TO MARCH IN TODAY'S PARADE

Entire Corps to Take Part In Armistice Program.

The entire R. O. T. C. together with the military staff on duty here will march in the Armistice Day parade this morning.

All cadets will assemble at the R. O. T. C. building at 9:15 and be ready to march in full uniform at 9:30. Sub-organizations will march in the following order:

Military Staff; Band; Battalion Commander and Staff; Companies A, B, C, and D.

Company B will be color company.

From the barracks the corps will march to Thirteenth street and then to the library, where the faculty and student body will join in. The march will continue down Thirteenth street to Pearl, from Pearl north to Seventh, from Seventh west to Oak, from Oak north to Sixth, west to Willamette, south on Willamette to Seventh and then to the Armory. Here the representatives of lodges and other organizations and townspeople will have assembled and the big parade will begin. At 11:00 the parade will return to the Armory where appropriate exercises will be given until 11:45. The cadet corps will march back to the barracks and be dismissed by Major Koepke.

Men having Victory medals are requested to bring these so they may be formally presented during the exercises at the Armory.
