

HOME COMING IS YOUNG TRADITION

service. With this idea in view a special effort was made to reach all the service men, and invite them to attend. Many men in camps nearby were granted furloughs for this Homecoming visit.

The outcome of the game looked uncertain for Oregon because the Oregon boys were outweighed 13 pounds to a man, and were also lacking in experience. The golden state eleven had had a brilliant season and expected to walk off with an Oregon victory. Bezdek admitted that things looked dubious. However, Oregon again showed what she was made of by piling up a score of 21-0.

Bill Steers was the star of the game, going 60 yards to a touchdown on one occasion. This Oregon victory marked the 39th anniversary of Dean Straub's arrival on the Oregon campus.

Omitted in 1918.

There was no Homecoming in the year 1918, because of the war and the influenza epidemic.

Thus we come to last year and the 1919 Homecoming, when, to start the ball rolling, a Homecoming slogan contest was started by Herald White, chairman of the Homecoming committee. Many catchy phrases were turned in but finally, "Home to Win Again, Oregon" was chosen.

Five thousand Homecoming stickers were printed to be used for advertising purposes, and everyone wrote to all the old students they knew, urging them to come back and make this after-the-war Homecoming a thing to be remembered and talked about for years to come. Circulars containing programs for the week-end were sent out, and arrangements made to have tickets for the game on sale in Portland so that the alumni could secure their seats in advance.

Houses Work Up Stunts.

The men's organizations on the campus were working hard on a stunt show which was given following the pee-rade on Friday evening before the frosh bonfire. Speaking of the frosh bonfire, it was an immense affair. The order of the wearers of the green cap had worked for days bringing material to the fire, and were guarding it carefully from being set ablaze before the appointed time.

The "O" on Skinner's Butte was also carefully watched to keep it free from Orange paint.

Now the secret is out, for nobody may remember it, last year OREGON PLAYED O. A. C. That was why excitement was so high, that was the reason for the two special trains from Portland to bring the alumni, for the big Homecoming luncheon, for the rally, for the dance, for the whole celebration, because the Oregon Aggies were out to break the "once every ten years" tradition.

New Field is Feature.

There was a new field, good weather, prospects of 6000 visitors and Sby's veteran eleven. Many of the alumni came and attended the big rally and bonfire Friday night. They were registered Saturday morning, and looked over the new campus. Saturday noon they crowded the gym for the Homecoming luncheon, which was under the direction of Jeannette Moss.

At noon on Saturday the special train from Corvallis arrived, bearing 3000 followers of the orange and black. They paraded down Willamette street and up Thirteenth street to Hayward field, all the time crying their slogan to "Squeeze that lemon."

Whoever saw that game will never forget it—not only the score which was 9 to 0 in Oregon's favor, but the way every man on the team played for Oregon.

Rooters Have Great Contest.

Oregon's two alternate quarterbacks,

Steers and Manerud, were the great ground gainers for the University. Hollis Huntington made Oregon's first touchdown. Everett Brandenburg was captain of the Oregon team, and "Butts" Reardon of the O. A. C. team.

The yelling from both sides was superb, and between halves the visitors and the Oregon students serpentine out on the field. It was a clean game, and a good game, of which both schools could well be proud.

The 1919 Homecoming was heralded as the biggest and best ever — which claim was true, is true, and will be true until after Sunday evening, November 14, 1920, when the latest chapter in Homecoming history will be complete.

MISS M'CORNACK IS ILL

New Gymnasium Instructor Convalescent in Portland.

Miss Mabel L. Cummings just received a letter from Mary McCornack, class of '20, who is convalescent after an operation in the Good Samaritan hospital for some time yet. Miss McCornack has been elected a member of the staff in the school of physical education here, but will not be able to take up her duties until the beginning of the spring term.

MU PHI TO FURNISH ASSEMBLY PROGRAM

Sextet to Sing Accompanied by Violin Piano and Flute; November 18 Is Date Announced.

The University chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon, national music sorority, will have charge of the program for Assembly on November 18.

Music for the day will be furnished by a sextet composed of: Mrs. William Case, Miss Charlotte Banfield, Mrs. C. A. Whitten, Mrs. T. A. Larremore, Laura Rand and Genevieve Clancy. The accompaniment will be supplied by a trio composed of: Aurora Potter, piano; Alberta Potter, violin; and Beulah Clark, flute.

The opening number on the program will be the national Mu Phi Epsilon song, "Our Triangle," says Mrs. T. A. Larremore, director of the sextet. Other numbers on the program will be Oregon songs.

Assembly in charge of Mu Phi Epsilon is a yearly affair, although last year owing to a mix-up of dates it was not given, according to Fern Murphy, president of the local organization.
