

FOURTEEN SOCCERITES OFF FOR CORVALLIS

Squad Chosen by Coach Dymont to Battle With Aggie Eleven This Morning.

Fourteen soccer players leave for Corvallis at 7:30 this morning to play the Aggies. Although the men who are to go to O. A. C. were chosen by Coach Dymont last night, no positions have yet been assigned. Schmeer, Tuerck, Madden, McPherson, Patterson, King, Brogan, Potter, Koerber, Staton, Wallace, Ingalls and Capps will make the trip.

Rumor from the north says that O. A. C. has a wonderful forward line made up of players noted in Portland soccer circles, and one man who played the great European game in Spain.

of the persistent interruption to college work, but recommended to the faculty that an authorized dance in the men's gymnasium, from 4 to 6 p. m. only, be permitted next Monday afternoon in event of victory only. The council last year passed a resolution, also, condemning unauthorized rallies.

In view of the fact that this recommendation came from the student council, and that the faculty desires to develop self-government in the student body to the point at which the students may ultimately take over their government altogether, the recommendation was concurred in.

The faculty ruled, however, that those students in law, physical education, romance languages, and other departments, who have classes during the 4 to 6 o'clock period, must attend classes as usual.

The student council and faculty meetings were largely attended.

HARVARD SQUAD STRONG.

Coach Rol Roper of Princeton has picked the Harvard eleven as the strongest squad in the east this year. He is of the opinion that the present team is stronger than last year's aggregation.

CORVALLIS TO TELL

est fought that either team has been in this season. The so-called "psychological effect" may of course beat the Aggies, but even the Aggies give this theory the horse laugh. The "psychological effect" will not help either the Aggies or Oregon today. If anything defeats either team exclusive of the playing ability it will probably be the mud. O. A. C. has a gridiron in a mud flat which will surpass anything on the Pacific coast, and the rains of the past few days have tended to increase its fine quality.

Practically the same line-up that started against the Sun Dodgers on Hayward field last Saturday will start against the Aggies today. In the backfield will be Captain Bill Steers at quarterback; George King at fullback and Nish Chapman and Bill Reinhart at halves. Reinhart is playing at left half in place of Pete Mead who started the Washington game. In the line will be Morfitt and Howard at ends; Spike Leslie and Shields at tackles; Strachan and Mautz at guards and Brick Leslie at center. Hill, Mead, Holmes, Jacobberger and Blake may get a chance at the backfield while the substitute linemen are F. Shields, Vonder Ahe, Brown, Laughlin, McKinney and Starr.
