CONSISTENCY SAID TO BE ONE VIRTUE OF TROJAN ELEVEN

U. S. C. Football Aggregation So Far Undeclared This Season.

MAY REPRESENT WEST IN PASADENA CLASSIC

Thanksgiving Day Game With Oregon Not Regarded As Walkaway.

By Carl Farman.
(Pacific Intercollegiate News Service)
University of Southern California, Nov. 19.—(Special).—Having won four football games without losing any, the University of Southern California's football squad remains as one of the two undefeated university elevens on the Pacific coast and as one of the two conceded to stand a chance to represent the West against the East next New Year's day at Pasadena.

This is the most that can be said on the subject in favor of the southern team, for its chances now seem slight as compared with the hopes of the California Bears, who apparently have a team unequalled for strength by any California university for many years. Compared with Stanford, the Trojan hopes are more brightly tinged, for the Cards have been humbled by them on Bovard field by a score of 10 to 0, but even here another game would call for even betting, since the Stanford team has been strengthened by new men since their early defeat.

Early Play Effective.

One thing which is undoubtedly true of the U. S. C. eleven is its consistency. Early in the season they lived up to favorable advance notices by defeating the California Institute of Technology team 47 to 7. Their opponents have shown themselves powerful by later victories, so that this early showing of the Trojans is perhaps the most favorable on their calendar to date. A week after the California Tech game, Stanford was defeated by a 10 to 0 score, both teams displaying a game which left much room for improvement.

So far all was well and prosperous, for no varsity can be expected to show wonderful form early in the season, but when Occidental was defeated 48 to 7, the following Saturday, the Trojan style of play was scarcely an improvement over the first game, a consistency which has worried the varsity supporters here who have expected a championship team for the fall of 1920. The victory was decisive, it is true, and Occidental always has a fairly good team, but the S. C. teamwork was poor.

On October 30, the Southern California pigskin manipulators played Pomona College on the latter's field and barely came out in front, winning 7 to 0. The keynote of the play on S. C.'s part was consistent mediocrity except when in a crisis. Then the style of play improved remarkably and looked like "real" championship form. The Pomona eleven outdid itself in teamwork and brilliant play, forcing the fall three times to the ten yard line and once to the one-yard line, at which critical stages the Trojan defense showed a strength that made the Sageshens puny in comparison.

Ability Yet To Be Shown.

In justice to the team here, it must be admitted that although thus far they have shown little wonderful calibre, they have in Elmer C. Henderson a coach who does not permit his men to run up a large score, and who does not bring the team into its full powers until late in the season. Working on this theory, one might arrive at the conclusion that the Trojans may win, and thus earn the right to a post-season contest with California, the team which at this time seems sure of the conference championship. This game will probably be the best of the Southern California season, since there is still a feud existing between the Bears and Trojans on account of last season's 14 to 13 score in favor of Berkeley.

Before the season is ended with a clean slate, however, two teams must be

Y. M. AND Y. W. PLAN THANKSGIVING PARTY

Regular Old-Fashioned Evening To Be Staged for Those Who Remain Over Holidays.

Moving pictures are to be a feature of the Thanksgiving party to be given at the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday evening by the Y. W. and Y. M. for all of the students who stay on the campus over the holidays. Blanche Sweet will be shown in "Fighting Cressy." This is quite a new thing, but according to Miss Dinsdale, the plans are to continue it up and have a party every two weeks where movies will be shown.

The first part of the evening will be a regular old-fashioned Thanksgiving party. The event is in charge of Beatrice Wetherbee and John Houston. A small admission price will be charged to defray the expense of getting the picture here.

The pictures are secured from the Pathe people in Portland.

DARTMOUTH CLAIMS STRONG BACKFIELD

Easterners Are Confident of Victory in North.

(Pacific Intercollegiate News Service)
University of Washington, Seattle, November 23.—Dartmouth is again in the running for the first ranks of Atlantic coast football, following her victories over Cornell, Pennsylvania and Brown in the past few weeks, and the Green is feeling quite confident of victory over the University of Washington in the east-west classic to be played here following the dedication of Washington's stadium on Saturday, November 27.

The exceptional backfield of the eastern eleven is the cause for much of the favorable comment that Dartmouth has been getting from eastern sport writers. The Dartmouth squad have left Providence for this city, and will arrive Wednesday, November 24. The men expect to arrive in good condition and to put up a great game against the Sun Dodgers.

Saturday, November 27, the day Washington takes on Dartmouth in the opening game in Washington's new stadium will be a city holiday, according to a proclamation issued last week by Mayor Hugh M. Caldwell, and graduate manager Darwin Meisnest is preparing for the largest crowd in the history of northwest athletics to attend the game. Precautions to prevent ticket scalping are being taken by the student officers. The sale of tickets is being limited to six to each person.

O. A. C. WINS X-COUNTRY

Glenn Walkley, running for the University of Oregon, crossed the finish tape 200 yards ahead of his O. A. C. opponents in the annual cross country race, staged between the distance runners of the two schools at Corvallis Saturday. Walkley also won the distance event from the Aggie runners last year at Eugene. His time was 14 minutes and 34 seconds and although Oregon finished in first and second places, Guy Koepf finishing right behind Walkley, the Aggies were conceded the race on points.

The score was Oregon 29 and O. A. C. 26 points, the team with the least number of points winning the race. The order in which the runners crossed the tape follows: Walkley, Oregon, first; Koepf, Oregon, second; Hobart, O. A. C., third; Newhouse, O. A. C., fourth; Whitliffe, O. A. C., fifth; Sims, O. A. C., sixth; Schaeffer, Oregon, seventh; Ford, O. A. C., eighth; Davis, Oregon, ninth.

INSTITUTES CALL OREGON MEN.

Professor F. L. Stetson, of the school of education, and John C. Almack, assistant director of the extension division, have attended the Polk county teachers institute which convened November 17, 18, 19. The University will be represented at the Yamhill county institute by Earl Kilpatrick, Alfred Powers, and John C. Almack, all of the extension division. This institute was held in McMinnville on the same dates as the one in Polk county.

ANNUAL GRID CLASH WITH OREGON AGGIES IS SCORELESS GAME

Soggy and Slippery Field at Corvallis Is Blamed for 0-0 Result.

O. A. C. OUT-FOUGHT BY LEMON-YELLOW MEN

Beavers Fail to Conquer When Within Inches of Goal; Block Place-kick

By Floyd Maxwell.

The 24th annual football game between the University of Oregon and the Oregon Aggies, will go down in the annals of football, scoreless for either team. The fifth tie game between the two state institutions is now history and the slow, ponderous, Aggie eleven with the aid of their soggy, slippery gridiron is celebrating the fact that they held the University of Oregon team for no score.

Pandemonium reigns on the O. A. C. campus and rally after rally is celebrating the fact that the Aggies tied Oregon, for has not Oregon defeated the Aggies 15 times in 24 games and is this not the fifth tie game between the two institutions? Yes, pandemonium should reign on the O. A. C. campus for it was as good as a victory to the hearts of the Aggie rooters, to see their team tie Oregon.

The Corvallis gridiron was all that had been predicted, heavy with a sticky mire and covered with a thin layer of sawdust which only served to fool the runner into believing he was on solid footing. On such a field the fast aggressive style of play which Oregon has so characterized her playing with this year, was practically useless. Captain "Bill" Steers, halfbacks Reinhart and Chapman and fullback King slipped and fell time after time when not an Aggie man was near them and the heavier line of the Aggies had merely to dig in their cleats and brace themselves. No team could make yardage on such a gridiron. Oregon scored first downs from scrimmage five times during the game to an equal number of times for the Aggies. Oregon was robbed of 40 yards for penalties, the Aggies lost 15 yards from this cause. Oregon completed two forward passes, the Aggies completed the same number. "Bill" Steers averaged 40 yards from punts, for Oregon, "Hughie" McKenna averaged 34 yards in his punts.

Out-playing the Aggies in every department of the game with the exception of the breaks, Oregon would have defeated the Aggies three touchdowns on a dry or turf field. The entire Aggie eleven showed the effects of having been coached to play a defensive game throughout. This they did. The only man in the Aggie backfield who could make yardage through the Oregon team was "Hughie" McKenna, the diminutive quarterback, who by reason of his slight stature, twisted and squirmed through the Oregon line for a few substantial gains. Y. W. OF O. A. C. HONORS GIRLS FROM OREGON

Luncheon Prepared for Eleven, But Five Fail to Arrive on Account of Car Trouble.

Only six members of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet reached Corvallis in time to attend the luncheon given for them by the O. A. C. girls last Saturday. The other five girls, including the president of the association, Marjorie Holaday, and Miss Tirza Dinsdale, secretary, who started from Eugene, were stranded by the roadside while the cars in which they were riding underwent repairs. They did arrive, however, in time for the game. The luncheon was given in the room of Monroe Hall and the girls all said that it was a very charming affair.

Miss Dinsdale compared notes with the Y. W. secretary at Corvallis and found out that we have a larger membership on the Oregon campus than they have in spite of their larger enrollment.

BILL STEERS NOT TO ACCOMPANY VARSITY TEAM TO PASADENA

Oregon Football Captain Is Called to The Dalles by Father's Injury.

U. S. C. TERRITORY INVADED BY 15 MEN

Battle to be Staged on Same Field as Harvard Mix Last Year.

Captain Bill Steers will not play in the University of Southern California game at Pasadena on Thanksgiving day.

The announcement was made at The Dalles last night by Steers, who was called to his home town on account of the serious injury of his father, who was almost fatally injured in an automobile accident Friday night. Notwithstanding this fact, Steers played through the O. A. C. game, leaving immediately afterward for The Dalles.

The team which will meet Southern California Thursday left Eugene at noon Sunday.

Fifteen men made the trip on the special car. Bill Reinhart, Nish Chapman, George King, Pete Mead, Mart Howard, "Spike" Leslie, Carl Mautz, "Brick" Leslie, "Scotty" Strachan, "Tiny" Shields, Neil Morfitt, "Busher" Blake, Rudd, Carl Vonder Ahe and Bart Laughlin composed the squad which will uphold Oregon Fight on Turkey day. The team will arrive at their destination today and will stage a light practice this afternoon. Final practice will be held tomorrow.

The game will be played on the same field as the Harvard-Oregon classic of last New Year's day. The University of Southern California stands undefeated this season and is one of the two strongest contestants on the coast for the right to battle with the championship eleven of the east this year.

A crowd of several hundred students escorted the varsity to the train. As it pulled out a roaring time-honored Oskie gave the men full assurance that, though 500 miles away, the hearts of the Oregon students are with them in one of the biggest battles of the year.

THREE TEAMS KEEP AHEAD IN LEAGUE

Owls, Kappa Sigs, Fijis Remain Unbeaten.

Doughnut League Standing.
Team	W.	L.
Owl Club	4	0
Kappa Sigma	3	0
Fijis	3	0
A. T. O.	4	1
Sigma Chi	4	1
S. A. E.	2	1
Sigma Nu	2	2
Deltas	2	2
Oregon Club	2	3
Friendly Hall	1	3
Phi Delt	1	3
Beta	1	4
Bachelordon	1	4
Delta Theta Pi	0	3
S-Maralda	0	4

Sigma Nu defeated Bachelordon 19-16, Sigma Chi triumphed over Beta Theta Pi 20-17, and the Oregon club soundly trounced Delta Theta Pi 38-5 in the three games of doughnut basketball played yesterday afternoon in the men's gym.

Of the two games in the indoor course, the Sigma Nu-Bachelordon contest was by far the best. The score oscillated between defeat and victory for both sides until three minutes before the final whistle sounded. Shattuck for the Sigma Nus converted three free throws which swung the victory to their side. Shattuck loomed up especially well.

"LEMON PUNCH" TO SET SMILES GOING DEC. 10

New Society to be Organized from Staff and Contributors of New Publication.

The first issue of the "Lemon Punch" will make its appearance on the campus about December 10, unless copy is unexpectedly held up, according to reports received yesterday from the editor. The magazine will contain about 36 pages and will be modeled along the same lines as those of the larger University publications, but it is planned in addition to introduce several new features such as have never appeared before in other humorous publications.

Plans are being worked out for the establishment of a "Lemon Punch" society in the near future which will be an honorary organization for those showing marked ability in the production of humorous material. Members of the staff will automatically become eligible.

All those interested in the cartooning end of the magazine are asked to draw their cartoons in proportion to the size of the page, which is 7 by 10 inches. Thus a half page cartoon would be 7 by 5 inches, and a quarter page 3½ by 5 inches. The cartoon should be made from two to three times larger than the original reproduction but should be drawn in proportion to the size of cartoon desired.

It is planned to establish an office soon in the new journalism quarters, where material may be turned in and information secured. Meanwhile students are urged to drop their material in the bowl in the library, or in the case of cartoons, turn them in to Frank Short or place them in the Lemon Punch box in the journalism building.

EX-GOVERNOR WILL TEACH NEXT TERM

R. P. Bass of New Hampshire, To Instruct In Economics.

The arrival of ex-Governor Bass of New Hampshire, recently counselor in industrial relations on the United States shipping board, who will in the winter and spring terms of this year be a member of the staff of the department of economics, has brought announcement of several changes in economics and commerce, effective at the end of this term.

Ex-Governor Bass will teach industrial relations, industrial arbitration, and other subjects having to do with labor.

Dean E. C. Robbins, whose term course in labor organization and management ends in December, will next term give both sections of the principles of economics now handled by Assistant Professor C. M. Hogan. Dr. Robbins gave "The Principles," as the course is known, last year, when he was a member of the economics staff, and taught it also at the University of Minnesota and at Mt. Holyoke College.

The changes necessitated by ex-Governor Bass' coming also take in the work of Assistant Professor Hogan, who will now give his full time to advanced work in the school of commerce, relinquishing his courses in "The Principles" to Dean Robbins. Mr. Hogan in commerce, will give corporation finance, and other third and fourth year work.

FRENCH BOOKS ARE HERE

Library Adds Work of European Authors; Ashford Volume Listed.

A complete set of A. De Musset and a set of 14 volumes of A. Daudet, all in French have recently been added to the University library.

Among other new books is "Heroes All," a compilation which gives a complete list of soldiers and citizens of the United States and the allies that were decorated by the United States government during the war. "Daisy Ashford Her Book" is another just added to the library. This book is a sequel to "Daisy Ashford."

KANSAS ELEVEN LEADS.

Kansas has the lead in football in the Missouri valley conference, having played three games and winning them all. Kansas has two more games to play, Oklahoma and Missouri.

ARNO DOSCH-FLEUROT TO SPEAK ON RUSSIAN PROBLEM AT FORUM

Newspaper Man in Petrograd at Outbreak of Revolt Against Czar.

CORRESPONDENT FOR "WORLD" DURING WAR

Noted Visitor and Mother, Mrs. H. E. Dosch, Guests On Campus Today.

Arno Dosch-Fleurot, noted war correspondent, son of Colonel and Mrs. Henry E. Dosch of Portland, is with his mother a guest on the campus today. Mr. Dosch-Fleurot, who is the correspondent of the New York World, was the only American correspondent in Petrograd at the outbreak of the Russian revolution of March, 1917, in which the czar was overthrown, and his series of articles on that historic occasion are still remembered as newspaper classics.

Mr. Dosch, who has spent a great deal of the last four years in Europe, is regarded as one of the best posted Americans on the Russian situation. He will address the Forum in the Y. M. C. A. hut at 8 o'clock tonight on "The Russian Problem." Students and townspeople alike are invited to this meeting.

Brother of Roswell Dosch.

Mr. Dosch-Fleurot and his mother arrived in Eugene last night and are the guests of President and Mrs. Campbell. The correspondent is a brother of the late Roswell Dosch, former professor of drawing and modeling, and of the late Miss Camille Dosch, formerly chaplain of the Oregon chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma.

At 10 o'clock this morning Mr. Dosch-Fleurot will meet with Dean Eric W. Allen's class in editing, where he will discuss newspaper problems. At 12:15 he will be the guest of President Campbell at lunch at the Anchorage, and in the afternoon he will be shown about the campus. He will also meet a group of Dr. E. S. Bates' students in rhetoric during the day.

Entertained On Campus.

Last evening Mr. Dosch-Fleurot met a number of friends of his brother and sister at the residence of Professor and Mrs. A. H. Schreff on Alder street. This evening, before his address at the hut, he will be entertained at an informal dinner at the home of President and Mrs. Campbell. He will leave Eugene Wednesday evening.

Arno Dosch-Fleurot is a former resident of Portland. After several years of newspaper work he went to San Francisco, where he became editor of the San Francisco Argonaut. For several years he has been special writer and correspondent for eastern papers, his last connection with the New York World.

NEW COURSE TO BEGIN

Art of Book and Poster To Be Taught Friday Mornings.

The new class in the school of fine arts, the art of the book and poster, under the direction of Professor Alfred H. Schreff and Arthur Runquist was held for the first time Friday morning in the studio of the architecture building.

The course will cover the range of book making, lettering, design, and advertising art. Professor Schreff will give historical lectures on the growth of the book. It is not yet known how the work will progress owing to the insufficient accommodations and the lack of room in the department of fine arts, according to Professor Schreff.

STANFORD PLANS PAVILLION.

Stanford may have a new $75,000 pavillion for basketball and gymnasium classes. It will include a dance floor, kitchens and cloak rooms and will properly take care of all campus formalities such as the Prom and Senior Ball.

LAST EMERALD OF WEEK

Owing to the Thanksgiving holidays, no Emerald will be published until next Tuesday, November 30.
