Y. W. STUDENT HEAD WILL VISIT CAMPUS

Miss Alice Brown, Northwest Executive, to be Guest of Local Girls Next Week.

Miss Alice Brown, student executive of the northwest Y. W. C. A. will be on the campus next Tuesday to make her annual visit. She is in Corvallis this week and according to Miss Dinsdale is having a very successful time. In her work Miss Brown goes to all of the larger schools in the northwest.

Miss Brown is especially interested in the cabinet members, the advisory board and the different committees of the association. In order for her to meet these girls more intimately several social functions have been planned. On Tuesday evening the cabinet is giving a dinner at the Anchorage, which Ruth Lane is in charge of. Miss Brown and Miss Clara Taylor, who will be here in the interest of industrial work of the Y. W., will be entertained by the advisory board Friday, at a luncheon at the Anchorage.

The girls on the campus will have an opportunity to meet Miss Brown at the regular Y. W. meeting at the bungalow, Thursday.

COMMITTEES APPOINTED

Home Economics Club Continues Work of Organization.

The Home Economics club, started last month, continued with its work of organization at its second meeting which was held last Wednesday afternoon.

The committee appointed to draw up a constitution for the club consists of the following members: Lucile Johnson Nadine Stevens and Georgia Benson.

The program committee for the year, to arrange the program for each meeting, is composed of: Rena Hales, Marie Fisher, Sevilla Welke and Wildred Calkins.

Meetings of the club have been set for the second and fourth Wednesday of the month, according to Chloe Thompson secretary, and will be held in Miss Tingle's room in Mary Spiller hall at five in the afternoon.

TARGET RANGE FIRING WILL BEGIN STAURDAY

Major Baird Hopes to Enter First Class Team In National Rifle Match.

Long distance firing will begin Saturday on the target range. Sergeant Conyrs, who is in charge of the range, states that the range is in fairly good condition and that twenty men will be able to shoot. The men may come to the range either in the morning or the afternoon. The men coming in the morning should bring their lunch. All men desiring to shoot must submit their names and the time when they intend to come to Sergeant Conyrs Friday morning.

Last year O. A. C. had a representative in the National Rifle Association and National rifle matches, but Oregon had none. Major Baird states that the material for a rifle team is very promising this year and that he hopes to see Oregon represented in all matches.

NURSE HAS TRIALS

Ada B. Coffey, Ex '11, Does Social Work at Home and in France.

Ada B. Coffey, ex '11, is director of public health nursing for the Visiting Nurses Association in Stamford, Connecticut. After leaving Oregon, Miss Coffey took three years of training in the Presbyterian hospital in New York and was immediately given a position as a director in the medical department of the Leland Stanford Junior University in San Francisco. From directing she went into the social service department of the same university and after a year began social service in the city itself.

She spent almost two years with the Nurses Reserve Corps which was stationed overseas, and from France she came to New York for more social service work. From there she went to Indiana as managing assistant of a hospital and this year accepted the position in Connecticut.

Her sister, Vanda Ruth Coffey, a graduate in 1905, is working in Alaska.
