Kappa Sigma 12; Friendly Hall 4.

Beta Theta Pi pounced on Oregon club for a 20-4 count. Bachelordon trampled on A. T. O. 19-6. Kappa Sigma downed Friendly with a 12-4 score, and the fighting Delta Theta Pi loomed up with a 3-0 forfeit to the willing Phi Delta Theta in the four games of doughnut basketball, yesterday afternoon in the indoor gym.

For the ball bouncing Betas all members of the squad were up to form. The entire struggle was featured with many antics foreign to the basketball world. Nish Chapman, the sterling guard for the Betas bounced the sphereoid to the end of the arena and bounded it against the dashboard for 4 points, while Phillips Clerin and Edlund joined in the wild stampede around the corral and as opportunity offered, heaved the pumpkin through the hole for the balance of their score. For the Oregon club McCaskey and Stone featured on the hardwood, each having two points to his credit when the referee sounded the final foot.

In the Bachelordon-A. T. O. mix, pandemonium reigned throughout. Black, the Bachelors expert ball bouncer jumped the ball down the sidelines and slipped it through the barrel hoop four times. The Duke of Wellington in the second Waterloo, outgeneraled Napoleon Couch, A. T. O. guard, and made his get away for six shots. Folts and Blackaby of the lightning A. T. O. quintet bombarded the bump board for six points.

In the Kappa Sig-Friendly set-to the leaping Kappa Sigs outclassed the battling dorm warriors. Rockhey and Strahorn successfully navigated down the court, passing the ball between them and succeeded in oozing it through the knot hole for eight counts, while Shields and Bennett took their turn at the helm and heaved the hog hide for four more. Undaunted by the onrush of their opponents, Lucas and Wegner for Friendly hall, wrestled the bombastic sphere until it was within range of the circle when they heaved it for two points each.

Due to the fact that there are no other student activities scheduled for this afternoon, Coach Bohler announces that the following games will be played:

Indoor Gym, 2:30 p. m.
Phi Deltas vs. Deltas.
Sigma Nu vs. Sigma Chi.
At 3:30 p. m.
Kappa Sigma vs. Owl Club.
Fiji vs. Beta.

PHI THETA KAPPA TO PLEDGE.

Phi Theta Kappa, national woman's honor commerce fraternity, will elect and pledge new members at the beginning of next term, according to an announcement made by the president of the organization, Margaret Fell. Phi Theta Kappa was founded at the University of Colorado, Boulder, in 1914, and has now five chapters. The purpose was to give a higher object to strive for in the study of commerce than mere credit. Scholarship is the basis for membership.

REED DEBATE TEAM GETS DECISION OVER OREGON

By a two to one decision the varsity affirmative debate team, composed of Ralph Hoerber and Remy Cox was defeated last night by the Reed College debaters in Guild hall. James Gantenbein and Lewis Jones represented Reed College.

The question was: "Resolved that the aid given to American shipping by section 28 of the Jones Bill (Merchant Marine Act of 1920) is to the best interests of the United States."

Up to a late hour last night no returns had been received from the debate against O. A. C. at Corvallis, due to the wires being down. Kenneth Armstrong and Boyd Iseninger represented Oregon.

MCCROSKY SAVES BANK ROLL BY SPEED

Command to Halt Not Obedied; Masked Man Shoots at Lyle; Corner Fails Robber.

As Lyle McCroskey was walking east on Thirteenth street last night, about eleven o'clock with exactly nine cents in his pocket, a command of "halt" shot suddenly from the bushes near the sidewalk in front of the president's office.

He looked around, and saw a man with a handkerchief covering his face, and what seemed to be a gun in his hand. At the second command to halt, McCroskey broke into a run. The man who was attempting the hold-up fired two shots which struck the embankment, missing McCroskey by some feet.

Distance, and the hedge which is on that corner prevented more shots from being fired. When he had gone about a block he met a young woman walking toward the University, whom he advised to go another way.

In view of McCroskey's connection with the law school, some have expressed the opinion that more Moot Court cases are in demand.

DE COU WRITES ARTICLE

"Practical Printer's Problem in Maxima and Minima" in Magazine.

An article showing the application of differential calculus to the art of printing written by Professor E. E. DeCou, head of the mathematics department of the University, is published in the November issue of the American Mathematical Monthly. The article is entitled "A Practical Printer's Problem in Maxima and Minima." It deals with a calculus formula evolved by Professor DeCou for finding the minimum number of electrotypes needed on a certain job of printing by a process of numerical square root.

This is a problem of frequent occurrence to the practical printer and a solution by trial and error and a general method of guessing is usually the one arrived at. By the formula given in the article, it will require only a few minutes of the printer's time to figure out the number desired. This is the first time, says Professor DeCou, that he has ever heard of the application of calculus to the art of printing. The problem was presented to him by Dean Eric W. Allen.

According to Prof. DeCou's formula the number of electrotypes is obtained as follows: Multiply the number of prints required by the cost per hour of running the press; divide this result by the cost of the extra electrotypes used; take the square root of this result and subtract one from the root found. This will give the answer to the problem.

14 Men Win Football "O's"; 6 Get Two Stripes; Keith Leslie And Steers Play Three Years

Huntington Plans Two Full Teams Working As First String Eleven for 1921 Season.

Fourteen men received their letters in the football season just past, six of them veterans of two years or more, the remaining eight getting their first "O". Of this number at least four will not be on the Oregon football squad next season and it is possible that a few of the others will not return for another year. "Brick" Leslie, Mautz, "Spike" Leslie, Howard, Steers and Chapman are the veterans to get the arm stripes. "Brick" Leslie and "Bill" Steers will get three arm stripes they having completed their 3d year on the Oregon varsity. "Spike" Leslie, Chapman, Howard and Mautz will get two stripes each, although Howard and Mautz have played three years with the varsity having begun their career with the S. A. T. C. teams in 1918.

"Brick" Leslie, Steers, Mautz and Ward will not be back another season. "Brick" has left school and is at present working in the employ of a Marshfield lumber concern. Steers and Ward are seniors this year and Mautz will attend the medical school in Portland, having completed his pre-medical work here.

Huntington Is Optimistic.

From this outlook a good crew of veterans should be on hand another season to start with the initial training call. And this will be strengthened materially by the frosh squad of this season. In addition to the frosh string will be the second team and scrubs of this season battling it out for a varsity berth. Coach Huntington is optimistic over the chances for a good eleven next year although he realizes that there is a big possibility that some of the letter men who are now planning to come back may not return.

In speaking of the prospects for another season, Huntington said: "Another season I am going to have two full teams working as a first string eleven. These two teams are going to compare very favorably in strength and they will both be treated equally as a first string eleven. Then there will be no trouble in fumbling or signal getting when some of the men are shifted from one to the other team."

"Our prospects are good at present," he continued, "but we never can be sure of how many of the old men will be back until they turn up for practice next fall."

GUILD TO HAVE SMOKER

Architecture Club Sponsors; Snappy Program Promised.

The Architecture club will sponsor the second big smoker of the year for the Builder's Guild of the University of Oregon on Monday. The Guild, which was organized some time ago, is now well established and includes as members almost every man employed on University construction work.

The program will consist of several stunts and boxing matches between the craftsmen and members of the architectural club and Madame McGrew has promised to sing.

At the time of the smoker the architect students will also entertain two Portland architects who will come down to act as jurors on the last problems of the term. These consist of a college chapel, balcony and window, the loggia for a park, a professor's residence and the transept entrance to a church. Morris Whitehouse and Joseph Jacobberger will form the jury.

WRESTLING WILL START

Frosh-Rook Meet Planned With O.A.C.; Varsity Has Games.

Because of the unusual interest which is being displayed among the men students of the University in wrestling a Frosh-Rook meet will be staged in March between Oregon and O. A. C. Varsity meets will also be held between Oregon, Washington and O. A. C. according to Arvo Simola, wrestling instructor.

During the first term there were about 40 men out for wrestling and it is thought that many more will be signed up for the new term.

Oregon Letter men of 1920 season:

- "Brick" Leslie.
- Ed Ward.
- "Scotty" Strachan.
- "Fat" Mautz.
- "Spike" Leslie.
- "Tiny" Shields.
- "Mart" Howard.
- "Rud" Brown.
- Neil Morfitt.
- "Bill" Steers.
- George King.
- "Bill" Reinhart.
- "Nish" Chapman.
- "Pete" Mead.

Oregon Third on Coast.

Oregon lost but one conference game this season and that to Stanford University at Palo Alto, the Pacific coast championship went to the California team, which also defeated the leaders in the Northwest conference percentage column. The standing of the teams in the Pacific coast conference is as follows:

	W.	L.	T.	P.C.
California	3	0	0	1000
Stanford	2	1	0	667
Oregon	1	1	1	500
Washington State	1	1	0	500
Oregon Aggies	1	2	1	333
Washington	0	3	0	000

In the Northwest conference first place goes to Washington State even though Oregon also has a clean record. The Cougars played 3 games in the Northwest schedule winning all of them while Oregon only played two, and one of these was a tie game with the Oregon Aggies. The Northwest conference standings are as follows:

	W.	L.	T.	P.C.
Washington State	3	0	0	1000
Oregon	1	0	1	1000
Whitman	3	1	0	667
Idaho	2	2	0	500
Montana	0	3	0	000
Oregon Aggies	0	1	1	000

"Bill" Hayward is in Spokane this week-end where he is attending the Northwest conference meeting, in which the schedules will be drawn up for another season.

1920	O. A. C. 2	Oregon 0

Now that the abbreviated soccer costumes are stowed away with the mole-skins and the saw-dust ponds of old Kincaid are untripped by skidding soccer balls, the veterans of the successful season, which closed last Saturday when the Oregon men won a "moral victory" over the O. A. C. booters by holding them to a tie score, are prone to discuss the past and plan for the future.

Dr. John Bovard, head of the physical education department, has expressed his opinion that soccer should be recognized as a minor sport at the University, and promised his support in making the Scotch game a letter sport if the men take sufficient interest next fall. "When I witnessed the game between Oregon and O. A. C. on Hayward field last Saturday the possibilities of the game struck me as being wonderful. It is spectacular, full of pep, played in the open where all the plays are easily seen, and has great opportunities for teamwork which will interest the spectators."

Game is Difficult.

"Soccer should be made an intra-mural sport," continued Dr. Bovard. "The men who show up to advantage in the class games would be picked to represent the varsity in collegiate games. It is a hard game to play, and takes a different type of man than football. The granting of letters to men who take part in the varsity games will receive my approval."

"Financial difficulties at present prevent the game from receiving the support which will interest the spectators."

LEMON PUNCH TO BE CIRCULATED MONDAY

Students Desiring Extra Copies Advised to Turn in Number to Ireland Immediately.

First copies of the Lemon Punch will be ready for distribution Monday morning, according to latest reports received from the circulation department. In the case of organizations copies will be sent around to the various houses but for those not in organizations a booth will be maintained in front of the library all day where copies may be obtained. In case of rain a table will probably be placed in the library and the magazines given out there.

Those desiring extra copies of the Lemon Punch are asked to turn in number desired as soon as possible to Dean Ireland, circulation manager. Only a limited number have been printed this issue and in order to secure extra copies it will be necessary to put in application for them immediately.

This morning's Emerald will be the last issue until next semester.
