

HALL GIRLS BEAT HIGH

Roll Up 46-5 Score Over High School Women's Aggregation.

The Hendricks hall basketball team won a 46 to 5 victory over the Eugene high school girls team in the first game of the season in the high school gymnasium Wednesday evening. The Hendricks girls had the upper hand throughout the game, the score being easily run up by the forwards, Lynetta and Vernetta Quinlan, twin sisters. Miss Maud Lombard, physical education instructor in the Eugene schools, was referee. The Hendricks hall team will take part in the girls doughnut games and its members are: Helen King, and Agnes Christie, centers, Vernetta and Lynetta Quinlan, forwards, Harriet Veazie and Emily Perry, guards.

Why is It--

Some places get a real reputation for a pleasant place to eat?

That you hear more about the chicken sandwiches served at the Peter Pan than those served elsewhere?

That students are making the Peter Pan the popular store to get the best of candies?
