

27TH ANNIVERSARY OF Y. W. CELEBRATED

Excellent Work of Association Highly Praised.

Speeches given by one of the national secretaries, by faculty members, cabinet girls, the local secretary, the secretary from O. A. C. and members of the advisory board; announcement of elections, clever programs, Oregon songs, and even an O. A. C. yell were all crowded into the third annual Y. W. C. A. banquet held Wednesday evening at the Hotel Osburn. This was also the 27th anniversary of the establishment of the association on the campus.

The announcement of the results of the election for the coming year was as follows: president, Eleanor Spall; vice president, Ruth Flegal; secretary, Emily Veazie, treasurer, Florence Furuset; undergraduate representative, Glyde Schuebel. Five members of the advisory board were elected: Mrs. John Stark Evans, Mrs. Robert Prescott, Mrs. L. P. Hubbs, Miss Barbara Booth, Mrs. C. A. E. Whitton.

The increasing interest in the Y. W. C. A. among townspeople and students was shown by the fact that this year over 250 tickets were sold for the banquet while last year only 111 attended the annual meeting. Sixty or seventy sustaining members of the association who live in Eugene were present this year for the banquet.

Co-operation Is Lauded.

Before introducing the speakers for the evening, Marjorie Holaday, retiring president of the association for the co-operation of students and friends in making this an unusually successful year for the Y. W. C. A.

President Campbell, welcoming the students on behalf of the faculty, said that he believed the University was very deeply indebted to the Y. W. C. A. for the quiet but powerful influence they had on the life of the University. He declared that the administration and faculty would be glad at any time to help the association in its work.

Dean Fox Optimistic.

Dean Fox who formerly served at a Y. W. C. A. secretary said that she did not believe this association needed very much encouragement as it was apparently at the very height of its work. When girls feel discouraged they should always be able to turn to the Y. W. C. A. and find new inspiration, she declared. Mrs. George Gerlinger, member of the board of regents, was unable to attend the banquet, but sent greetings to the girls.

O. A. C. yells are not usually heard at a meeting of Oregon students but such was the case at this banquet. The reason was that a few of the students thought Miss Gladys Taylor, Y. W. C. A. secretary from O. A. C. needed a little encouragement before she talked to the girls. Miss Taylor declared that this cheer made everything square with her. "I am delighted to be here, and I bring greetings from our 481 association members at Corvallis" she said.

Miss Mary Perkins, representing the advisory board spoke of how they helped the association. This is done by helping in raising money, assisting on committees and lending their sympathy to the girls when they are in need of it.

National Secretary Speaks.

Miss Ruth Benson, one of the national secretaries, with headquarters in Seattle, told of the growth of the Y. W. C. A. work throughout the world during the past year. A new department has been created with three secretaries who are supposed to become personally acquainted with the 1200 foreign girls in schools in the United States. Their work is to establish a more friendly relation with these foreign girls.

The classes in nursing that have been established in China by the Y. W. C. A. have had marvelous results, said Miss Benson enthusiastically. A $20,000 industrial home has been built in Japan by Japanese people in New York which is in charge of the association.

She told of an experience of one of the secretaries who one day met a girl evidently in much trouble. When she asked her what was the matter and tried to comfort her the girl said "You must be one of them Y. W. secretaries." This was a great tribute to the association, said Miss Benson. In closing she gave some ideas expressed by girls belonging to the girls' reserve.

"Service is doing a thing when you are asked to do it," "Loyalty to friends is sticking up for them," and graciousness is "when you want to show off not having to put on." These were definitions given by these girls.

Leadership Is Aim.

"Leadership is the thing that we want to emphasize next year," declared Miss Dinsdale, secretary. Other countries need America, not only for food products, but for the things that American women can give them. "When I think of the struggling little foyer in Italy with which I was connected, just learning the essentials of organization, it makes me want to have the girls here think of the fundamentals of Christian principles," she continued.

"Out of this association I expect these things to come and it is this thing that we must work for. We want to turn out leaders," Miss Dinsdale said in concluding.

The different members of the cabinet made their reports for the past year. These reports showed the increasing number of activities entered, and the much larger scale that the Y. W. C. A. is working on.

"I am sure that we can make a success of next year by just being friends," said Eleanor Spall, following the announcement of her election as president of the association.

VARSITY TRACK TEAM PROSPECTS ARE GOOD

University of Washington May 7. The second trip will be made to Pullman, June 4, at which time Oregon will enter a team in the Northwest conference meet there.

Oregon should have a well-balanced track team this year, and some good men for the field events also. Five old letter men are back in college, and around this nucleus Hayward will have to build his team. In the two mile event Oregon should be able to clean the coast with Glenn Walkley, back on the job. Walkley has had two years experience, one with the varsity last season and one the year previous with the freshman team. He may also work in the mile. Koepf will also try the mile this year for the varsity. Koepf ran with the frosh track team in this event last season and was good enough to beat the O. A. C. rooks' runners by a good margin. Blackburn, who ran distance races for the frosh last year is back.

Several Candidates for Half Mile.

In the half mile Oregon loses a good man this year in Leith Abbott, who was elected last fall to captain the team. He will not return for college however. Pel tier will probably do his first varsity running this season in that event. Wayne Akers may also run the half this year. Akers has been out for two seasons and is a good man. In the quarter Oregon has a number of good candidates. Two quarter mile letter men, Sundelof and Havyslip are back and the two best frosh men for this distance Collins and Larsen are out as well. These men should make a good relay team for the University. Oregon is weaker in the sprints than in any other place so far. Oberteuffer and Hemenway are the best bets now. In the hurdles Carl Knudsen should be able to show his heels to most of them. Knudsen was a letter man last year. Two frosh hurdlers are back, McKinney and Ireland.

In the field events Art Tuck will probably be back to do his part. Tuck is good for a number of points in any meet in the discus, shot and javelin. "Scotty" Strachan should be good for first place in the shot this year. He lost to George Powell of O. A. C. last year in the O. A. C. meet by three-quarters of an inch. Brown and Shields will also be out for places in the weights. Don Portwood of last year's varsity is again out for the pole vault. Phillips and Ingele will make him step this year to keep above them. Phillips did well last year and looks better this season. In the jumps Oregon will not show so much class. Nunn is fair at the high jump and Blackaby is good.

The varsity will probably not send a team to the Columbia indoor meet this year as it is to be held a week from Saturday and the men will not be in shape. It is probable that a frosh team may go.

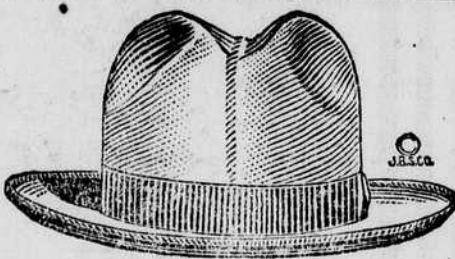

POWELL TO REPRESENT WEST.

Coach Walter Powell, of Stanford University, has left for New York City to attend a meeting of the National Rules Committee for the consideration of important changes in the rules governing American football. The meeting opens March 11 in the Biltmore Hotel and will last several days. This will be the first time that the west has been represented at such a meeting.

RUNQUIST TO LEAVE

Art Instructor to Study in New York at Art Students' League.

Arthur Runquist, an instructor in the art department, expects to leave some time in September for New York, where he will study art at the Art Students' League.

Mr. Runquist has no very definite plans yet, but expects to be gone for a year or more. So far no one has been obtained to take his place as Professor A. H. Schroff's assistant.

This school is one of the foremost schools in the country, and has on its faculty the leading artists of the east. Mr. Runquist expects to study painting and other forms of art.
