

APPOINTMENTS MADE FOR Y. W. CABINET

Bishop Sumner Will Address Entire Staff Today

Eleanor Spall, newly elected president of the Y. W. C. A., yesterday announced the members of her cabinet for the following year. They are: Undergraduate representative, Glyde Schubel; meetings, Jean Mackenzie; Bible study, Mary Evans; bungalow, Glenn Frank; social service, Leah Zink; social, Margaret Smith and Helen Murdock, deputy; practical service, Ella Rollings; finances, Elsie Lawrence; missionary, LeLaine West; publicity, Kay Bald; conference, Elva Guttridge; boosters, Lenore Cram; church co-operation, Mary Parkinson; association news, Charlotte Clark.

Bishop Sumner will speak to the newly elected officers, the cabinet and the retiring members at the Y. W. C. A. bungalow this afternoon. Eleanor Spall urges all of the girls to attend this meeting. The first regular meeting of the new cabinet will be held April 5, the beginning of next term.

DR. REBEC TO SPEAK ON RELIGIOUS PHILOSOPHY

Subject To Be Approached In Terms of Human Nature at Meeting Wednesday Night.

"A Philosophical Definition of Religion" is the topic of an address which will be given by Dr. George Rebec, Ph. D., director of the Portland center of the University of Oregon extension division, at the Y. M. C. A. hut Wednesday at 8:15.

As to the manner in which he will treat this subject Dr. Rebec says in a letter from Portland: "What I shall try to do will be an attempt to approach the problem of religion in terms of human nature, of human behavior, and of reason, and in the light of these considerations, to ask whether religion is an essentially artificial importation to human life from the outside, or whether it has its roots in human nature and in the natural human intellect."

Dr. Rebec specializes in philosophy and is a very good speaker. He received his degree of Ph. D. at the University of Michigan and first came to Oregon as a professor of philosophy. He is now, besides being director of the Portland extension division, dean of the graduate school.

This is one of a series of lectures on science and religion being conducted by the campus Y. M. C. A. Women are invited to be present.

CONFERENCE WINNERS TO MEET.

The national collegiate track and field meet bringing together winners of the conference meets throughout the country will be held at the University of Chicago, June 11. The meeting will be the first of its kind. First place winners and perhaps second place men from the eastern, southern, Missouri valley, Rocky Mountain, Pacific and Western conferences will be invited to compete, according to John L. Griffith of the University of Illinois, chairman of the committee in charge of the meet.

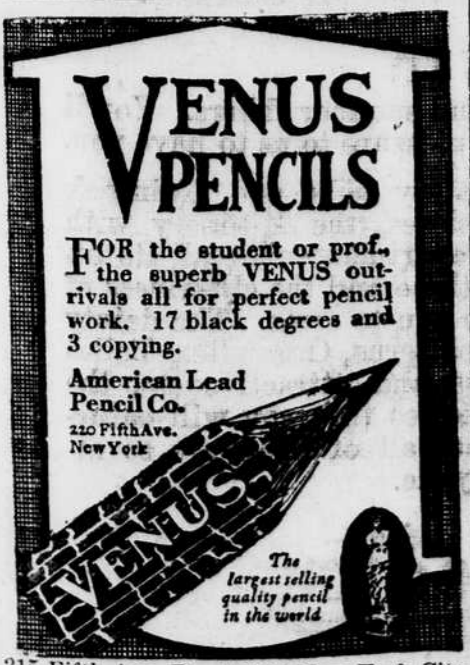

ACCIDENT PREVENTION TOPIC.

Hugh H. Herdman, vice president and general manager of the Oregon-Columbia National Safety Council, has been obtained through the efforts of the school of commerce, to speak on the campus Friday, March 18. He will speak on accident prevention. The meeting will be to any who wish to attend.

VASSAR ENROLLS FAR AHEAD.

Vassar College has already closed its registration list for September, 1923. Five hundred students are now enrolled over four years in advance of entrance. The college is kept open until the June preceeding entrance, 100 places for women who are eligible on an honorary basis.

O. A. C. SUMMER SCHOOL PLANS ARE UNDERWAY

New Courses To Be Given; Educators of Prominence To Be Obtained As Speakers.

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, March 15.—Summer session preparations are well under way at the college. Dean M. Ellwood Smith, director, having announced that he will spare no effort in obtaining some of the best educators of the country as speakers. Several new courses will be given.

Rural recreations, which will include the work in tableaux, pantomime, shadow pictures, plays and pageantry, and a study of the use of rural halls, school houses, churches and private homes, will be taught by Professor C. B. Mitchell, head of the debate work at the college, who came here last fall from the Michigan Agricultural College, where he taught this course. The work is especially designed for those who expect to become community leaders.

Courses will be offered in home economics, commerce, physical education, Smith-Hughes work, education, agriculture, industrial journalism, and applied arts and sciences, including art, botany, chemistry, English, history, literature, mathematics, public speaking and dramatics and zoology. By special arrangement instruction is offered also in the school of music.

LAW REVIEW ON PRESS

Larremore, As Editor, To Be Assisted by Faculty; Out April 1.

"The Oregon Law Review," the first magazine to be published by the law school of the University, will be off the press about the first of April. Professor T. A. Larremore is the editor-in-chief, with other members of the faculty as assistants. It is the plan of the school to issue this magazine four times a year from now on, the date of issues being December, February, April and June.

The April issue is to be similar to "The Commonwealth Review" in size, being from 50 to 70 pages. It will contain two long articles on legal questions written by Dean Hale, and Professor W. C. Dalzell. The rest of the magazine will be devoted to notes and comments on recent Oregon cases.

About 1500 copies will be printed, these to be sent free of charge to all the lawyers in the state, and a subscription rate will be charged to those outside of the state.

LEMMY GETS MEDLEY OF GOOF DEFINITIONS

Staff Members Are Kept Busy With Descriptions; No Material Taken After This Saturday.

Goof definitions, ranging from pity to abuse, concoctions of words, phrases and sentences such as a self-respecting English department never even had an inkling of and guaranteed to make any good dictionary sit up and take notice, have been tumbling into the Lemon Punch office during the past few days. Some of the freaks of creation against the much can-tied goof are mild, some are rabid and some just strike a happy medium of goof foolishness.

Staff members have been busy filing the definitions away until the close of the contest when the meritorious ones will be selected and announced in the next issue. All definitions, or contributions must be in not later than this Saturday evening, according to the editor, the close of the contest and deadline for all acceptable copy.

Frank Short, art editor, urges all artists who are working on art pieces or cartoons at this time to complete them and turn them in either to him or at the Punch office not later than next Saturday night as all pieces must be sent to the engravers not later than that date. If you want a little extra waffle money get busy on your definition before it is too late!

YOU HAVE WRITTEN POEMS!

Do you care to have them revised or constructively criticized by successful authors? If you do, then send us your manuscript (stories, articles or poems.) We will criticize, and place them should they prove to be acceptable for publication.

There is no actual charge for our services. If, however, you have not previously enrolled with the advisory department of this association, we request that you enclose the initial fee of two dollars, which we must ask of each new contributor. There is no additional expense, no future obligation.

It must be realized that we can only be of aid to those of serious intent. If you do mean to strive for literary success, we can help you in many ways. Our services are yours until we have actually succeeded in marketing at least one of your manuscripts. Send something today!

Please enclose return postage with your communications.

Butter-Krust BREAD

Insist on the Genuine

There are all kinds of imitations of this popular bread. But the title or the shape of the loaf is all they can imitate. They can't approach the delicate, appetizing flavor.

So, for your own protection, look for the label like that shown in the left-hand lower corner of this advertisement.

For that label marks perfect bread from ordinary bread.

A single loaf, ordered from your grocer today, will prove it.
