

SOPHOMORES WIN FIELD DAY BASEBALL

Postponed Canoe Races to be Held This Afternoon

With a score of 23 to 9, the sophomore girls' baseball team defeated the juniors in the finals of the interclass series, and the freshmen, represented by Ruth Hayman, were victorious over the seniors in the tennis finals, which were held as the principal features of the annual Field Day on Saturday. The canoe races, scheduled for the same day, were postponed, but will be held this afternoon. The sophomore team, composed of Gladys Johnson and Natrude Larson, will compete with Carolyn Cannon and Emma Jane Garbade, juniors, for the paddles given to the winners by the Women's Athletic Association.

The winning team in the baseball series will be awarded the Hayward cup. The lineup for the game was as follows:

Sophomores—		Juniors—
J. Lewisc	R. Griffinc
P. Lewisp	E. Perryp
F. Jagger1b	L. Barnett1b
E. Herrin2b	D. Miller2b
E. Pike3b	F. Furuset3b
L. Gregoryss	F. Habershamss
C. Howellsss	M. Magerleess
L. Vander Sterrelf	W. Hopsonlf
M. Grahamcf	L. Wagnercf
B. Morrowrf	E. Rawlingsrf

Ruth Hayman is the winner of the tennis racket awarded by the Women's Athletic Association. She took from Naomi Robbins, representing the seniors, two sets, each with a score of 6 to 3. In the morning Miss Hayman won from Winifred Hopson, of the junior class, by a score of 6 to 4, and Miss Robbins took two sets from Edith Sliffe, representing the sophomores, with a score of 6 to 1 and 9 to 7.

Those in charge of Field Day were Ollie Stoltenberg, president of the athletic association, Alice Evans, Marianne Dunham and Phoebe Gage, in charge of baseball, tennis and canoeing. These girls were assisted by members of W. A. A. executive council.

STUDENT ADVISORY COMMITTEE REPORTS

which reported having assessed a punishment which was accepted by the committee as satisfactory. A liquor offense.

Case No. 58.—The charge was conduct subversive of discipline in the department of military science. This student was asked to write a note of regret that should be satisfactory to the commandant.

Case No. 59.—Referred to the fraternity for action. A case of conduct unbecoming a University gentleman.

Case No. 60.—The charge was non-conformity with discipline in the department of military science. Student suspended from University for the term; sentence suspended contingent upon good behavior in military science.

Case No. 61.—The charge was conduct tending to break down discipline in the department of military science. Fined 10 hours.

Cases No. 62 and 63.—Charge was intoxication, the students having previously been convicted and fined in the civil court. Suspended from the University for the term with loss of term credits.

Case No. 64.—This was a case of a downtown business firm which in an advertisement in the Emerald published a remark to which the University authorities took exception. The firm was notified that the Emerald had been directed to refuse its advertising for the next 18 months.

The committee now has fairly well-established precedents, and penalties are approximately in the foregoing list.

FRANK JUE WILL SING AT STUDENT RECITAL

Organ Concert Will Be Given This Evening, June 1, at Methodist Church in Eugene.

Frank Jue, tenor, will appear as assisting soloist at the recital of the advanced organ students of John Stark Evans to be given in the Methodist church this evening.

Jue's voice is very well fitted for organ accompaniment, according to Mr. Evans. It carries out through even the big tones of the organ. The organ students have been doing excellent work, said the instructor. With the exception of Isabel McArthur, they are all upperclassmen. The program is as follows:

Overture—Thanhauser (Wagner); Lamentation (Guilmant); Raymond Burns. Adagio and Scherzo from the Fifth Sonata (Guilmant); Annabel Denn. Vale (Russell); Little Mother o' Mine (Burleigh); Frank Jue, tenor. Finale—Symphony Pathetique (Tchaikovsky); Isabel McArthur. Toccata in F. (Widor); Alice Gohlke.

CAMPUS MOVIES AT 'Y'

Three Shows Being Held to Raise Funds to Cover Deficiency.

The first of three movie shows being staged at the Y. M. C. A. was held last night.

Another show is being held tonight and the final one will be staged Thursday evening.

The "Street Called Straight" and "Scratch My Back" are the film features of the performances. The latter of these will be shown Thursday. Pictures of the Olympic Games, the Oregon-O. A. C. football battle of last year are also on the program. Music will be furnished by the glee club and a jazz orchestra. The programs are being staged to raise money to cover the deficit in the expenses of bringing speakers here for the "Y" last winter. The price of admission is 20 cents.

OMISSION IS CORRECTED.

Several names were omitted from the list, published in Saturday's Emerald, of members of Mu Zeta Kappa, the local honorary music fraternity which has been granted a chapter of Phi Mu Alpha, national honorary music fraternity. Those omitted were Vincent Engeldinger, Don Newbury, Carlton Savage, Carpenter Staples and Jack Benefiel.

EARL MURPHY ON CAMPUS.

Earl Murphy, ex-'19, and wife, Katherine Hartley Murphy, a 1919 graduate, were visitors on the campus the past week end. Mr. Murphy is with the Portland Telegram. He is a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity. Mrs. Murphy is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma fraternity.

Her commencement flowers are as important as her frock.

On the Commencement Day let the threshold of her life be strewn with flowers. They will add a touch of charm to her costume and one little rose may be laid away—perhaps in the hope chest, and you'll never know the secret of it until some time has flown. Buy her flowers—it's a most pleasing thing to do.

Every event is an occasion for flowers.
