

CONCERT TICKET SALE WILL BEGIN TUESDAY

Three Artists Will Appear Here This Fall

CYRENA VAN GORDON FIRST

Season Tickets to Cost $1.50; Single Admittance $1

Next Tuesday morning has been set as the date for the opening of the ticket sale for the series of concerts which are to be given this term under the auspices of the Woman's League, and committees have been appointed to make arrangements for the disposal of as large a number as possible. The sale has been so planned that all the organizations, the campus, and the down town districts will be covered.

October 25 will mark the appearance of Cyrena Van Gordon in Villard hall, the date having been changed since the first announcement of the series. It is the idea of the committee in charge of the affairs, of which Lois Hall is chairman, to make the greatest drive for tickets before the first concert, as it is thought that a large proportion of the sales will be season tickets, which are $1.50 for the three concerts. Single tickets for each concert are $1.

Reputation is National

Miss Van Gordon, who is the attraction for October 25, is a prima donna mezzo-contralto of the Chicago Opera company, and an artist of national reputation. Her roles in such operas as "Aida," and the difficult Wagnerian operas, have been attended by much favorable press comment in the east. J. Irwin Mutch, baritone, who is at present with the Ellison-White chautauqua company, will be here November 12, and Dean John J. Landsbury, of the school of music, will give a recital on December 9.

Margaret Beattie has charge of the ticket sale, and under her will work the following persons: Alpha Phi, Margaret Peterson; Alpha Chi Omega, Gladys Keeney; Alpha Delta Pi, Gladys Mathis; Chi Omega, Carmel Sheasgreen; Delta Gamma, Hilda Tillinghast; Delta Zeta, Gertrude Smith; Gamma Phi Beta, Margaret Kerns; Kappa Kappa Gamma, Margaret Alexander; Kappa Alpha Theta, Marcella Berry; Pi Beta Phi, Luella Hauser; Delta Delta Delta, Florence Riddle; Zeta Rho Epsilon, Maud Gorrey; Hendricks hall and Susan Campbell hall, Maud Graham; Alpha Tau Omega, Jason McCune; Beta Theta Pi, Allen Smith; Bachelordon, Dan Woods; Chi Psi, Kay Leep; Delta Tau Delta, Russell Gowans; Delta Theta Phi, Frank Michaels; Kappa Sigma, Al Krohn; Kappa Theta Chi, Don Zimmerman; Phi Sigma Pi, Carl Epping; Sigma Chi, Arthur Rosebraugh; Sigma Nu, Ward Johnson; Friendly hall, Marvin Eby; Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Ben Reed; Phi Delta Theta, Knut Digerness; and Phi Delta Phi, Hal Simpson.

WOMAN WHO FED PROFS ON ROYAL FARE IS BACK

Mrs. C. A. Brown, Fixer of Foods at Friendly Hall, Once Boarded Teachers Sumptuously

Some years ago, at 1390 Emerald street, there was a faculty boarding house; a boarding house not to be remotely associated with the macaroni-Mondays and the corn-beef 'n' cabbage Wednesdays of fiction; but a boarding house where tables were set with foods of ambrosial delicacy and plebeian plenty, to tempt the eye and palate of faculty members, fresh from the erudite pursuits of the classroom. The name of Mrs. C. A. Brown, and the number 1390 can still conjur up, for some of our doctors and professors, visions of soups, and fruits, and pies and graham gems, that mother could hardly surpass. When Mrs. Brown and her husband went away from Eugene to a logging camp in the coast range mountains, her boarders mourned the loss of her motherly kindness and her culinary achievements, and sought to find solace in the strings and shreds of food in other and inferior boarding houses.

Mrs. Brown has come back to Eugene, pulled, she admits, by the same feeling that brings the old grads back at Homecoming. "I missed it all," she said, with her easy laugh, "I count my nine years here, and my associations with the University faculty, the happiest of all my life. It is good to be back."

Mrs. Brown is not keeping boarders at 1390 Emerald street, however. She is cooking for Friendly hall. She prepares all the meats and the vegetables and if they are of a surpassing delicacy and tenderness it is easily explained by the presence of Mrs. Brown in the hall kitchen, as any of her former boarders, now on the campus, will testify.

DR. H. K. BENSON TO SPEAK

Government's Peacetime Work in Chemistry, to be Topic

Dr. H. K. Benson, professor of industrial chemistry at the University of Washington, will make an address under the auspices of the Kiwanis Club next Monday evening, October 17, at a dinner at the Osburn hotel. Dr. Benson's subject will be Government's Peacetime Work in Chemistry.

He was active in the chemical warfare service at Washington during the war, and is widely known among chemistry men as an authority in the industrial branch. The Kiwanis club cordially invites faculty members to hear Dr. Benson, and the invitation is reinforced by the department of chemistry of the University. Faculty members who expect to go are asked to telephone Mrs. Fitch at 793 not later than Saturday at 11 a. m.

RESERVE DEPARTMENT AT LIBRARY GROWING

Carpets and New Furniture May Replace Makeshift Now in Use After First of Year

The present equipment of the reserve section of the University library will probably be replaced in part after the first of the year, according to M. H. Douglass, librarian, who says that the makeshift now in use was necessary only because of the lack of available funds to purchase newer. Carpets will probably be placed on the floor and new desk furniture secured.

That the reserve department is growing continually is clearly evident from a comparison of the average number of books on reserve during the first twelve days of October, 1920, and the first 12 days of October this year. Last year the number on reserve at that time was 706 and this year 768.

The telephone, formerly open for use of students in the basement of the library, has been transferred to the reserve section on the second floor. All students who wish to use the telephones are free to use the one in the reserve section.
