

FROSH SHOW OLD FIGHT IN CLASH WITH VARSITY

Infants Give Veterans Lots of Action in Scrimmage

SEVERAL SLIGHTLY HURT

Coaches Finding Difficulty in Picking First Team

Freshman gridsters took the opportunity to show what they were made of Tuesday afternoon when they bucked into the Varsity eleven with so much fight and pep that even their coaches were surprised. There was nothing one-sided about the scrimmage, the yearlings holding their own through most of it, and at times more than holding it.

Coaches Williams and Brandenberg watched their men closely, playing first one and then the other in the various positions, but nothing definite would they put out in the way of a lineup for Saturday's game.

Unable to Pick Team
"I thought I could pick out a team, but after tonight I don't know," Baz asserted after the scrimmage was over. Another night or two of practice should enable the coaches to determine which men will start things off in the coming struggle. Several of the players suffered injuries which, while not serious, may keep them from playing this week-end.

Godecke and Broecker showed up to advantage on the line playing their positions like veterans. Spear went like a whirlwind on the end position, but hurt his arm and had to leave the field before getting a good opportunity to find himself. French, who took his place, succeeded in stopping several of the lettermen's plays before they got under way. Bliss, playing the other end, did consistent work throughout. Lovelace in the backfield made good yardage several times through the opposing lines, due to his speed. Williams at center repeatedly proved that he had the old fight in his system, and once or twice succeeded in plowing through the Varsity defense in time to stop the play. Sutton, the speedy fullback, played up to form, as did Jacobberger playing at half.

Varsity Edge Slight
On the whole the freshmen played a hard, scrappy game, proving their mettle to Shy's warriors. While the veteran players had the edge on the youngsters it was not very great. In several places they were held for yardage by them, and twice Baz's men successfully negotiated forward passes.

Until the last few minutes of play the frosh were on the defensive, but later on the "ghost ball" was brought into action and a chance was given them to take it down the field. On both the defensive and offensive the men played a brand of ball that promises to make Mt. Angel step out to keep in the running during the coming game.

RECOGNITION SERVICE TO BE AT BUNGALOW TODAY

Extensive Public Campaigning
Planned for This Week

Recognition service for new members of the Y. W. C. A. will be held today at 4:45 in the bungalow. Ruth Flegal, president of the association, will preside at the candle service, which is customary every year, and ten girls will sing "Hymn of the Lights" as part of the service. All girls who have signed pledges and membership cards are expected to attend.

At a meeting in the bungalow Tuesday evening, the finance committee reported that over half the money to be raised on the campus has been pledged. Yesterday and today are the last days of intensive campaigning and it is hoped that girls who have not been approached or who have not joined, will report at the bungalow. More workers have been added to the committee which met last night, and they will meet again tonight to report on their work.

The advisory board of the association is planning extensive public campaigning in Eugene. During the week the work of the Y. W. C. A. will be brought before as many club meetings as possible and before the churches next Sunday.

Miss Marion J. Hopper, representative from national headquarters in New York, is here to help the students and advisory board with financial problems.

Miss Mary Eliza Clark, traveling secretary of the Presbyterian church, will be on the campus this week end. Miss Clark, whose headquarters are in New York, is a graduate of Wellesley, and is covering all colleges west of the Mississippi during the year. An opportunity for conference with her may be had by signing up at the bungalow or at the residence of Rev. Bruce J. Giffen.

FIRST SENIOR "BUST" OF YEAR SCHEDULED FRIDAY

Jazz, Cider, Doughnuts and Old Clothes
Will Mingle in Joyous Whirl
At Men's Gymnasium

It's to be next Friday night in the men's gymnasium! What! The first Senior Bust of the year! So it was decided at the "wandering jew" meeting held late yesterday afternoon by the seniors, so called on account of the wanderings of the senior tribe from the Y. M. C. A. hut, where the meeting was to have been held, to Villard hall, then to Commerce hall, all three places of which were occupied, and finally to beneath the Condon oaks. There the pow-wow was straitforth pulled.

Leith Abbott, president of the seniors, says that there will be lots of jazz, at the bust, as well as cider and doughnuts. No dates are to exist nor will there be a lottery for partners. Old clothes will be the vogue and all seniors are expected to be present. The party is to be informal. "Lots of Paul Jones," said the senior president.

"Art" Kuhnsausen, one member of the committee on the bust, of which Helen Nelson and Bill Collins are the other two, has promised features. An orchestra is being assembled by Carl Newbury and plans are rapidly being formulated for all parts of the affair.

Abbott said that the bust would be only for seniors and some of the faculty. No juniors, sophomores or freshmen need anticipate a pleasurable evening at it.

At the meeting last night it was decided that the Class of '22 would revive the tradition of seniors leading all rallies. The tradition was put into effect last afternoon at the California rally.

number of the Emerald. The team and coaching staff hastily climbed aboard the train as soon as it pulled into the depot. The yell kings led the crowd in a thundrous "varsity yell," a hearty "We can't be beat," and a full fledged "oskie" as the headlights of the Shasta moved into the mist-tinted darkness. Members of the team waved from their seats as the train moved out and "Bill" smiled broadly as he tapped the window.
