

INTRAMURAL DEBATE LEAGUE ORGANIZED

Nineteen Teams Will Vie For Campus Honors

The first meeting of the Intramural Debate League was held last night at 7:15 in the Commerce building for the purpose of discussing the program for the coming year. The main issue which the members decided on was the abolishment of faculty coaching. Hereafter the students will be solely responsible for the success of their teams.

A schedule of dates for the debates this term was agreed on as follows: November 15—All teams debate; November 22—All teams debate; November 23—Winners; November 29—Girl winners vs. men winners.

The question for the first debate to be given November 15 was announced as: Resolved: That the United States should adopt a system of national direct primaries for the selection of candidates for the presidency.

Nineteen of the organizations of men and women students were represented at a meeting. They follow: Gamma Phi Beta, Zeta Rho Epsilon, Women's Oregon Club, Alpha Delta Pi, Susan Campbell hall, Hendrick's hall, Men's Oregon club, Phi Delta Phi, Phi Gamma Delta, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Kappa Theta Chi, Beta Theta Pi, Phi Sigma Pi, Kappa Sigma, Sigma Chi, Sigma Nu, Chi Psi, Bachelordon, Delta Theta Phi, Friendly hall.

The meeting was conducted by Professor C. D. Thorpe of the department of public speaking of the faculty. Professor Miller of the economics department spoke briefly on the importance of debate on the campus as an activity.

unit has more of the qualities of the smooth-running machine.

Competition for positions on the team is still keen, with two or more evenly matched players for most of the positions. In the back field Smith and Haak compete for quarter position, neither showing much advantage over the other. Sutton and Bagley struggle to hold down left half. Lovelace looks good in the right half berth, and French and Guldager struggle for the place at full.

Injured Men Back

On the line Bliss will probably start at right end. Broecker and Godecke show up well for right tackle and right guard respectively. Quinn is playing at left guard, with Spear shifted from end to left tackle. Davidson performs to advantage at left end.

The men injured in the scrimmage with the Varsity last Tuesday afternoon are back on the field.

DOUGHNUT TRACK WORK MAKING RAPID STRIDES

Sixteen Campus Organizations Taking Part in Training Under Foster; Practice Every Evening

Track work in the Doughnut league is coming along nicely under the direction of Hank Foster. Practice will be held every evening from 4 to 6 o'clock. The league is composed of 16 organizations composed of men from the different fraternities and clubs on the campus. The organization is then divided into two groups which will be called group "A" and group "B", thus allowing each house two teams.

A mile relay will be run by a team from group "A" and one from group "B" each team having eight men who will run 220 yards each. The winners of this race will run the winners of the other race for the first eight points, then the losers of each will run the final race for the remaining eight places. The race will be held the latter part of this quarter at the first open date. Every one is urged to report from their respective houses and get into condition for the race.

This league is formed to stimulate an interest in track work and to give the fellows a chance to get into condition before regular cross country work starts.

PURPOSES OF Y. W. TOLD

Ruth Flegal Tells of Association Ideals; Membership Drive Ended

Recognition services for new members of the Y. W. C. A. were held in the bungalow yesterday afternoon. Ruth Flegal, in a short talk on the work of the association, told of its purpose—the promotion and development of the spirit of Christian fellowship among women of the campus. "Cheerfulness, kindness and squareness are to be encouraged," she said. The committee work of the association affords a place for every girl who is interested, as there is extensive work in many departments.

The candle service, which is part of every year's service, was held after the hymn and prayer. Each girl lighted her small candle from the large one representing the work of the Young Women's Christian Association.

Yesterday ended this year's membership drive. Any girls who have not yet joined may do so, however, by reporting at the bungalow.

AD EXPERT TO BE VISITOR

CHARLES H. MACKINTOSH MAY SPEAK AT ASSEMBLY DEC. 2

Talk Will Probably be Along Publicity Lines, Speaker to be Entertained by Local Organizations

Charles Henry Mackintosh, president of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, is scheduled to visit the University on December 2, according to word received by Professor W. F. G. Thacher. Mr. Mackintosh is on a tour of the United States and his stop here was made possible by W. P. Strandborg, who has charge of the publicity department of the Portland Railway, Light and Power company.

Mr. Mackintosh is known to the advertising world as a young man who has accomplished things and who has come to the top by ability and enthusiasm. He has held a number of important positions in advertising agencies and during the war was editor of the bulletins sent to the Four Minute speakers. He is now director of sales and advertising of the La Salle Extension Institute, although in the past three years he has addressed many of the advertising and business clubs of the country. The Associated Advertising magazine for July carried an article concerning him.

An effort will be made to have Mr. Mackintosh come on Thursday, December 2, rather than on Friday as planned, in order that all students will get a chance to hear him at the assembly. His talks are usually along the lines of advertising and publicity and if he addresses the assembly he will probably talk on this subject.

While here Mr. Mackintosh will be entertained by the Advertising club of the University, which is a member of the world association, and by the downtown advertisers. He has never visited the University.

His interest in education is said to be especially strong as he was for a year the chairman of the educational committee of the association.

Here in this chair I'll put a glare upon them something swell.
