

HOMECOMING LETTERS TO GO OUT IN FLOOD

Campaign on Campus Will be Launched Next Week

NEWBURY DIRECTS WORK

All Campus Committee Named To Promote Project

Every student on the campus will be called upon to write a letter to a graduate or former student of the University inviting them to return for Homecoming, within the next two weeks, according to Carl Newbury who has just been appointed chairman of the Homecoming letter writing committee by Norton Winnard, chairman of the general Homecoming committee. Newbury has appointed the following committee to care for the work in campus organizations:

Gamma Phi Beta, Helen Nelson; Chi Omega, Margaret Mathisen; Kappa Alpha Theta, Margaret Beatie; Delta Delta Delta, Betty Pride; Kappa Kappa Gamma, Alice Evans; Delta Gamma, Helen Loughary; Alpha Phi, Ila Nichols; Pi Beta Phi, Marvel Skeels; Alpha Delta Pi, Velma Rupert; Delta Zeta, Gertrude Smith; Alpha Chi Omega, Gladys Keeney; Zeta Rho Epsilon, Mary Sargent; Delta Tau Delta, Raymond Lawrence; Alpha Tau Omega, Ralph Couch; Sigma Nu, Sydney Haylip; Phi Gamma Delta, Ogden Johnson; Kappa Sigma, Arthur Kuhnhausen; Sigma Chi, Charles Lamb; Beta Theta Pi, Eugene Kelty; Phi Delta Theta, Wilbur Hoyt; Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Frank Carter; Chi Psi, Ralph Taylor; Delta Theta Phi, Morris Eben; Kappa Theta Chi, James Say; Bachelordon, Dan Welch; Phi Sigma Pi, Ralph Poston; Friendly hall, Carl Bowman; Oregon club, Emerald Sloan, Roy Veatch, Helen Addison and Glen Frank; Hendricks hall, Margaret Buschel, Frances Habersham; Susan Campbell hall, Dorothy Dixon; Thatcher and Haley cottages, Felleia Perkins.

All members on this committee are asked to meet with Chairman Newbury in room 212 of the commerce building at 4:30 this afternoon, at which time more definite plans will be formulated.

Homecoming envelopes are now on sale at the Co-op store and more are being printed so that an "envelope day" may be held on the campus next week. A concise program of Homecoming events will be announced soon so that students may include it in their letters.

General Chairman Winnard has made the following appointments to committees framing details for the annual event: Wilbur Phillips, dance committee; luncheon committee, Ranson McArthur, Eva Beckman and Echo Balderee.

SHY'S MEN SHOW OLD-TIME FIGHT

for the Fijis, while Gore, at guard, besides playing an unusually good defensive game, garnered four field baskets. Wagner, at guard, played good ball for the dormitory men.

The lineups were:
Friendly hall (5) Phi Delta (35)
Martinsen 1 F. Altstok 17
Goodell F. Staley 2
Saucoer 2 C. McMillan 6
Wagner 2 G. Gore 8
Sayre G. Schaefer 2
Substitutions: Fijis, Knudsen for McMillan, Hill for Staley, Jones for Schaefer. Referee, Durno.

Phi Delta Game Close
The Phi Deltas took a hard fought contest from the Oregon Club No. 1 team by a score of 13 to 12. It was nip and tuck from whistle to whistle, with either team standing to win until the last minute. Both teams played the floor well and showed good team work. Alm and Wright were the point-getters for the Phi Deltas while Hill and Frasier played the best game for the losers.

The lineups were:
Oregon Club No. 1 (12) Phi Deltas (13)
Sloan F. Alm 6
McCleary 2 F. Murphy
Hill 7 C. Wright 5
Frasier 1 G. Gavin 2
Ericson G. Miner
Substitutions: Oregon Club, Furry 2 for Sloan. Phi Deltas, Dunn for Murphy. Referee, Andre.

AD CLUB MEETING CALLED

All Members Asked to be at Journalism Shack This Afternoon

A meeting of the University Ad club has been called for this afternoon at 5 o'clock in the journalism shack. Plans for the entertainment of Charles H. Mackintosh, president of the associated advertising clubs of the World, on his visit to the campus on December 1, will be formulated at the meeting. During his stay on the campus, Mr. Mackintosh is to be the guest of the Ad club and the officers of the organization wish to start in at once to prepare for him.

Among the other matters to be brought up will be the election of a secretary-treasurer, Leroy Ashcraft not being in school this term. Other matters will also be brought up for discussion.

FILIPINO CLUB FORMED WITH NINETEEN MEMBERS

Canuto Udasco is Elected President; Intention is to Take Part in Debate and Athletics

Canuto Udasco of Piddig, Province of Ilocos Norte, Philippine Islands, was elected president of the Filipino club, organized last night in Dean Straub's office. There are nineteen members in the association, twelve of whom are students on the University campus, the remainder being registered in Eugene high school or the Eugene Bible university.

Other officers elected were Vicent Aqueno, vice-president, Alejandro Pablo, secretary, and Romulo Avila, treasurer.

Fortunato Samonte, Romeo Ronquillo and Lucius Aquino were appointed to draw up the constitution. The club, which is intended primarily to bring together the students from the Islands who are residing in Eugene, plan to engage in various campus activities, debate, music and athletics.

Lucius Aquino, Onifra Hipe, Federico Plurad, Juan Delmendo and Romulo Avila were delegated to investigate the talent of the organization and make plans for the term's activities.

RUTH FLEGAL RESIGNS

Y. W. C. A. Loses Two Presidents in Year; Nominating Committee Named

The Y. W. C. A. has been especially unfortunate this year in not being able to retain officers. Ruth Flegal, president of the association, has resigned and Phebe Gage, vice-president, is unable to fill the vacancy as her time is filled by other work.

A nominating committee composed of three girls—Glyde Schuebel, Kay Bald, and Charlotte Clark, will meet soon to nominate a new president. The date for their meeting has not yet been set, however.

A regular cabinet meeting will be held next Tuesday, November 1, in the bungalow.
