

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL ASKS EXPENDITURE SLASH IN BUDGETS

Amounts Asked by Orchestra,
League and Football
Satisfactory

SEPARATE COPIES ASKED

Funds to Send Bartholomew and Emerald Editor to Conference Voted

Discussion of the budgets in the various lines of activities, which were presented to the executive council occupied the greater part of the meeting of the body yesterday. The budgets, which are destined to carry the activities over until January 15, 1922, when the complete budgets for a year are required, were in many cases too large and the decision of the finance committee of the executive council was unanimous to return these to their respective committees for revising and cutting down in various expenditures.

Three are Ratified

The only ones ratified by the finance committee of the council were those of the orchestra, women's league and the football committee. The suggestion that the council ratify the budgets as they were presented and recommended by the finance committee, met with opposition on the part of various members of the council. It was held by these members that as the council was charged with complete financial responsibility, it is necessary that each member of the council be supplied with copies of the budgets to study at length and vote upon at a meeting after plenty of time had been allowed for the discussion of various amendments and suggestions.

Question Raised by Dymont

The question was first raised by Dean Dymont, who declared that any action of the council at this time while the new constitution was being tested would be taken as a precedent at other times during the year, and that the council must realize the financial responsibility with which it is charged. In the opinion of Dean Bovard, it should be the duty of every member of the executive council to know the various items of expenditures as they were called for by the prepared budgets.

The discussion resulted in a motion being made by D. Walker that a complete copy of each budget submitted to the council, be furnished each member of the body. The motion was passed and Graduate Manager Jack Benefiel was instructed by President Bartholomew to prepare the copies for each member as the budgets were submitted.

Football Work Interferes

Benefiel declared that the work of his office during the football season was such that it would be impossible to prepare the copies in detail and have them ready for the next session of the council. Dean Dymont suggested that the manager submit the budgets as they came in, not to attempt to prepare them all for action at once, and as this appeared to be the consensus of the council, the graduate manager was instructed to follow out this suggestion.

It was clearly the opinion of many members of the council that the cutting down of budgets be distributed uniformly and not thrown as a burden on

Girls, Captive, Starving, Saved By "R. Porter"

Let's see, would you say E. Porter flowed down or slid down? Well, if four girls are locked in a room in Susan Campbell hall for nearly three hours and E. Porter comes to their rescue spider-like from the third story with a rope as his web, it is proper to say that E. Porter slid down.

'Twas like this: Late in the afternoon one day during the week-end just passed four girls in the hall just mentioned were hurriedly preparing for the evening meal. In their accelerated preparations the door was banged shut, breaking the lock spring. Four damsels were prisoners in their own castle.

For some time the imprisoned girls worked at the lock, but finally much banging and excited voices heralded the fact that the inmates desired to get out. They were informed that masculine assistance would soon come to the rescue. But sisterly negligence or delayed orders prevented the rescuer from making his heroic debut until long past the time for the evening meal.

Finally, from the third story, there ascended a gentleman with an anti-Volsteadian name who entered through the window, removed the door from its hinges and released the girls. Since Mr. Porter's first name is Raymond it is supposedly proper to say that E. Porter slid down.

VARSITY FOOTBALL TEAM IS GIVEN A GENERAL SHAKEUP

Reorganized Squad Will Face
Cougars In Big Game
Next Saturday

It will be a reorganized varsity that takes the field against Washington State in Pullman Saturday and it will be an eleven that has a fighting chance to win against the powerful Cougar machine, in the opinion of "Shy" Huntington, Oregon's head coach. Huntington is rather optimistic over the situation and said that the squad was at last mastering the details of inside football that he has been hammering at them all season.

The first string lineup showed some marked changes in personnel in scrimmage last night. Rud Brown, who has played guard all season has been jerked back to a wing position and will fight it out with Howard, Clerin, and Morfitt for a berth on the outside of the line. Rud has been playing a great game at guard but the need of his smashing attack was felt at the ends so he was changed. With Captain Howard's knees still giving him some trouble, Brown will probably alternate at left end.

"Chuck" Parsons and "Tiny" Shields have been pulled up from the backfield to fill the hole left by Brown at right guard. Both are heavy, Parsons weighing in at 190 and Shields tipping the beam at 192. This change will add weight to the center of the line where it is needed, and should add power on both offensive and defensive plays. They were both given a work-

OREGON SPIRIT ON RAMPAGE TONIGHT AT VILLARD RALLY

TRIO OF WASHINGTON STATE GRIDIRON STARS
WHO WILL BATTLE SHY HUNTINGTON'S PROTEGES

From Left to Right—Eldon Jenne, right half, who will do punting for W. S. C. against Oregon; Butch Durrwachter, right guard, who was shifted to that position from full back at the start of the season, and Verne Hickey, left end, one of the outstanding stars in the Bear-Cougar clash last Saturday.

COMEDY SET FOR NOV. 9-10

'WHY MARRY?' TO BE FIRST
PLAY OF THIS TERM

Cast Entirely of Actors Who Appeared
Last Year; Strindberg and Show to Follow

November 9 and 10 are the dates set for "Why Marry?" by Jesse Lynch Williams, a three-act comedy with a present day problem, which will be the first play to be produced in Guild hall this term. "Swanwhite" a fantasy by August Strindberg will follow in the early part of December and the third play to be produced by the company this term will be George Bernard Shaw's "Pygmalion" which will be produced in the Eugene theatre under the auspices of the Eugene Elks to raise money for their Christmas Cheer Fund.

All of the cast of "Why Marry?" are students who played in productions last year and many of them can be remembered in leading roles. The leading parts will be played by Irene Stewart, Norvell Thompson, Claire Keeney, and Verne Fudge. The play is a story of a young chemist, by Norvell Thompson, who because it would interfere with his future, will not marry the girl he loves. The part of the girl, Helen, will be played by Irene Stewart. Helen's brother, John, who is very conventional and who would do anything to uphold the honor of the family, will be played by Verne Fudge.

Claire Keeney has the comedy part of the old judge who is seeking a divorce from his wife and who thinks the younger generation is really waking up. The judge does not bother about the conventional himself, but he marries the couple just as they are leaving for Paris, and they do not know they are being married. The other members of the cast are Rex, Delbert Faust; Theodore, Kenneth Armstrong; Lucy, John's wife, Elizabeth Mellis; and Jean, sister to John, Doris Pittenger.

TWO UP FOR Y. W. HEAD

Charlotte Clark and LeLaine West
Named for Post by Committee

Charlotte Clark and LeLaine West were nominated for president of the Y. W. C. A. at a meeting of the nominating committee, of which Kay Bald, Glyde Schuebel and Charlotte Clark are members. The election will be held at the regular meeting of the Y. W. C. A. in the bungalow, tomorrow. The nomination of a new president was made through the resignation of Ruth Flegal, several days ago.

COMMITTEE TO MEET TODAY

A meeting at which plans will be made for collecting money for the Homecoming luncheon is called for this afternoon at 5:15 in Room 1 of the Oregon building. The following are asked to be present: C. C. Wilson, H. W. Wilson, A. F. Winter, Edwin Winter, L. A. Winthrow, P. C. Witmer, J. M. Wolfe, Marie Wood, E. L. Wood, F. C. Wood, Don M. Woods, D. L. Woodward, C. W. Worthen, Harry Wastell, Helen Wastell, Ada Wright, F. O. Wright, Tokeo Yomane, J. F. Yetter, and Katherine Yemane.

Cougar Claws Ready; W. S. C. Suffers Few Hurts in Bear Game

Washington State College, Pullman, November 1.—(P. I. N. S.)—Special—Few injuries were suffered by the Cougars in their battle with the California Bears in Portland last Saturday and Coach Welch is expected to start practically the same line-up against the Oregon eleven.

Practice this week has been spent in developing a stronger defense. To date this season defensive tactics have been the Cougar's weak point and Welch is taking no chances on Saturday's game.

If Skadan starts at quarter it is almost certain that aerial attack will be used to a great extent. Skadan is probably the best passer on the squad and while he is in the game a good percentage of the attempts for yardage will be overhead.

Sax prefers straight football and stars at open field work. With Moe calling signals it is more than likely that line plays and end runs will predominate.

Jenne and Zaepfel are rapidly developing into as smooth a pair of backs as can be found on the Coast and Moran gives every evidence of filling Gillis' shoes to perfection. Always a good offensive player, Moran is also going good on defense, a point where he was weak last year.

Captain Dutch Dunlap at center is showing the same form that won him a place on the All-Coast team last year and McKay and Durrwachter especially showed up well on smashing interference and getting through the line. Dunton looks like an All-Coast tackle this year and on the other side of the line Art Hamilton is giving a good account of himself in brother Fred's old position.

Hanley, Loomis, Hickey and Bohannon are all playing ball and what they may lack in weight is made up in fight. Bohannon looked nice against California when it came to stepping in and around the interference and nailing the man with the ball.

COMMERCE MIX THURSDAY

EUGENE COMMERCE CHAMBER TO BE SCENE OF JOLLITY

Big Eats, Jazz Orchestra and Stunts
to be Features of Evening's Social Program

The first big get-together "bust" of all commerce majors is to be held at the Eugene Chamber of Commerce rooms Thursday night at eight. W. D. B. Dodson, manager of the Portland chamber of commerce, will speak on "Chamber of Commerce Work as a Profession." Mr. Dodson has devoted a great deal of time to chamber of commerce work, and is recognized as an authority on this subject.

Announcements of prizes and scholarships to be awarded by the school of business administration will be made at this time by President Campbell. Individual prizes are also to be offered by different departments within the school.

The program for the evening contains several snappy stunts, aided by a special orchestra. "Big eats" will be an important feature of the meeting.

"The unusual is to happen Thursday night," announced Prof. John R. Whitaker, who is in charge of the affair, "and we expect every commerce major out. This is the first big get-together 'bust' of the year, and every effort is being made to make it a tremendous success."

FUDGE TO MANAGE 'COMPANY'

Verne Fudge, a junior in the University, has been appointed business manager for the dramatic company on the campus.

PLEDGING ANNOUNCEMENT

Gamma Phi Beta announces the pledging of Mina Miner, of Los Angeles.

SECRET SOCIETIES BANNED

NO DANCING IN BUILDING, RULES
UNIVERSITY HIGH FACULTY

Entertainments Encouraged; School
Parties to Have Instructors and Parents as Chaperones

The ban has been placed on fraternities and similar secret organizations in the University high school, and no dances are to be held in the school building.

Prof. H. R. Douglass, educational director, and Rollien Dickerson, principal, ruled that all organizations must be under school supervision or have faculty advisers as secret societies in high school were regarded as unwholesome.

Bulletins have been sent to patrons of the school in order that it may be made clear what responsibility the faculty will assume in such matters. A certain amount of sensible social life and good times for high school students is regarded as beneficial and a number of school parties and entertainments will be encouraged during the year.

It is recommended in the bulletin that all dances attended by students be chaperoned by instructors and a representative number of parents, and it is urged that mid-week social events be discouraged by parents.

The school and faculty disclaim all responsibility for any parties other than those regularly scheduled and chaperoned by the school and those jointly chaperoned by parents and instructors.

A girls' club which had already been organized is now under the direction of Mrs. Anna L. Beck and the boys' club has chosen Mr. Dickerson as supervisor.

PLEDGING ANNOUNCEMENT

Mu Phi Epsilon announces the pledging of Mildred Brown of San Jose, Cal.

TEAM TO BE GIVEN SEND-OFF TO W.S.C. CONTEST SATURDAY

Students Asked to Gather in Front of Library at 6:45 O'clock

'CRUSH THE COUGARS,' CRY

Line of March to be Short;
All Sorts of Noise
Makers Wanted

"Crush the Cougars."

The old disturber of silence is again to roam rampant over the Oregon campus shortly after 6:45 this evening when the vociferous hosts armed with noise reproducers gather in front of the library at the summons of the clan chieftain, Oberteuffer, and his active satellites, Larson, Rosenbraugh, and Woods. Things are going to be terribly tumultuous in Villard tonight, is the word passed.

No down-town rally will feature this invocation of the Oregon spirit preparatory to the crushing of the Cougars. Villard is to be the scene of the rally this time. President Campbell has said that the hall can be used as long as it is not torn down. "Obie" is not worrying where his Thundering Thousand will drape themselves just as long as the additional thousand can get into the place.

Team to Occupy Stage

On the stage of Villard this evening will be the team and coaching staff. President Campbell and other members of the faculty will also be present on the platform. Both the men's and women's glee clubs will join in paying homage to the Oregon spirit. All members of the faculty are invited and urged to attend this gala fete of spirit appeasement.

But the old spirit is out after noise tonight, says Obie. No prizes will be given for novel and original methods of extracting discordance from reverberatory instruments, but everyone is urged to bring some sort of noise producer.

Line of March Short

This spontaneous cloudburst which is to swirl around the campus this evening with much thunder, and perhaps some lightning is to be short and significant, according to the dope from the wigwam of the noise maker. The line of march is to be short. The gang—2000 of 'em and a few extra units for good measure—will gather in front of the library at 6:45, march down 13th to Alder, then to 11th, where the line of march will head south and swoop down on the Anchorage and the training table. Just a few steps from the Anchorage is Villard, where things are going to happen real peppy and noisy.

"The object of this rally is to show the football men that we are behind them when they meet up with the northern Cougars Saturday," said "Obie." The team leaves at 7:25 Thursday morning for Pullman.

Will be Spontaneous

"This is to be a spontaneous, let-'er-go affair," continued the varsity yell king. "Say, just imagine how it is going to sound in Villard. President Campbell has expressed a desire to know how the student spirit morals was holding up after our defeat by California. Now is our chance to let everyone know how the game goes. O. A. C. got trimmed also, and Homecoming is looming up on the horizon. All's well, so let's go. Crush the Cougars."

The band is requested to be in front of the library by 6:45. Above all, "Obie" admonishes the students not to forget to bring some kind of noise producer. Each house will be asked to come to the rally equipped with a devilish disturber of silence, and the individual members are supposed to bring anything which is portable and capable of creating an atmosphere of anti-silence.

NEW "Y" SECRETARY EXPECTED

L. P. Putman, former Christian service secretary of the central department of the Chicago Y. M. C. A., is expected to arrive on the campus within the next day or two to assume his duties as executive secretary of the University Y. M. C. A., according to Mrs. C. R. Donnelly, hut mother.

'Spooks' Play Pranks on Sorority Front Porches

Spooks were a-walkin' Halloween night. Goblins peeped around every corner, and witches moaned from the tops of the pine trees on the campus. And several people are ready to swear today that the goblins nearly got 'em that night.

As in the days of yore the dead came to life again, and the spirit of humor walked aboard in various guises. The sister houses seemed to be the favored ones.

Loud and excited cries of "Fire! Fire!" aroused the peacefully sleeping D. G.'s, who coolly watched the red glare creep up around the sleeping porch, before relapsing into their former babe-like slumber. A red light thrown on the porch failed to produce the desired panic.

A dashing speedster, of the vintage of 1902, decorated with a neat sign, "Circus Grounds," occupied the post of honor on the Gamma Phi front porch. Perhaps the girls are thinking of competing with the Thetas in the morning dash for the mail.

Someone, probably a disappointed pigger, decorated the Alpha Phi house with mourning crepe, and placed a "Patterson St." sign over the mail box.

When the cold grey dawn arrived, the Kappa Kappa Gamma house stood forth to the world with the Co-op sign across the front steps and the "Way-side Pulpit" of the Unitarian church on the front porch railing.

Oh yes! Spooks were abroad, all right. By the way, some of the fraternity brothers were sleepy in their 8 o'clocks.
